SEEK

health and avoid sickness. Instead of feeling tired and worn out, instead of aches and pains, wouldn't you rather feel fresh and strong?

You can continue feeling miserable and good for nothing, and no one but yourself can find fault, but if you are tired of that kind of life, you can change it if you choose.

How? By getting one bottle of Brown' Iron Bir-TERS, and taking it regularly according to directions.

> Mansfield, Ohio, Nov. 86, 1881.
>
> Gentlemen:—I have suffered with pain in my side and back, and great soreness on my breast, with shooting pains all through my body, attended with great weakness, depression of spirits, and loss of appetite. I have taken several different medicines, and was treated by prominent physicians for my liver, kidneys, and spiece, but I go no relief. I thought I would try Brown's Iron Bitters; I have now taken one bottle and a half and am about well—pain in side and back all gone—soreness all out of my breast, and I have a good appetite, and am gaining in strength and flesh. It can justly be called the hing of medicines.
>
> JOHN K. ALLENDED. Mansfield, Ohio, Nov. s6, 1881.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is composed of Iron in soluble form; Cinchona the great tonic, together with other standard remedies, making a remarkable non-alcoholic tonic, which will cure Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Malaria, Weakness, and relieve all Lung and Kidney diseases.

Be "most comfortable and person than a part of the content of the STABLISHED 1858.

A. J. SIMPSON. LEADING CARRIAGE FACTORY

1409 and 1411 Dodge Street, aug 7-me 6m OMAHA, NEB

A 8kin of Beauty is a Joy Forever. DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S Oriental Cream or Magical Beau-of similar rame. The distinguished Dr. L. A. Sayre, said to a lady of the narr rox (a patient):

"As you la les will use them, I recommend 'G uraud's Cream's at the least hamful of all the Skin preparations."

Cue bo the will hast six months, using it every day. Also soudre Julitile removes superfluous hab without injury t

WR. M. B. T. GOURAUD, So e prop., 4s Bend

$500 REWARD The above reward will be paid to any perso, who will produce a Paint that will equal the Pennsylvania Patent Rubber Paint,

r preserving Shingles Bru and Grave Rook. arranted to b Fire and Walts Proof. All
sers promptlys tended to a table for them any other painting to the fire.
STEWART STEPPERSON.
Bol Proprietors, Omeda House Omaha, Neb. BRFERENCES Pusey Or.Ricedon Pinney, uffs, to ya. ce, Omaha Neo.

POOR SOPHIE GALITZIN.

The Beautiful and Haughty You. Duchess of Chaulces Dies Alone in a Humble

A short, sensational and sorrowful life was brought to a close on Wednes day, when the duchess of Chaulnes (nee Princess Sophie Galitzin) died at the age of twenty five in a humble cottage in La Villette. She was married in 1875 to the duke of Chaulnes, and their feeble little children are the last survivors ot the great house of Luynes, the foundations of whose fortunes were said by d'Albert, first page to Louis XIII, afterwards con-stable of France. He and his two between them; a little while later and been adopted into a family of the ancient noblity. The matrimonial successes of the Luynes are chronicled by Saint Simon and other writers of his time. Of late years the hand of death and misfortune has been heavy on the family. The duke of Chevreuse was killed by a fall from his horse in 1854. His eider son, who served in the Pontificial zouaves, was killed while leading a battalion of Mobiles in the war of 1871. The younger son, whose widow has just died, never recovered from the effects of the same severe campaign in which has was wounded. Their sister died suddenly. Their mother, the duches of contrast blanched the fair of Othercuse, who still survives, is an ounting. Her goiden fleece of haff he was the man who was hung, he was the man who was hung, he was the man who was hung, he cought to have entered into particulars to a forther extent than he did.

It shall always blame him that he didn't.

William was placid. I knew him for three years, and only three times and has perfect mouth she would be a woman of reare beauty. It is not ugly.

It is no

suddenly. Their mother, the duchess of Chevreuse, who still survives, is an energetic, ambitious and implicable little woman, a devotee in religion, and perhaps also slightly derauged through her misfortunes. Her son's marriage with the beautiful and dashings Sophie Galitizin, a daughter of the Prince Augustin, who sacrificed an estate of $140,000 a year by abjuring the Greek faith for the Catholic, was a sore trial for the duchess. Two was a sore trial for the duchess. Two women could not very well be imsgined who were less likely to get on ancestral energy seems to have burned itself out during the campaign against the Prussians, and he has been represented aging editor with soothing encouragesented as so lazy that he took his meals ment.

