

The Daily Bee.

OMAHA. Friday Morning, March 16.

Weather Report.

(The following observations were taken at the same moment of time at the stations mentioned.)

Table with columns: STATIONS, Temperature, Direction, State of Weather, and Height of Wind. Includes locations like Denver, Cheyenne, and Omaha.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Secure your seats for Minnie Madden. The carnival at the skating rink next Tuesday night will be a fine affair.

Contractor Mack will begin putting down the stone pavement on Tenth street within the next few days.

There were four coach loads of emigrants last night on No. 7. Travel of all kinds is picking up.

High McGaffrey and Capt. John B. Faray left for Grand Island at noon yesterday, fully equipped for a grand hunt.

THE BELT ROAD.

The City Council Unanimously Carries the Amendment.

The Opponents of the Measure Present Their Objections.

But the Council Couldn't See it in That Light.

The city council held an adjourned meeting last evening there being a quorum present, as follows: Baker, Bohm, Dunham, Leader, McGuckin, O'Keefe, Thrane and President Kaufman. The absentees were Corby, Dellone and Herman.

O'Keefe moved, immediately after roll call, to send the sergeant-at-arms for absentees.

Leader moved to adjourn, which motion was lost. A recess of fifteen minutes was then taken, as it was desired to have every member present to put himself on record as to the matter of the proposed railway track across Sixteenth street, this being the business of the evening.

At the expiration of the recess the roll was called and all members were found to be present.

Leader moved to adjourn, but the motion was lost.

Mr. Baker presented the opinion of the city attorney on the ordinance granting the right of way to the proposed railway track across Sixteenth street.

The city attorney stated that he had examined the ordinance and had found it to be legally drawn and in accordance with the law.

Mr. Straton, of Sixteenth and Izard said he had rented property in that vicinity on account of its advantageous position during fair time, and the railroad would injure that property.

NULL AND VOID.

The Legal Lights Throw a Gloom on the Viaduct Bill.

And Unite in Pronouncing it "N.G."

It will be remembered that at the last meeting of the board of trade a resolution was adopted urging the city council to procure the opinion of good authorities as to the effect of the Colpejar bill, which was supposed to have legislated the board of public works out of office.

The council referred the matter to city attorney Howe who promptly conferred with Judge Savage and Judge Doane and had their united opinions ready for presentation to the city council last night.

Mr. Corby voted aye, believing that the manufacturing interests were the salt of the city.

Mr. Dellone explained his vote in the same way, and voted aye.

Mr. Dunham voted aye.

Mr. Herman voted aye.

Mr. Leader voted aye.

Mr. McGuckin voted aye.

WAY DOWN DEEP.

A Cunning Scheme to Trap the Unwary.

The Snap Game to be Played in the Coming City Election.

For the past two weeks the political strikes that train in the wake of the old monopoly machine that pretends to go under republican and democratic labels in this city have been very active in concocting a scheme for carrying Omaha in the spring election.

The republican wing of this corporation dined with Frank Walters as the right bower and Mike Meaney as the head center and Ike Hassall as the left bower.

No. 1 have been putting their heads together with John M. Thurston, Paul Vandervoort and other shinning lights.

The conspiracy with this elegant crew has not been how to put up a ticket for they have the dead wood on packing the primaries and conventions, but how to run the gamut of the cross fire from the Bex, when their ticket is once in the field.

They have learned by sad experience during the past few years that tickets with obnoxious men can be knocked down a good deal easier than they can be put up.

A brilliant plan has, we learn, been finally agreed on, and that is to keep back the nominations until two days before the election, so that only one issue of THE BEE would reach the people before election.

This is done to prevent the kickers and scotchmen from making an organized effort to defeat the registers.

Such a plan is certainly very original, but it is liable to miscarry. In fact, any ticket nominated with the design of seeking votes in ignorance is sure to be snuffed out.

THE VERDICT.

Of the Coroner's Jury in the Kate B. Metcalf Case.

State Journal.

The coroner's jury in the case of Mrs. Kate B. Metcalf, who died at the insane hospital last Tuesday morning, brought in their verdict yesterday morning as follows:

STATE OF NEBRASKA, ss. LANCASTER COUNTY, ss. At an inquisition holden at the insane asylum, in Lancaster county, on the 13th of March, A. D. 1883, before me, A. J. Shaw, M. D., coroner of said county, upon the body of Mrs. Kate B. Metcalf, lying dead, we, the jurors whose names are hereto subscribed, the said jurors upon their oath, do say that:

We, the jurors, after due consideration, with the limited knowledge the witnesses had of the case and evidence elicited, and prior physical condition of the body, do decide that Mrs. Kate B. Metcalf died from puerperal mania.

The remains arrived in this city Wednesday and the funeral took place yesterday.

THE CHAMPIONS.

Carver and Bogardus Will Shoot in Omaha on Saturday.

Mr. Lou Daniels, manager of Dr. Carver and Capt. Bogardus, the two acknowledged best shots in the world, arrived in the city today to arrange for a match at this place on Saturday next.

The two experts have arranged for a series of twenty-five matches, the purses on which amount to $7,500.

They have pooled the matches, that is the one winner the most out of the twenty-five will get the purse.

The first match takes place in Omaha on the express wish of Capt. Bogardus, who formerly made it his vicinity his "stamping ground."

THE OPERA.

A Successful Season of One Night.

The Sprightly and well-known artist, Emma Abbott, appeared Wednesday at Boyd's opera house in Gilbert and Sullivan's latest opera, "Iolanthe, or the Peer and the Peri," to a well-sized and appreciative audience.

Among those who are supposed to be judging Iolanthe is the most pleasing of any of the productions of Gilbert. The number of bright and sparkling little airs which run like a vein of gold through the entire composition sustain the interest of the audience from the beginning to the close of the performance.

The merits of Miss Abbott are well known even to Omaha theatre goers, and here high and well modulated voice is always welcome in the city.

Probably there is no more staid and patrician prima donna on the American lyric stage than Miss Abbott and her earnest efforts to please have been crowned with a liberal reward.

No matter what your ailment, Brown's Iron Bitters will surely benefit you.
