BORDEN'S BLUNDERS.

He Seems Even Worse as a Detective Than as a Showman. Many here remember a young man giving his name as Borden, who some few months ago spent several days here as the alleged advance agent of an alleged show, and after squeezing out all the personal favors he could get and getting what credit he could on that score, disappeared to play the game elsewhere. Since then he has been heard from as playing the role of detective, and has gained some notoriety in connection with the Hennecke abduction case in Milwaukee. A telegram from that city gives the following details:

Yesterday Mr. Casper Hennecke, father of the missing girl, Maggie Hennecke, gave the particulars of the plot connected by the man Borden, of Nebraska, for the purpose of getting money from Mr. Hennecke, on the pretense that he knew the whereabouts of the lost Maggie. The plan was a well prepared one, but the villain failed in the attempt. The man Brown who caused the arrest of Borden and his accomplices, Mr. Hennecke believes to be an honest man. It appears that Borden, in company with Brown, spent three days with Mr. Hennecke in this city, between the 10th and 15th of the present month, and it was during that time Mr. Hennecke discovered Borden to be a fraud. He let him go, however, until he developed his scheme unwittingly. Borden recently sent to Mr. Hennecke the ring and peach-stone basket which, it has been reported, was worn by Maggie when she disappeared. The ring was marked with the letters "M. H." on the inside. While Borden was at the Hennecke residence it was noticed that he had paid much attention to the jewelry worn by the girls of the family, desiring to get an idea of their rings so that he could duplicate them. The ring and little basket sent him by him to Mr. Hennecke were what exposed the fraud. The ring worn by Maggie instead of being marked on the inside with her initials was marked on the outside, and the little basket, reputed to have been made of a peach stone, was made of a hickory nut, so that the trinket returned by Borden bore not even a semblance to those worn by the girl. Borden was last heard from in Chicago, where it is alleged he was working up the case. If he is not now outside of the state of Illinois it is probable his case will be worked up one by the authorities.

Those who crowd about the pound being so much for use as to render it cretely to animals to place them there, should heap over into the enclosure and see for themselves the variety of conveniences, and especially note the excellence of the ventilation. No! No! The city needs no new pound.

Free of Charge. All persons suffering from Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Loss of Voice, or any affection of the Throat and Lungs, are requested to call at C. F. Goodman's drug store and get a Trial Bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, free of charge, which will convince them of its wonderful merits and show what a regular collar-size bottle will do. Call early.

IOWA ITEMS. Parties with capital will start a creamery and cheese factory at Peterson if the citizens will furnish the building. The people of Cedar Falls complain that the Telephone company charge too much for the talking privilege. An effort will be made to bolster up the college at Ames in the spring. The citizens have raised several thousand dollars towards it. The Masons of Des Moines are discussing the advisability of building a new hall. They will probably do so, as they now have no suitable meeting place. A public-minded citizen of the state has put the task on himself to see that Des Moines does not further increase its municipal debt which is now over $300,000. He has brought an injunction suit. The board of supervisors of Buena Vista spot that is a little Eden, though snowed under several feet. What there is to complain of there is more than the unprejudicial mind can conceive, and not one of the three cows who were stopping at this open roofed winter hotel uttered a word of complaint. They could not in justice to themselves and the place. Every comfort and convenience needed and some not needed, were visible there. Everything is on the ground floor, and there being no roof there is perfect safety from fire, even if the gasoline stored there by the city shall burn. There are several big flat boats lying around there for use in case of a fire. A cannon is there for use in case of war. There is a big lot of rocks for the cows to throw at naughty boys who tease them. There is a large harrow standing against the fence, with its long teeth projecting and conveniently for the cows to scratch themselves on. There are two road scrapers, a pile of lumber, several big timbers and half a dozen lamp posts of various kinds, and a number of piles of old iron, a heap of fine rails, where a barn once stood, a Fourth of July and Decoration Day platform, one hand, one superannuated windlass, one thirty well-curb and a hole in the ground under it, a part of a feed mill, a plow, a carpenter's horse, impounded for some reason under the stock ordinance, besides several spears of hay.

The entrance to this bovine hotel are carefully secured by locks, so that there is little danger from burglars breaking into the rooms at night. With such furnishings, of which the foregoing is a pretty accurate inventory, why should not the cows feel that they ought to be more than ordinary cows to live there at all for any length of time? Even to die in such a place must be sweet—for cows.

The board of supervisors of Buena Vista county has offered a reward of $1,000 for one hundred tons of coal mined within the county and delivered in Storm Lake within 12 months from January 1, 1883. The Benedict home at Des Moines seems to be unable to restrain its inmates from returning to their civil course as soon as they get an opportunity. Jennie Dickinson, keeper of an Omaha bagnio, coaxed away on Thursday a girl who had been living at the home for two months, and took her on to Omaha. The Dickinson woman claimed to be Mrs. Irwin, wife of a hardware dealer in Council Bluffs.

The World Moves—Bill and Science Triumphant. Our reporter relates the following remarkable experience of one of our most reliable and substantial merchants, Messrs. Stephen G. Mason. Mr. Mason says that from 1865 to 1870 he suffered terribly from frequent very severe attacks of inflammatory rheumatism. The last attack in the winter of '79 and '80 was so severe as to render him unable to take a step in four months. His physicians thought that one side of him was paralyzed, and both knees became so stiff that he could not bend them. The doctors pronounced his case incurable, leaving him in a terrible condition. It was then indicated to try Hunt's Remedy, by a medical friend who told him that his whole sickness and trouble arose from kidney disease, and convinced Mr. Mason that such was the case, and after taking six weeks was entirely cured, and is now in such robust physical condition that neither damp weather nor wet feet affect him disagreeably. Mr. Mason says that his cure is complete, as it is more than two years since he has had the disease. "I attribute my most remarkable cure solely to Hunt's Remedy, the Infallible Kidney and Liver Medicine," says Mr. Mason—Providence Evening Press.

The Best. William H. Wilson, M., Springfield, Edington Co., Va., says: "I prescribed Hunt's Remedy in a couple of cases of Dropsy which I had been treating for eight years, and I find Hunt's Remedy is the best medicine for dropsy, and the kidneys I have ever used."

Owls My Existence. Abigail B. Colton, of Mooretown, Burlington Co., N. J., says: "Eighteen months ago I had Dropsy around the heart. My physicians and friends despaired of my ever getting well. The first bottle of Hunt's Remedy gave me some relief. I feel now my very existence is due to Hunt's Remedy, and I am deeply thankful."

A true friend to the weak and convalescent is Brown's Iron Bitters. Money for the Unmarried. One of the most solid and substantial institutions in this country is the Marriage Fund Mutual Trust association of Cedar Rapids, Ia. During their first year, ending January 1st, 1883, they paid over $31,000.00 in benefits to their members, and the greatest satisfaction prevails among their certificate holders. They are organized under the laws of Iowa, and their officers and directors are among the leading and most prominent business men of Cedar Rapids. Every unmarried person should have a certificate in this association. It is a splendid investment, as safe, secure and sure as a government bond. You can just as well have a good sum of money to commence married life on as not. Over 200 members have been paid off, receiving over 300 per cent. on their investment. Send a postal card for free circulars fully detailing the plan, which is the finest known. Good agents can get territory if applied for soon. Write to-day. Do not post-
