BURGLING AS AN ART. The Burglar and His Methods-- A Consideration of His Ways, His Tools and His Pa's.

And the Famous Enterprisers the American Artist Has Been Engaged In.

The methods of the American thief are very comprehensive and skillful, says the Cleveland Herald; more so than are those of the profession, for such has thriving become, of other countries. It is commonly acknowledged among the first police officers in the world, that, for a fine job, the American thief is far ahead of other nations.

They travel in gangs, and have at their beck and call a crowd of confederates--capitalists, layers-out and go-between. The first named "stake" the crackman when he is broke, furnish the funds for his expeditions, and when he is in trouble look generally to his interests.

The latest great improvement is in the drills that cut into the hardest steel like a knife into wood, especially the double-ratchet drill. It is the burglar, who was murdered by his comrades some years ago for treachery. This drill is said to be able to bore a hole through a solid block of steel as easily as does a gimlet in one of wood.

It gives The Franklin, N. H., Transcript pleasure to record the following: "John W. Keniston, 84 years of age, recently drove an ox team a distance of one and a half miles, loaded it with wood and returned home, having accomplished the task in a length of time which would have been creditable to a much younger man."

COLD WEATHER IN THE WEST. Stories That No "Oldest Inhabitant" Could Equal.

It has been pretty cold out in Montana, according to the Butte Inter-Ocean, which says it was so intense the other day that the only way the temperature could be registered was by placing the thermometer on the church steeple, when the mercury fell within two inches of the surface of the ground.

In one of the Bate restaurants the cooking department is a board addition standing out from the main building, and though the stove this morning was made red hot, the Chinaman was unable to cook some hot cakes. They froze solid on the griddle, and had to be chopped off with the hatchet.

BONANZA KINGS AS SENATORS. The Remarkable Career of the Two New Members from Colorado.

John Bowen, elected United States senator yesterday, is about 62 years old. At the outbreak of the war he was living in Kansas, where he organized a regiment and served in the southwestern campaign. He was breveted for meritorious conduct and given a special command in Arkansas.

Henry Gleason, of Pierrepointe, St. Lawrence county, N. Y., aged 92 years, chopped down a maple tree three feet in diameter and sawed it into stove wood last week. At the age of 71 years, Mrs. Christian, of Claiborne, La., picked 192 pounds of cotton in one day last season. On another day, in the course of the forenoon, she picked 125 pounds.

The strongest man at Grand Corners, N. Y., is Stearns Carpenter, who is now 80 years old. Five years ago he grasped a 25-foot iron rail with each hand and walked off with it. At an earlier period he hoisted a cannon that weighed 400 pounds, and the next day lifted a box of iron that weighed 1,300 lb used to go around where the neighbors were killing hogs, and with a particularly big one was being slaughtered he had a habit of twisting his fingers into its bristles, lifting the animal off the ground and gussied it up.

THE BAD AND WORTHLESS. Are never imitated or counterfeited. This is especially true of a family medicine, and it is positive proof that the remedy imitated is of the highest value.

Are never imitated or counterfeited. This is especially true of a family medicine, and it is positive proof that the remedy imitated is of the highest value. As soon as it had been tested and proved by the whole world that Hop Bitters was the purest, best and most valuable family medicine on earth, many imitations sprung up and began to steal the notices in which the press and people of the country had expressed the merits of H. B., and in every way trying to induce suffering invalids to use their stuff instead, expecting to make money on the credit and good name of H. B.
