Forthcoming Appearance of Genera Tom Thumb and Wife in Omaha. The announcement of the forth coming appearance of Gen. Tom Thumb and his charming little wife in this city will be hailed with delight by all alike, old and young.

It is probably the last opportunity that will ever be afforded to see these two world-renowned personages. The party passed through the big fire at Milwaukee recently, and the Burlington Hawkeye man interviewed the general on the subject, and says:

"General Tom Thumb and wife, nee Miss Lavinni Warren, arrived in the city yesterday noon from the east and were at once driven to the Gorham House, where a suite of rooms was engaged for them during their stay In Burlington. As General Thumb entered the waiting room he approached the clerk and requested that he be provided with rooms on the second floor. Aftef referring to his recent experience in the Milwaukee the Millard. conflagration he remarked that one of his reasons for desiring quarters on the Poxton. the second floor, was that his legs were very short and that in case of a fire he could not escape with such ra- are at the Paxton. pidity as the more elongated guests The party then retired amid the gaze of all present.

After the matinee yesterday afternoon a representative of The Hawkeye entered the Gorham house waiting room, and discovered the genera doubled up in a chair enjoying a brief visit to the land of Nod. The sweet repose of the slumbering pigmy general was rudely interposed by the newspaper fiend, who immediately began applying the reportorial pump. The drooping syclids were opened, when the scribe propounded the following:

"Well, general, how's your body? General-"What there is of it feels pretty good."

Although the general was apparently not in a lequacious mood and exhibited a distroination to talk, the scribe ventured another sociable sally. He knew a remark about the unpre cedented cold weather could not fail to arouse the general from his lethargic condition. R -"Has the frigid state of the
