

The Daily Bee COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Friday Morning, Feb. 16.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:

By Carrier... $10.00 per Year. By Mail... $12.00 per Year.

Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTIONS.

-The city council held an adjourned meeting this evening.

-At the Ogden the Chas. A. Gardiner troupe are quartered.

-A herd of cattle driven down Broadway early yesterday morning occasioned a fall in beef.

-The case of Williams, charged with malicious threats, is to have a hearing before Justice Abbott this morning.

-This evening all citizens interested in the hospital movement should be present at the chapel of the Baptist church.

-Justice Vaughn yesterday tied the knot matrimonial between James Boyle, of this city, and Ellen Pool, of Clark county.

-Only one lodger woke up at the city hall chamber apartments yesterday morning.

-Notice was served on the Nonpareil office yesterday to clear away the ashes from its premises, and generally brush up.

-J. H. Pierce and G. L. Williams, of the Bes force, went with the boys to Missouri Valley.

-Mr. A. J. Hart, of the firm of Lindt & Hart, took the Rock Island train for Neola, to attend to an important case at that lively little burg.

-The warrants out for the peddlers of the alleged history of Pottawatomie county are not yet served, owing to the inability of the officer to find the parties.

-City Clerk Savacool usurped judicial functions at the city hall yesterday during Judge Aylsworth's absence at the Missouri Valley G. A. R. spread.

-Mr. John Linder, of the firm of Linder & Kiel, yesterday had a half barrel of wine drop on his foot, injuring it quite badly, but not breaking any bones.

-Hon. Richard F. Trevellick will lecture at Bloom and Nixon's opera house on Tuesday, the 20th inst., at 8 o'clock p. m.

-In the circuit court yesterday the case of M. G. Griffin & Co. vs. Schurz & Stroheim was on trial. The jury in the case of Williams vs. the Powell estate brought in a verdict giving the plaintiff about $750, it taking them about twenty-four hours to reach this decision.

-Matrimonial permits were yesterday granted to Noah Weibum, of Modale, Harrison county and Leona Skinner, of Rockford township, this city; Edson M. McNeil and Alvanetta V. Ayres, both of this city; James Boyle, of this city, and Ellen Poyle, of Clark county.

-About a dozen socialists are still feeling in their vest pockets for the $300 needed to run legally during the coming year.

-The city hall people are becoming restive about the matter and delinquents may expect to hear something drop any day.

-Constable Skinner yesterday arrested a man named John H. Ostrom, on a charge of seduction, preferred against him before Justice Vaughn by Miss Ellen Nelson, of Nebo. Ostrom being unable to give the $500 bonds required, was committed to jail, and the examination set for this morning at 9 o'clock.

-Formal notice was yesterday served upon the Northwestern railway company to fix up its part of the levee at once in accordance with the agreement entered into some time ago, and that unless the matter is attended to promptly the city will hold the company responsible for all damages resulting from the neglect, either to the city's portion of the levee or to other property.

-The agent of the history of Pottawatomie county was yesterday called into court to explain why he did not have a peddler's license. He insisted that the ordinance did not require him to take one, but rather that he be troubled further he paid the bill, about $27, under protest and with the caveat that he would take steps to have it remitted.

-We had a call yesterday from Mr. Fleming, of Messrs. Fleming & Co., Omaha, who is about to establish an agency on this side of the river for Riverdale Fermentum Compressed Yeast, advertisement of which you will find in our local columns. He speaks from an experience of three years as agent at Omaha of this Compressed Yeast, and says the trade has increased to that every single grocer, without an exception, keeps it for sale. The object of his visit is to introduce and establish it here, and it can be found now at most of the retail grocery stores.

