

The Daily Bee
COUNCIL BLUFFS.
 Monday Morning, Feb 12.
 SUBSCRIPTION RATES:
 By Carrier - 30 cents per week.
 By Mail - $10.00 per Year.
 Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTIONS.
CHERRY RAILROAD TICKETS.-Buy them from D. W. Bushnell, 5 doors north of postoffice.
 The Presbyterian pulpit was yesterday filled by Rev. Henry Meekie, of Oacolia, Neb.
 The caliche is increasing in popularity as a free lodging house, the number now averaging over five a night.
 Constable Fox says he is ahead of the citizens in their move for the starting of a hospital, he having started a private enterprise of the sort at Panama.
 A PARAGON.-Any person desiring to purchase an elegant residence one block from Hayles' park, for $8,500, part on time, should address W. W. Smith, 12-24.

The saloon men are paying in their regular license notwithstanding the prediction that they would unite in a protest on account of the still further raise which is threatened.
 The case of Mary Clayton vs. The Powers estate still occupied the attention of the circuit court Saturday, and will probably receive a final to-day.
 Mr. Law Fisher while coasting the other night was thrown from a travler, and sprained his leg so badly as to lay him up for several days.
 John Allen was another victim of the carnival on Willow avenue. While on the rear end of a travler the sharp ends of a sled in the rear struck him on the legs and plowed up the flesh on both legs in a frightful manner.

The Clarinda Star in one column says the saloon license in Council Bluffs is $500 a year. In another column it states that it is $250 a year. That paper is evidently as badly mixed up as to what the license is and what it will be as are the aldermen of this city.
 The Sunday school convention of Pottawattamie county is to hold its annual meeting in the Congregational church at Oakland, Thursday and Friday, February 22 and 23. All Sunday school workers are invited.
 While J. M. Campbell and his son were riding along town Broadway in a buggy Saturday evening the horse became fractious and both father and son were thrown out, but fortunately received no serious injuries, though the escape was a narrow one.

Mr. James Franey, well known as the scientific builder of the latest designs in gentlemen's clothing, has just received the most glossy and substantial spring coats for his numerous patrons. Call and see for yourself.
 W. W. Sells, of Tabor, lost one of a $400 team the other night. It seems that the horse had laid down during the night and his mate had cut him up frightfully with his shoes that he was about dead when his owner entered the stable the next morning.
 The old Power building and property have been purchased by a company represented by Charles Hendrie, and it is expected that the property will be converted into a foundry and machine shop to run on a large scale, and by a heavy and enterprising company.

A number of complaints have been heard of the way the children were taken in at the recent Tom Thumb show. The advertisements read, "Admission, ten and twenty cents," and the little ones, expecting to be admitted for a dime, found that "ten and twenty cents" made thirty cents, which they were induced to pay or not see the show.
 There was a change in the police force yesterday by which Officers Morse and Brooks are given day duty; Officer Kilar is detailed to watch the transfer. The others are assigned to night duty. Officers Barkyte being assigned to central Broadway, Sterling to West Broadway, Tyson to Middle Broadway, Cusick to South Main street and Clough to the First ward.

The tariff takers at Washington propose to tax the people an extra two millions annually by raising the rates on pottery. Maurer & Craig tell us that it will cause an advance of fully 25 per cent all along the crockery line. Whisky comes in for a reduction, but we don't see whisky quite so universally as we do crockery.
 Now, when you want anything in the harness line and you can't find it in Omaha or anywhere else, just drive down to 124 Main street and W. W. Sherman will tell you exactly the thing you want. There is nothing too nice, costly or substantial for him to buy or make, and customers will find his quality of leather and workmanship to be simply immense and prices can't be equalled anywhere hereabouts.

All kinds of Magazines, News and Illustrated Papers and Libraries at DeHaven's drug store.
 Don't forget the sale at HARKNESS, ORCUTT & Co's
 Fine weather for baths. Take them at 21 Bryant street. See advertisement in another column.
 The 99 cent store is now open and ready for business.
 Lots of choice things left and selling very cheap at HARKNESS, ORCUTT & Co's.
 BEAUTIFUL SILKS AND SATINS. Only 55 cents per yard at Bilas.
 Our old friend, Mr. P. C. Backus, has the greatest variety imaginable in his carefully arranged and well stocked 99 cent store, which he has just opened at 402 Broadway.

Remember the bargains at HARKNESS, ORCUTT & Co's.
 Select oysters 40c per can at F. J. Osborne & Co.'s, 162 Broadway.
 The best work and the finest variety of hair goods at Mrs. J. J. Goode, 29 Main street.