It is not quite a year since the that question?" "duel of the ducherses" scandalized "And I suppose you have set the French society. Had they been fish- figure at $75,000," continued the maneach other more virulently, and, by patry money bags and fitthy whichever side was to be believed, the revelations of aristocratic life were ing glance and blushes that chased that when sick it was not her motherin-law's fault if she recovered, and that the elder lady, maddened at her son's marriage, inflamed his mind with son's marriage, inflamed his mind with

"No, thanks!" she remoustrated, recovering herself with an effort.
"You are very kind. I don't think promise her daughter-in-law. The duke was induced to depart on the alleged voyage, which has furnished an incident for the plots of how many my trouble than than you will."

That was the sum and substance of his defense, and it was bad for William.

When it was too late we saw where an incident for the plots of how many novels and dramas, and returning unexpectedly at night proceeded to "draw" his is," and he pointed out the man him to answer before the highest court who does the truly plous for the of all. wife's apartments, accompanied who does the truly plous for the by all the inmates of the chateau, paper.

"What is it?" asked the religious guests and servants, afterwards compelling her to appear in the hall and upon her knees confess her judicity and plead for the forgiveness of which she was unworthy. On another occasion the young duchess was awakened from her beauty-sleep to behold the the same time, and now we are great difference to you whether you are slarming spectacle of one priest at the afraid-" head of her bed and a second at its "Infernal rascal?" growled the foot. They duly prayed over its managing editor, wiping away a tear. startled occupant, and stood aside "Just let us write him up." while the old duchess produced a pa-per and bade her sign or die. Mme editor, still more sharply, "what de Chauines sprang from her . couch about him? Is the librarian getting and fled towards the door, but her jealous? Class leader threatening to husband appeared at the portal to cut tell your mother? Anything of that off her retreat with a cocked revolver, kind?"

and she had to sign the document and "If he does, I'll write an editorial declare herself unworthy to have the on him myself," muttered the manag-charge of her children. And when her ing editor chivalrously. husband was dying, despite his "Not exactly that," smiled the rufhusband was dying, despite his wishes and her freezied pleadings, she was refused the last sorrowful priviledge of closing his eyes, and thrust from the gates penniless and friendless. The young duchess did not deny having signed the compromising documents, but insisted that her will had been forced by threats of death, and she gave the final romantic protect some one in danger. touch to her case by attempting the abduction of her children. Aided by s gentleman who was said to have de- go on. You left off by both being conclared his passion for her and to have verted together. What next? Is he received the promise of her hand and heart as soon as he had compassed the rescue of the little ones from their gorgon grandmother, and provided a fathful maid servant and a retainer, however, miscarried. One story is preverbially good until mother has been told, and when the duchess of Chevreuse came to put in her evidence she alleged the existence of an altogether different state of things. She insisted that the young that all?" duchess was too much occupied with her numerous lovers to pay any attention to her children, and that one of these lovers had been chased by the servants, but had escaped through his fleetness of foot. He was a prudent swain, as appeared from the fact that be given by the servants as a proper of the superintendent better that the was guilty of the murder for which William Bovers had been hung. That was a nice mess for us, and there was guilty of the more solven fleetness of the superintendent better that the was guilty of the murder for which William Bovers had been hung. That was a nice mess for us, and there was guilty of the murder for which William Bovers had been hung.

creams of her sleep se things that had really, happened. Her misconduct killed her husband, and he died curning her name and imploring his mother to keep his children from contamination by their mother. Alto-gether, whichever atory was to be be-lieved, the meanest and most miser-heard of the young duchess fainess of mind gratifying to her whose life has just gone out.

A Parisian chroniqueur thus described her at the time of the trial stable of France. He and his two brothers once were compelled to make their visits to court semi-weekly better visits to court semi-weekly because they only had one gale costume.

complexion."

from an Editor, and Gets it.

Brooklyn Kegle.
"It is really a most delicate thing together. The bride was gay—almost that I come to see you about," she wild—high tempered, fond of society and hunting; the mother in law austere placed a chair for her he looked grave, and impatient of opposition. As for the blushes chased each other over the husband, the last spark of his the prettiest face he had seen for many

"Sir!" faltered the beauty, turning abandoned the blankets to go to a posted pair of bewildering blue chapel under his mother's watchful eyes full upon him. "How-how did you know? What made you ask me wives instead of representatives of aging editor, smiling covertly at his two of the great families of France superior sagacity.

"Do you measure my precious soul try mansion and nagged perpetually; rubbing his nose with a corkscrew as that when sick it was not her mother- a gentle hint in the direction of his and of the finding of the body, but were the same as Hop Bitters. All editor, still more sharply, "what

"Not for worlds!" she exclaimed throwing herself before him as if to "Let her alone!" shouted the religious editor. "She is all right. Now after the soprano?"