-It seems doubtful whether any change will be made in the location of the fire engines, so as to better protect the valuable property on lower Main street. The difficulty seems to be to provide the needed water supply in that vicinity, without expending two to three thousand dollars in building a cistern, which seems a needless expense in view of the fact that the water works will be completed so as to furnish a supply from hydrants by the latter part of July next. Those who are posted in such matters say that cisterns cannot be well built at this season of the year anyway. In view of these facts the only way seems to be to make some arrangement with the railway companies to use the tanks for water supplies, and the committee is trying to effect some arrangement of that sort.

-Dr. West, Dentist, 14 Pearl street.

Fine weather for baths. Take them at 21 Bryant street. See advertisement in another column.

The finest lot of anthracite coal that has been received here this winter has just arrived at A. H. Mayne & Co.'s.

Young man or woman, if you want big money for a small amount, insure in the Marriage Fund and Mutual Trust Association, Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

DEFENSELESS COUNCIL BLUFFS

The Expedition Against Missouri Valley.

Wrath of the Warriors at the Chicago & Northwestern

'Thy voice is heard thro' rolling drums, That best to battle where he stands.'

The doughty veterans of the G. A. R. who were to depart for Missouri Valley yesterday morning, didn't present a very solid phalanx at the depot.

In fact, there was a deal of straggling. True, Provost Marshal Fox, than whom a braver soldier never drew sabre on the ensanguined field, hurried down the guns, munitions of war and camp equipage, and in trumpet tones that rivaled Anthony Van Corlear rallied the deserters and cheered the faltering.

The sky was forbidding, and the inland sea about the Chicago & Northwestern depot was discouraging, and oh! saddest stroke of all, the agent refused to sell round trip tickets at reduced rates, unless twenty-five of the war-scarred sons of Mars would muster for tickets.

The spirit of strife rose high among the assembled warriors; some were for taking the depot by assault, while others thought denunciatory resolution about the correct thing. Fox, the choleric, strutted around with a pugilistic pucker on his face and a brand new military cap on his cap, giving high defiance to the whole C. & N. W. company, and daring them to mortal combat.

Pierce, the urbane, made a personal appeal to the obdurate agent, but to no avail, and the last seen of the defenders of Council Bluffs were trying to borrow enough money of each other to pay the extra fare.

Still another squad left on the afternoon train and till their return the burghers and wives of Council Bluffs will look toward the northern horizon with eyes anxious as those who looked from the walls of Leyden on the receding fleet of the Prince of Orange.

When the army comes home again we shall give an account of the battle, the slain and the escaped.

LATER: Mr. Hubbard found his organ at the Union Pacific depot just on the eve of being shipped to Grand Island, whither the evanescent Clara had down. Shipment was stopped, a reprieve served returnable Tuesday, and the property is at last likely to be returned to its owner.

J. P. Filbert has moved to No. 209 Broadway, opposite Bryant house.

Dead at Denver. A dispatch from railroad authorities at Denver to Mrs. Edith Ferrill, of this city, says: "Frank has fallen below the cars. Both legs were cut off. He died in fifteen minutes."

THE BEE sought out Mrs. Ferrill where she is stopping with her mother, Mrs. Allen, on Glen avenue. Mrs. F. left Golden, Colo., where she lives, last November to visit her mother here. But two days ago she received a letter from Frank, who was well, and desirous of seeing her and the baby, born since her arrival here, now never to see the light of his father's face.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferrill had lived eight years at Golden, Frank working as a brakeman on the Denver & Rio Grande, and one child besides the baby had been born to them. A sister of Mr. Ferrill living in the same place will care for his remains. At the time of his death Mr. Ferrill was on a particularly dangerous beat, it being on a special train, whose work was to clear the snow from the deep ravines and narrow cuts of the Rocky mountains.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate promotes sleep when the nervous system is overworked or worried by care and anxiety.

A PASSING FANCY. She Wants to Put on Ails and so Etiopes.

Mr. Arthur Hubbard, of Sioux City, stopped yesterday at the Ogden for dinner, and sitting next to THE BEE told him about his little private detective scheme. Last fall in the city of Yankton, up in the territory that wants to be carved in twain by the congressional cheese-knife, lived a quondam maiden known as Clara Porter.

