A Sunday Morning Blaze on Thirteenth Street.

About 5 o'clock yesterday morndown Thirteenth street on his way home, discovered a fire breaking out of a small building occupied by Bennett & Eastman, as a blacksmith shop ter. and carriage factory, on Thirteenth street, between Harney and Howard. He at once ran to box 7, corner of Thirteenth and Jackson streets and turned in an alarm, which was prompt--A petition is being circulated for signatures asking Governor Dawes to appoint fire was extinguished in short order, the damage being very light, not over $15 perhaps.

The origin of the fire is a mystery. A new forge had just been put in and the fire must have started from a coal dropped down in it which smouldered all night and broke out in the morning. It was very fortunate that it made an assignment Saturday by giving came at that hour as a start of fifteen minutes would have given the flames a force that would have played havor in the neighborhood. > Gardiner as "Karl" The "Karl" company closed a very successful engagement at the opera house on Saturday evening. Every body was pleased with the entertain ment given by this excellent company, and should they favor us with another visit they will surely draw crowded houses. The picture presented in the plenic scene when the child, the handsome dog, and the donkey are introduced was universally commented upon as one of the prettiest things ever seen on our stage. Mr. Gardiner is very clever indeed, his dialect and specialties being among the best we have ever listened to. His his work is of a high order.

Patti Ross is one of the most charming soubrettes on the stage, and is a whole show in herself. Her songs are well chosen and rendered with a vivacity and good taste that captures her audience, while her dancing is simply "immense." We predict for the little lady a brilliant future, as she is still young and possessed of qualities which cannot fall to win her fame in her chosen profession.

Mr. Dunn, the genial manager, who plays the gypsy, is an elegant gentle-man, and makes a decided hit with the "gin-a-cock a-tail." Gen. Decker also a good card, gets in some very funny work, and adds much to the the company in all respects one that we can chearfully commend to the patronage and good wishes of the towns and cities which they are to visit during the remainder of the season.

THE CONCORDIA.

The annual marquerade ball of the Concordia society, which took place at Turner hall on Wednesday night, was even above the high standard already reached by the managers of similar affairs in past years. While the hall was not crowded, there were about sixty couples present, just enough to make it comfortable and pleasant for all.
