LOCAL BREVITIES.

-The street cars got around nearly or time vesterday notwithstanding

-The hotels are well filled up with legulators and politicians during the recess of the legislature. -The lecture of Dean Hart, at Trinity oathedral next Tuesday evening will b very interesting. -The internal revenue collections for the month of January were the largest in the history of the state, and amounted to $142 811.77. -There were two cases of plain drunk in court yesterday. One was dismissed and the defendant in the other went up for three days. -The case of assault and battery against B. McLaughlin, in which H. G. Baker was the complainant, has been dismissed, the complaint being withdrawn. -Three notarial comp.issions] were today received with Gov. Dawes' signature attached. They were for George W.

Shields, W. R. Morris and Joseph R. -Genesal Manderson's photograph was Thursday forwarded to The Daily Graphic by Mr. E. L. Eston, and will appear shortly with the pictures of other newly elected senators. -M. B. Gabler, who was formerly proprietor of the European hotel at Fremont, and is popular in this part of the state, has purchased the large restaurant at 1212 fore be it Farnam street.

-The Iler hose company will have a meeting to-day (Saturday), February ally, who have contributed by their retary.

There is now at the Masonic hall an every day free dinner for the poor of every creed. The meal hour is from 12 to 1 p. m. This is practical benevolence that will be appreciated by those who need it

-The regular meeting of G. A. Custer post No. 7, G. A. R., will be held Monday evening, February 5th, 1883. All members of the post are requested to be present. Business of importance. Visit ing comrades are cordially invited to attend. By order of post commander, C. H. Fitch, adjutant.

-John Fisher and Andrew Waldron two boys charged with stea ing forty cents worth of coal from a loaded car consigned to Geo. Patterson, were sent up for three days each by Judge Beneke. Omaha merchants should not complain when one Council Bluffs company loses two tons per night by the same source.

-If you want good liquors and cigars call at Wittig's opera house exchange, 1416 Farnam street. The genial and popular proprietor sets out a magnificent warm lunch every morning from 10 till noon, and those who have partaken of it send under proper escort Private say that there is nothing to equal it in the Henry Miller, company A, 6th Infanf2-1mo

-Mr. J. E. Mumaugh, one of the main stays in the great establishment of A. L. Strang, is a proud man to-day, having at 10 o'clock Thursday become father to a nine-pound girl. We don't know of anyone more deserving of such happiness than Mr. Mumaugh and we wish him many happy returns.

-A pleasant surprise was given Mr. J. G. Morse, the retiring general superintendent of the telephone exchange, Wednesday evening, when the employes of the exchange called at his residence and presented him with a magnificent easy chair. The relations between Mr. Morse and the employes were always of the pleasantest nature.

-I: has been reported several times that the new gas company had put up the $10,000 in government bonds required by the new ordinance, but such is not the fact. They are only required to put up the amount within sixty days from the date of the approval of the ordinance, which was about ten days ago.

-Quite a complication has arisen over the ownership of the gold watch given at the German ladies fair to the holders of 119, w. d-$10,000. season tickets. The lucky number on the drawing was "1291," and the holder of that Mitchell, s. half section 24, 16, 9, w ti:ket did not put in an appearance that d-$6,500. night at all. Since then three different persons have claimed that they held the ticket on which was the winning number but that they have lost it. There is some thing out of kilter and some of the claimants must be mistaken. It will probably be found necessary to raffle the watch off again for the benefit of the school. -Dr. Henry F. King, aged forty-five years, died February 1, 1883, at 9 p. m. The deceased was a physician of long standing, and formerly resided at Geneva, Fillmore county, his original home, however, being Kewaunee, Ill., where he Francisco. ciated with Mr. W. J. Whitehouse, of this city, in the drug business. The funeral will take place at 2 p. m., Saturday, February 3d, from the late residence on Twenty-third and Nicholas streets.

