GRATITUDE. DENVER, Col., August 29, 1882. GENTS—I cannot find words with which to express my gratitude to you for the cure your Swift's Specific has effected in my case.

THE SNOW FLEA APPEARS. The Dreaded Bist Siberian Wafled 6,000 Miles on the Wings of the Wind. Philadelphia Record. When the lamented poet traveler Byard Taylor wrote of snowflakes as the "wild white bees of winter" it is doubtful that he imagined the pretty figure contained a large amount of truth.

Money for the Unmarried. One of the most solid and substantial institutions in this country is the Marriage Fund and Mutual Trust Association, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

At that time, away from the Mission, the country was uninhabited except by wild Indians. But as the Mexicans began to locate and intermarry with the natives, the foundation was laid for the "Greaser" race of today.

A Valuable Medicine. There are no diseases more prevalent, with perhaps, the exception of Consumption, in this country, than the Kidney and Liver Complaints, and to find a remedy that would effectually relieve them has long been the aim of many afflicted sufferers.