Clara was giddy and the Yankton youth didn't fall to observe it. A young man employed by Mr. Hubbard became smitten on Clara and in a frock of benevolence gave her an organ of Mr. Hubbard's. Having an instrument the Porter organized an operatic company, consisting of self and organ, and took a tour through Sioux City, Omaha, Missouri Valley and western Iowa generally, assuming as is the custom of actresses another name—Miss Nellie Shepherd. All this time Mr. Hubbard was not dreaming of next summer's grasshoppers, but was setting his springs for the bird that had flown. Some time ago he learned that an organ box directed to Miss Shepherd, had come to the transfer, been taken across the river and received by one Stewart, a hackman working for Seaman & Co.

Mr. Hubbard crossed the river, ascended the covert of the game and last night crossed again to spring the trap.

Demand it, and take no other iron preparation except Brown's Iron Bitters. It is the best.

Council Bluffs Hospital. It is hoped that the meeting to-night at the Baptist church will lead to active work and in the end an efficient society with ample funds and commodious buildings for the hospital. Humanitarian work in all our large cities has assumed large proportions, and Council Bluffs with her accustomed energy does not propose to be behind the van.

Millions Given Away. Millions of Bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, have been given away as Trial Bottles of the large size. This enormous outlay would be disastrous to the proprietors, were it not for the rare merit possessed by this wonderful medicine. Call at C. F. Goodman's Drug Store, and get a Trial Bottle Free, and try for yourself, never fails to cure.

FERMENTUM.

Compressed Yeast.

What is It?

It is a pure, quick yeast made from sound grain by the Riverdale Compound Yeast Co., well known further east and now being introduced here to the retail trade by the Omaha agents, who have in the past three years established a large trade. It gives splendid satisfaction, makes better bread than hop yeast and never fails. Whenever it makes a customer it holds the trade. As an indication of the growth we might say the trade has increased in Omaha on this one brand from 50 dozen cakes a week to near 200 dozen a week.

Eastern people know what it is and will be glad to know that it is about to be established in the trade here.

Ladies of Council Bluffs who have not perfect satisfaction with their bread and wish to improve, will be pleased on giving this a trial or two. Ask any one who has used it and don't forget to call for Fermentum Compressed Yeast of your grocer.

Respectfully, W. M. FLEMING & Co., Agts. Fermentum Compressed Yeast.

All ladies who may be troubled with nervous prostration, who suffer from organic displacement; who have a sense of weariness and a feeling of lassitude; who are languid in the morning; in whom the appetite for food is capricious and sleep at proper hours uncertain, should have recourse to Mrs. Plankham's Vegetable Compound.

PERSONAL. W. Booth, from Harlan, Iowa, is at the Ogden.

J. S. Wood is at the Ogden, from Ottumwa, Iowa.

A. Richards, of Omaha, dined at the Ogden yesterday.

W. G. Templeton, from Sidney, Iowa, ate breakfast at the Ogden.

Simon Kohn, Chicago, picks his teeth with the Ogden house tooth picks.

Postmaster O'Kelsey, of Loveland, was in the city yesterday, and favored THE BEE with a call.

Franklin Benjamin, the well known Avoca attorney, was here again yesterday on court business.

Sheriff Riley Clark, of Neola, was in the city here yesterday, having escorted hither a new boarder for Jailer Schantz.

Miss Mollie Larimer, niece of Judge Larimer, has returned to Chicago, after making quite an extensive visit to friends here.

Justice Abbott believes it better late than never, and so went up last night to Missouri Valley to join the boys in their good time around the camp fire.

There was a pleasant and informal clerical gathering at Rev. Father McMenomy's, yesterday, the visitors being Rev. John Kemper, pastor of the Catholic church at Neola; Rev. McLaughlin, pastor of the church at Dunlap, and Rev. Mat. Lenihan, pastor of the church at Vail.

