Sunday afternoon the gospel meeting at the Y. M. C. A. was well attended and all present seemed to be very much interested in the service.

Some may think that God is so unjust that he would cast any one into outer darkness when there is weeping and gnashing of teeth, although he has so many times and plainly stated it in His Word.

It is something that he cannot do himself, per se, and he cannot tell how it is done. "The wind bloweth where it listeth and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth; so is every one that is born of the spirit."

Dr. Cardell spoke of the practical importance of a spiritual birth, of which Christ spoke when he was on earth. It is truly a doctrine, a dogma, an uninitiating statement, unfaithful to the minds of thinkers; nevertheless eternally depends upon it.

General Howard said: There might be some here who realize their condition, and ask themselves, "Am I a Christian?" There may be a disquieting which has followed them and will follow them until they find Christ.

Women are rapidly finding places in the learned professions and the more lucrative occupations from which they were formerly excluded. Many are graduating in medicine.

To the sinner there is no Sabbath; as a burden, it is cast as far as possible out of the way, and the thoughts are filled with the work and occupation of the other six days of the week; and as we hear the wind among the leaves of the trees it reminds us of the great power which only can convert the sinner.

Rev. Wm. McCandlish spoke of the work being a work of God, because man accomplished it not by his own power, but obtained it by prayer.

sum of the hopes of humanity or a great but uninspired teacher. It is very important for us to put the right estimate upon Christ and His work.

You hold the opinion that Christ was a mere myth. I do not suppose there is a single person here who would take such an unreasonable position, but it is barely possible.

Some one else may say: I-I WILL DENY HIS DIVINITY. Ah, but you will find yourself in serious difficulty. A man sins, but Jesus is sinless.

III--I WILL LET HIM ENTIRELY ALONE. Ah! but we cannot do that. If we sinned him, we reject him. If we wash our hands as Pilate did, we give him into the hands of his enemies.

IV--I WILL SAVE MYSELF. But this is virtually a denial of Christ also. The Word of God says we are to be saved by accepting of the atonement prepared by the Savior and by living the life that He commanded.

Men have stood in the place of others in battle. And these men have died for those whom they represented. It is not with Christ. He took our sins upon himself. We must have died if He did not.

Women are rapidly finding places in the learned professions and the more lucrative occupations from which they were formerly excluded. Many are graduating in medicine.

In last week's issue of a certain weekly paper a most venomous and scurrilous attack is made upon Mr. C. J. Smyth's impersonation of the character of Robert Emmet at the late Emmet anniversary.

Rev. Wm. McCandlish preached Sunday from Matthew 16:13, "Whom do men say that I, the son of man, am?" The answers to this question, which Christ put to his disciples, were many even while He lived.