IT'S A DAISY!
 Delmonico Oudone.
 Yum! Yum! Yum

Cook-"Come in this way and see our kitchen."
 Reporter-"All right," and then he noted more white-aproned cooks than there are in Cookville; a display of tables ready for the huge glowing range that made the reporter hungry.
 "This way," says the proprietor; and we were ushered into the most elegant dining hall, brilliant with gilding and mirrors. "This way," again said the urbane host; and now he surveyed the front room opening on Broadway, and its wealth of imported California and California fruits was Oriental in luxuriance.
 Reporter then summarized his items. The gentleman in bronze, who superintends the culinary department, is a man of brains and culture, and who can cook scientifically, and who is deemed one of the champion kitchen managers when he filled orders in Chicago.
 Delmonico's furnished the head waiter, who talks six languages, and the proprietor amused the reporter, who is himself somewhat of a foreign sharp, by discussing the weather in seven modern tongues.
 Talk about restaurants, and you are off your base if you think you can match W. T. Brown's any place this side of Delmonico's.
 Next summer a thousand wonders are to be added to the present attractions, and ice cream that would enthral a Turk with its voluptuous flavor will be served in style, and "don't you forget it!"
 Remember if you want Warner's Kidney and Liver cure and Pinkham's Compound, that it is always fresh at DeHaven's.
 Dr. West, Dentist, 14 Pearl street.
 Go to Bilas' for bargains. Selling Millinery and Notions below cost.

The pleasant and profitable exercises in elocution that have been the attraction at the Baptist church on Tuesday evenings, will be changed to this (Monday) evening.
 It is understood that one of Council Bluffs' worthy citizens is preparing a lecture on the psychology of mind, in which he attempts to prove that the human mind as well as the body is a natural product of evolution. Let us have the lecture by all means, for there is no reason why Council Bluffs should not produce something new in the field of science and serve as a break in the monotony of dances, theaters and coasting carnivals. Council Bluffs has a Prof. Paige arranging athletic science before a bar of nature, and why not have the city produce another professor to take the other side, especially if he is able to handle with any degree of credit the theory which he now proposes to advance?
 Bilas is offering the best bargains ever offered in the west, in all kinds of fancy dry goods and notions.
 L-quart jars anchovies 40c per jar, at F. J. Osborne & Co.'s, 162 Broadway.
 15-pound kits No. 1 mackerel for $1.25, at F. J. Osborne & Co.'s, 162 Broadway.
 Miss Sophie Babes, the talented sister of Mrs. J. J. Bilas, has at her studio some new showings of her skill as an artist, among others a most excellent "Mater Dolorosa," after Guido Reni. The painting is certainly a great credit to so young an artist. She has a new large number of paintings and choice bits of art, in all of which apparent the touch of a more than ordinary gift, and which give promise of still greater and better work from her brush in the future.
OUR MOTTO:
 Good goods, latest styles, low prices and everything as represented at Bilas'.
 Salmon, mackerel, canned shrimp, smelt, sardines, pickled oysters, core oysters, brook trout, mackerel in mustard, mackerel in tomato sauce, and everything in the fish line at F. J. Osborne & Co.'s, 162 Broadway.
 Bilas' store is full of nice, stylish goods that is being closed out below cost. Go and see the great bargains they will give you.
 James Thomas & Co. rise to remark that yesterday the type located them at 520, when their place of business is 620 Main street.
 Lenten season fish at F. J. Osborne & Co.'s, 162 Broadway.
 James Thomas & Co., have hoisted an elegant sign over the new brick store at 520 Main street. The stock on hand and displayed about the doors is very attractive to the secker after agricultural implements, wagons, buggies, etc.
 Imported Holland herring in kegs for $1.25, at F. J. Osborne & Co.'s, 162 Broadway.

The movement for organizing a hospital here meets with much favorable comment and will doubtless receive earnest and hearty cooperation on the part of all who are shaped into definite form and purpose. One of the most seemingly sensible suggestions made is that the movement be started on a small scale by getting some suitable dwelling house with grounds, on which to erect other cottages as they may be required. The cottage plan seems to be coming into favor in other places, it being deemed better than having one great building, and certainly much easier to get started. There is great need of some sort of a hospital here, so that a stranger, if with meeting with an accident or taken ill, he can be provided for comfortably.