"She thinks he is, and there is where my trouble is. You see, she isn't a christian—only a singer, you know—and she can dance with him at shrouded in an ample cloak, to steal the children, a closed carriage with relays of horses being in readiness, and a fishing-smack awaiting the party's arrival at the seashore. The plot, of anxious lequiry.

"Certainly not!" growled the reli-gious editor, who didn't seem in the least dezed by the question. "W-w-what?" demanded the managing editor, his lower jaw dropping. "Is "Why certainly," responded the beauty. "Isn't that enough? What he rigged a rope to the window of the "That's about the way with them were many solemn faces as we gathered chateau so as to escape the more all "explained the religious editor, as around the judge and asked him what chateau so as to escape the more readily, and that he put on a pair of rustic boots that his footsteps on the anow might not betray him. His gloves, handkerchief and love letters, however, remained as trophies. The young duchess was described as "knocking her children about," and even turning them cut of bed to make room for her dogs; she was accoused of consuming great quantities "Nothing," replied the religious editor, as around the judge and asked him what the put on a pair of the gratified girl took her departure and the two editors stood gazing at the gratified girl took her departure and the two editors stood gazing at each other. "You'd think they were in all sorts of scrapes until you come to question them, and then you find the religious editor, as around the judge and asked him what could be done about it.

"Wall, I reckon we'd better have an inquest, if that' be no objections," was the reply, and we had one.

We viewed the rope, the barrel, the tree and the grave, and the verdict was:

"Hung the wrong man and sorry for it."

But placid William was half to had lost some money on a dog fight, or jected to being hung. sging editor went back to his work sith a sigh, while the religious editor ourreptitiously abstracted the cork screw, and winked at himself with a R. I. prodigious wink.

reason to envy the life of the rival deeply regretted that she was so colorless and cold. Her face was too white, The courts, as readers of The World and her hands and feet felt as though may remember, sustained the allega-tions of the grandmother and gave her bottle of Hop Bitters hed been taken the custody of the children. Since she was the rostest and healthlest girl that time but little has been in the town, with a vivacity and cheer-

Hanging the Wrong Man.

impossible to lay a hand on one of the perpetrators. The men had become rolled and desperate, and it was generally understood that the first offender who fell into the clutches were returning from Pot-Luck Creek meal, roots would not be so necessary and his hands were bloody.

The placid William was nabbed.

What did he do? Nothing at all?

What did he say! Why, when the boys laid hands on him he quietly remarked that he discovered the body only five minutes before, and was inspecting it in hopes to discover signs of life. Too thin.

And too placed to fit that crowd. The camp didn't waste any valuable time over William's case, Within the hour a court was convened, William was arraigned, and the dead body was placed in sight of all. Circumstances were against the prisoner, but there were some things we forgot, William had been a quiet, honest, civil resident of Diamond guich. He had never been known to carry a bowieknife. He had, been down the

there was nothing anxious about him.

If you believe me let me go; if matter what their style or name is, you do not believe me bring on the and espicially those with the word

Well, the court could scarcely fall to convict under the circumstances, and hung this afternoon or to-morrow! Weather's liable to change, you know, and we may not have such an atternoon again for a week."

The placed William replied that he would be ready in half an hour, and he was. He went to his shanty, accompanied by Col. Smith, and when he had dieposed of his property and written a letter to friends in the east, he walked coolly to the gallows tree, mounted the barrel, and never winked an eye when the noose was slipped over his head.

Then came a painful pause.
William was about to be launched into the great unknown. It is a serious thing to kick a barrel from under the feet of a fellow man and let a rope catch and choke him to death. We felt it so, and when the pause came we could hear each other's hard breathing.

"William Bovers!" solemly re marked the judge, "you are about to hang!" "Yes," calmly replied the prisoner

"And now once more I ask you if you are guilty of the awful crime?" "No," was the equally calm reply. But he had been tried, convicted and sentenced, and the sentence must be carried out. If was when the man advanced to pull away the barrel that William's countenance lost its placidity. For five seconds he seemed a strange to us all. A white shadow crossed his face, a look of tear crept into his eyes and his jaw felt.

Then placed William was himself again. He braced right up, shut his teeth hard and he died with a countenance as unreadable as a stone.

editor. "I didn't know but what she blame. He should have seriously ob-

METROPOLITAN HOTEL, OMA

HA, NEB.

Tables supplied with the best the market affords. The traveling public claim they get better accommodations and more general satisfaction here than at any other house in Omaha. Rate, f2 per day aug21tfm

I had severe attacks of gravel and kidney trouble; was unable to get a medicine or doctor to cure ms until I You see, William Bovers was as much to blame as any of us, and being in a short time.—A Disguished Lawbe was the man who was hung, he yer of Wayne county, N. Y.

would step off the head of a barrel to better still, corn; cotton-seed meal or be brought up suddenly by a rope and linseed meal and roots. With a small proportion of linseed meal, say three One day when some of the boys pounds, with nine pounds of corn with flour and pork, they came upon the placid Wm. Bovers in a bad situation. He was bending over the body of a man named Powers, who had been settled by the thrust of a bowle, and his hands were bloody.

