Snowbound Trains, Dead Engines, Freezing Tanks and Cyclone Winds.

OAKLAND, Cal., January 24. To the Editor of THE BEE. When our train left Omaha on the 17th at noon, the weather was fair, but some evil predicting prophets at Fremont promised us a bad night and it came to pass.

place, furnishing him with facial marriage license and certificates in which his name appears coupled with that of "May Cold," or some such mythical female. All this may be extremely funny, but those who delight in thus having their fun at the expense of the unfortunate, show that they lack in heart as much as the victim of their pranks lacks in head.

POINTS FOR POLICE. Some of the Rules and Regulations to Which Attention is Called.

Police men are human, or ought to be, and are therefore liable to yield to temptation and fall into sins, and if a fraction of the reports are to be believed, there are some on the force who rather enjoy the yielding and falling.

TOO MUCH LIP. A Row in Which One Man Bites His Assailant Badly.

There was a lively row started Tuesday night in Pat Lacy's place over a game of freeze-out, which seems to have resulted in a case of "bite-out," or as termed by law, mayhem. The participants were two men employed in Stewart's packing house named Josh Chapman and John Nell. The row arose about a quarter of a dollar staked on the game, and Nell claims that Chapman struck him, and followed this up by biting his upper lip badly. Dr. Seyher dressed the wound, and pronounces it quite serious. Nell entered formal complaint before Justice Vaughan yesterday, and a warrant was issued for Chapman's arrest, but he could not be found. Chapman lately came from Atlantic, where his home has been.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate in Sickness. PROF. ADOLPH OTT, New York, says: "I used it for seasickness, among the passengers, during a passage across the Atlantic. In the gentleness of case I saw the violent symptoms yield which characterize the disease, and give way to a healthful action of the functions impaired."

Dr. J. Meagher, Oculist, Aurist, and Specialist. In Chronic diseases, offers his services to all afflicted with diseases of the Eye, Ear, or Throat, and all other ailments. Warrants a cure in all chronic diseases. Can be consulted by mail or in person. The Metropolitan Hotel, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Dr. Poulson, who left recently for California seems to have had a hard time getting through to the Pacific summerland. He gives the details of his trip in an interesting letter to be found elsewhere in this paper, and which will be eagerly read by his many friends here.