Remember the bargains at HARKNESS, ORCUTT & Co's.
 Select oysters 40c per can at F. J. Osborne & Co.'s, 162 Broadway.
 The best work and the finest variety of hair goods at Mrs. J. J. Goode, 29 Main street.

SATAN'S SUBJECTS.
 The Tenney Burglary Still Bothers the 'Brains of the Police

An Old Offender Brought Up on a Train Robbery Committed Last Year.
 Smaller Offenders and Offenders and How Dealt With

The officers are still at working trying to solve the mystery of the burglarizing of Tenney's jewelry store, by which $1,000 worth of watches, chains, etc., were taken. No very satisfactory results have yet been reached. The thieves in their hasty exit dropped on the floor of the store a number of rings and two watches. A locked and chain were afterwards found near Dohany's hall, and still later a few rings and three empty trays in an open shed in that vicinity, these articles indicating the direction in which the thieves flew with their plunder. The police have picked up three persons on suspicion, and are holding them for investigation, they being E. J. Sullivan, Forney Wood and Bill Schurtz.

AN OLD OFFENDER.
 Major John S. Wood, of the C. B. & Q. detective service, on Saturday brought to this city a man named John Higgins, who was wanted on an old charge, an information having been filed before Justice Baird in December, 1881, charging him with breaking open a freight-car on the C. B. & Q. track, and stealing therefrom sixty suits of clothes. Higgins escaped from justice at the time, but was soon into another scrape, which resulted in his being sentenced to a term in the penitentiary at Joliet, Ill. An eye was kept on him, and as soon as his time was up, Major Wood appeared upon the scene with the necessary papers for his arrest on this old charge.
 Upon arriving in this city the prisoner was taken before Justice Schurz, waived examination, and bail being fixed at $500, he was committed to jail.
 Higgins is an old offender, who is said to have already served one term in this state as well as the one in Illinois.

PICKING THE MARSHAL'S POCKET.
 City Marshal Jackson is the latest official to get into trouble. While attending to duties in the police court he had his pocket picked of $7 by some fellow. The money was in his overcoat pocket, which made the theft a little easier of successful accomplishment, but the boys do not seem inclined to let up on juking him, and it has already cost him more than $7 additional for smoke and liquids.

A FAMILY FEUD.
 On Saturday George Wright, who lives on Sixth avenue, was arrested on the charge of stealing an overcoat belonging to John Bothwell, a nephew of his, living at Little Sioux. It was claimed that the overcoat was taken about a year ago. It appeared from the evidence that the nephew was about that time taken to the insane asylum, and he left his overcoat at some place, where Wright got it, intending to keep it until his nephew got out again and return it to him. The witnesses for the prosecution were relatives of Wright's, and the fact seemed to be an outcropping of some bitter family feud. No testimony was introduced by the defendant, and the jury brought in a verdict of acquittal.

A SMALL BURGLARY.
 R. Jensen claims that a man named L. Thompson broke into his saloon on Broadway and robbed the till of about $3. Thompson was arrested and brought before Justice Schurz on Saturday. He waived examination, and in default of bail was sent to jail to await the action of the grand jury.

A LITTLE TOO FAST.
 A young man named G. H. Nichols was yesterday arrested and locked up on the charge of obtaining a livery rig of Dr. Patton, under false pretense that his name was Stephens, that he was boarding at the Ogden house, and was employed by the Northwestern railway company in its advertising department. Dr. Patton learned that he had a few days before got a rig at Weatherbee's stable under some other sort of a pretext, and that the bill had not been settled. He therefore hunted up the young man and had him run in. It is claimed that the young man is a son of the assistant superintendent of public instruction in this state, and that he is of excellent family, but inclined to be a little too high speeded.

OTHER GLEANINGS.
 A Macedonia man, for being drunk and raising a disturbance on a train, was brought to the jail here Saturday night, on a thirty days sentence. He concluded yesterday to pay his fine rather than board it out.
 Andrew Pace, for being drunk and using naughty words in Bowles' saloon, was, on Saturday, led by officers Sterling and Cusick and adjusted in the usual way.
 H. Kraacht, of Thrall & Kraacht, had his hen roost robbed of forty-five pullets, with little or no prospect of catching the thief.

On Saturday Constable Skinner arrested William Littleton, for whom he has been hunting for several days, and who is charged with getting food of Mrs. A. Russell under false pretenses. Not being able to give bonds he stayed in jail over Sunday, his case being set for a hearing before Justice Vaughan this morning.
 The case against Officer Morse has been continued until the 13th.