G. H. Nichols, whose name has been rather unpleasantly before the public in connection with hiring lively teams of Dr. Patten and Mr. Weatherly, started yesterday for Kansas City, expecting to return soon with his family and become a resident of this city, having arranged to take charge of the Western house on upper Broadway.

If you are not married, write the Marriage Fund and Mutual Trust Association, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, for circulars explaining the plan.

Wandering Waifs. Lilly Haggerty is a little girl from Clarinda who came in on the train last evening, expecting to meet her uncle, Dot Hale, of Creston, at the depot. Dot failed to appear and Lilly was taken to hotel headquarters and thence to a hotel till her relatives show up.

Another waif, John Morris Thompson, had come all the way to Chillicothe, Mo., on his way to Gama City, where lives his uncle, John J. Morris, a sturdy, dirty lad, and though penniless at the present stoutly asserted the fact that he would have $1,200 when he was 21.

We notice the Marriage Fund, Mutual Trust Association, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, highly spoken of in many of the leading papers of the state. "Money for the Unmarried" heads their advertisement in another column of this paper.

Badly Burned. Yesterday the engineer at Deere & Co.'s warehouse noticed that something was out of order about the engine. Gas is used to generate the steam and by some cause the gas had been leaking out in such quantities that upon being touched by the light in the engineer's hand it exploded, burning his face, hands and neck severely. His burns were dressed and he is now likely to out in a week or two.

Our New Loan and Improvement Co. Investigation into the matter convinces us that one of the most equitable, reasonable and feasible plans of building houses is that proposed and in operation by the Mercantile Loan and Improvement company of this city. By investing in shares in this institution, which is backed by some of our best and most reliable business men, it becomes possible and comparatively easy for a man of moderate means to secure a comfortable home for himself and family. In taking a certain number of shares, at a certain monthly payment, in a few years a man can own a house of his own for about the same as he pays monthly for rent. We believe the Mercantile Loan and Trust company, by organizing and opening up for business, having filled a long felt want in Council Bluffs. Their plans and system of loans will bear the most careful scrutiny and examination, and we have no hesitation in pronouncing them reasonable and equitable, and backed by gentlemen of honor and integrity. As the company exists it becomes at once an investment of value and credit to our city and those who desire homes. Their president is T. A. Kirkland; vice president, Judge Peake; secretary, I. R. Boery; treasurer, Col. Boehm; and their office is in the basement of Shugart's and McMahon's new block, corner First avenue and Pearl street.

Fonds has placed its saloon licenses at $500. O'Brien county has $72,000 of its school fund loaned out. The Andover waterworks are satisfactory to the citizens. Dry murren's is creating a havoc among cattle around Jefferson.

Over $500,000 worth of ice has been cut and stored away at Des Moines. The Reinbeck trustees have reduced the saloon licenses from $500 to $300 per year. Eleven men have frozen to death during the winter whose death is directly attributable to whisky.

Oskaloosa and Ottumwa both furnish citizens' tickets for the approaching municipal election. The gas tank at Independence caught fire last week and all of the wooden portion of it was consumed.

The Perry broom factory is now in full running order, and is turning out a superior quality of brooms. Davenport will vote at the coming election on the question of having German taught in the public schools.

The man who was superintending the boring of the artesian well at Dubuque has proved a defaulter and has skipped.

The flouring mills in the Boone valley are standing idle a good portion of the time, owing to a lack of water power. The snow blockade on the railroads in the state has been broken, and trains are now for the most part, running regularly.

Missouri Valley is to have an opera house in the spring, which will be built by a stock company at a cost of $14,000.

The thirteen annual sessions of the Iowa state fair will begin at Des Moines, August 31 and continues to September 7.

The Western Land and Loan association with a duration of twenty years and a capital stock of $200,000, has been organized at Clinton.

A collision of freight trains on the Rock Island road at Des Moines, on Friday evening, killed Frank Huntley and injured three others.