The placid William was nabbed.

What did he say! Why when the duess cholers and other diseases. The duces cholera and other diseases. The roots give them a bulky and cooling food—just what they so much need. Bran is a bulky food, and, fed with corn, is beneficial to hogs. Sugar beets with good clover hay will grow young animals or fatten mature ones. The clover is rich in nitrogen, and the roots in carbon making a well-balanced

THE BAD AND WORTHLESS

Are never imitated or counterfeited. This is especially true of a family medicine, and it is positive proof that the remedy imitated is of the highest value. As soon as it had been tested and proved by the whole world that such pretended remedies or cures, no and espicially those with the word "Hop" or "Hops" in their name or in any way connected with them or their name, are imitations or counterfeits. Beware of them. Touch none of them. Use nothing but genuine Hop Bitters, with a bunch or cluster of green Hops on the white label. Trust nothing else. Druggists and dealers are warned against dealing in imitations or counterfeits

Are acknowledged to be the best by all who have put them to a practical test. ADAPTED TO HARD & SOFT COAL COKE OR WOOD.

MANUFACTURED BY Buck's Stove Co. SAINT LOUIS. PIERCY & BRADFORD. SOLE AGENTS FOR OMAHA.

FALL Y & HOES, Western Agents, L. fayette, Indiana THE PATENT

REVERSIBLE

-FOR-

Rubber Boots and

Boots and Shoes OF ALL KINDS.

ADD 50 PERCT. To Their Wear.

The center pieces are interchangeable and reversible. It prevents the counter from running over, requiring no heel stifferers.

The Agency for these goods in this town has been places.

Others canno pro ure hem.
Call and 'aximine' a full line or Leather and "Candee" Rubber Boots and Shoes with the Reversible Heel. MRS. M. PETER ON,

F. GOODMAN DRUGS, PAINTS, OILS,

Window and Plate Glass. Anyone contemplating building store, bank, or any other fine aniage to corree and with us before purchasing their Plate Glass.

C. F, GOODMAN.

STEELE, JUHNSON & CO., WHOLESALE GROCERS

AND JOBBERS IN

Salt, Sugars, Canned Coods, and All Grocers' Supplies.

A Full Line of the Best Brands of

IGARS AND MANUFACTURED

agents for BENWOOD SAILS AND LAFLIN & BAND POWDER CO.

P. BOYER

HALL'S SAFE AND LOCK CO.

Fire and Burglar Prop AFES VAULTS, LOCKS,

1020 Farnham Street, OMAHA. - - - NEB

PERFECTION HEATING AND BAKING is only attained by using

CHARTER OAK Stoves and Ranges.

WIRE GAUZE OVER DOORS. For sale by MILTON ROCERS & SONS OMAHA.

HENRY LEHMANN.

WALL PAPER

WINDOW SHADES

'EASTERN PRICES DUPLICATED. 118 FARNAM ST.

LUNGERE.

Lath, Shingles, Pickets, BASH, DOORS, BLINDS, MOLDINGS, LIME, CEMEN PLASTER, MTO.

STETATE AGENT FOR MILWAUKEE CEMENT COMPANY Near Union Pacific Depot OMAHA NB

T. SINHOLD.

Window Caps, Finials, Skylights, &c. 416 THIRTEENTH STREET,

JEWELERS AND MUSIC DEALERS OMAHA NEB.

The Oldest Wholesale and Retail JEWELRY HOUSE MUSIC in Omaha. Visitors can here find all novelties in SIL-Finest and Best Pianos and VER WARE. CLOCKS, Organs manufactured. Rich and Stylish Jewelry, Our prices are as Low as the Latest, Most Artistic, any Eastern Manufacturer and Dealer. and Choicest Selections in Pianos and Organs soid HEELS all descriptions of PINE Bottom Prices.

WATCHES at as Low Pri- Steinway Chickering, ces as is compatible with Knabe, Vose & Son's Pi honorable dealers. Streets

PRECIOUS STONES and for cash or installments at A SPLENDID stock of

General Agents for the Call anos, and other makes. and see our Elegant New Also Clough & Warren, Store, Tower Building, Sterling, Imperial, Smith American Organs, &c. Do not fail to see us before purchasing. MAX MEYER & BRO.,

MANUFACTURERS OF SHOW CASES.

A Large Stock always on Hand.