-A few days since a Sioux City man samed P. O'Rourke arrived in Omaha, en route west, with about $115 in his posession. He imbibed pretty freely and spent his money lavishly, being careless about exhibiting his roll. He finally wound up in Rasmussen's saloon on Farnam street, where he got pretty full and went to sleep on the billiard table. Next day he came around sober and the following day also and made no complaint against anyone, but on the third day he filed a complaint in the police court charging the bar tender, Mr. Peter Nelson, with robbing him of all he had. When the matter came up in Judge Beneke's court the proof was conclusive as to Nelson's innocence and the judge being satisfied of this he was disch rged. While there is no dotbt that O'Rourke lost his money, no one who is acquainted with Nelson would believe him capable of such an act, as his honesty and good faith has never yet been Gebhard En Route to New Orleans to Join the Beauty.

It will be remembered that shortly after the announcement of the differences arising between Mrs. Langtry and Mrs. Labouchere because of the attentions of Mr. Gebhard to the former, it was also stated that Sir Geo. Chetwynd, under whose kindly guardianship Mrs. Langtry had spent a portion of last summer in Switzerland, was coming to America, although his wife, the Marquise of Hastings, seriously objected to his doing so. But Sir George was not to be restrained by any such thing as an old wife's objection to his attentions to another man's young wife; and he arrived here last Friday, as we have previously announced, and is now en route to New Orleans where she is to play.

Musical Notes.

Miscellaneous Theatrical and

The opera house was comfortably filled last evening, on the occasion of the appearance of the famous comedian, William Horsce Lingard, in Sardon's great comedy, "Divorcons." Considering the extreme severity of the weather the audience was a very flattering one in point of numbers and the play well received. Although of a decidedly light and superficial character it is pleasing and humorous throughout and makes an unexcep-tionally fine evening's entertainment. The cast was as follows: Des Prunelles Wm. Horace Lingar Adhemar......Fr-deric Corbett Clavnignac.....Forbes Dawson Bafourdin Henry Brown C mmissary Byron Douclas .Chse. Meadows .Owen Westford Bastien. Joseph... Owen Westford Cyprienne... Miss Tessie Butler Mølle de Lustennu... Elizabeth Andrews Mdme, De Brion... Miss Fannie Berrie

"Patience" was presented by the young ladies of Sommerville school, St. Ciair, Mich., last week to a very select audience. It is spoken of as very creditable effort indeed. LIZZIE CALDERWOOD.

The many friends of Miss Lizzle Calderwood will be glad to learn that she has about recovered from a very severe attack of lung fever. Advices from her teachers are the most flattering and of a nature to make Omaha proud indeed of her fair lyric star. THE OMAHA GLEE CLUB held another rehearsal last night, and showed excellent preparation for the grand concert to be given on the 13th inst. In addition to the excellent music from the boys, Miss Dutton, the celebrated soprano and Miss Mabella, the celebrated contralto, will be present. Of the former, The St. Paul Pioneer Press says;

Miss Jennie Dutton sang so well the 'Ernant Involami" that she established herself at once in favor with the audience and answered their demands for a respectance by singing charmingly, "No, Sir; No." Her see ond number, the polks cantabile, by Arditi, entitled, "The Daisy," with orchestral accompaniment, was one of the most delightful incidents of a most delightful concert. Miss Dutton's voice is an exceeding'y pleasing so-prano, clear and excellent in its entire range, and exceptionally true, and united with a method the very best. Her success was most positive, and she will be heard again with pleasure. Of Miss Mabella, the Toronto Evening Telegram says: "Miss Mabella has a deep, rich contraito voice, the quality of which is greatly enhanced by the artistic use of it.'

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC, Lawrence Barrett has not succeeded rith "Francesca de Rimini" in Cincinnati. It is stated that the king of Portugal has had a telephone arranged between his libraro and the opera house, so that he can enjoy the opera from his arm chair. This

Mrs. Langtry will promptly come north via the Rock Island railroad. Dates are being fixed by Marcus Meyer for her ap-pearance in the smaller towns of Illinois. Mme. Janausche't produced her new plsy "Zillah," at the opera house, Wheeling, W. Va., the other evening. It is reported as being a success.

Mme, Modjeska was unable through previous engagements to accept the flat-tering offer to appear at the Cincinnati dramatic festival. Miss Bertha Welby resumes her tout this evening in South Bend, Ind.

Mary Anderson appears at the Globe theatre, Boston, on the 12th of February for two weeks. Bartley Campbell's first play was en-titled "Peril," and its first production was at Hooley's opera house, Chicago, and it
