Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near roadway.
Some one always in the office.

MINOR MENTION.

—See Joseph Reiter's spring styles.
—Additional local on seventh page.
—The Bee had 21 new subscriptions added to its Council Bluffs list yesterday.
—Justice Schurz reports doing a large business in the collection line, and says collections are easy.

—The police are making it lively for tramps, drunks, and other offenders against the law.

—Justice Vaughan will hear the attachment case of George Furbush against Adam Blackett this morning.

—The St. Joe road answered a garnishee against G. E. Brown in favor of J. T. Mackelroy before Justice Vaughan.

—Jim Johnson's case, for stealing tickets out of the Northwestern case at Capt. Brown's office, was continued till the 30th.

—Bridget Dungen garnished the C. & M. road for the wages of Jas. Bowman, and Justice Vaughan will hear the case today at 12 m.

—Chief Field and policeman Edgar arrested a day from day from Beatrice, Nebraska, where they went with their prisoner Bradshaw.

—The street cars are now running to the transfer depot every half hour from seven o'clock in the morning till six o'clock in the evening.

—Quite a flurry of snow fell on Monday night, melting away yesterday creating some mud on our streets and crossings with a cold day on hand.

—All trains were on time yesterday morning except the second section of the C. B. & Q., which was loaded down with emigrants bound westward.

—The supreme court adjourned last night from 4 o'clock to 9 o'clock this morning, when the decision on the motion will be anxiously looked for.

—A. B. Aker had a horse taken by attachment from N. A. Seamon, which was claimed to have been mortgaged. Justice Vaughan issued the documents.

—N. A. Seamon was arrested for selling mortgaged property, and was placed under $300 bond. The trial will come off today at 2 p. m. before Justice Vaughan.

—Young Brewer, who threw mud at the Chinese laundry, received a labor sentence to carry coal the rest of his natural life, or so long as he shall remain around the city building.

—Forty-seven saloon bonds have been approved, and only thirty have paid the license and fee, hence the officials are getting nervous, and threaten to treat some to a long-metre deal.

—Last night Policeman Cuthbert ran in a couple of crooks, John P. Williams to be drunk, and James Thompson for larceny. Thompson went through the drawer of the Farmers hotel.

—Two couples were granted permission to unite under the majesty of the law. H. B. Myer to Sarah Tietge, both of this county. T. M. Menenay, of Crescent, to Sarah Maglin, of Hazel Dell.

—The Ogden house is always well filled and especially during the time anything special is going on in the city. Yesterday about four hundred persons refreshed the inner being at their well filled tables.

—Mr. J. J. Brown, one of our most enterprising capitalists, is buying property with a view to building a gigantic hotel on one of the corners near Dehany's new opera house. The postoffice, opera house and a big hotel will give a grand boost to that locality.

—Yesterday in the supreme court the anti-prohibition attorneys filed a motion to transfer the trial and argument of the prohibition question to Des Moines, as it properly belongs in that district, which will be decided this morning, and if the motion is sustained the argument will not be heard till next May.

—When the writer came to Council Bluffs he stopped at the Revere house and found it to be home like, quiet and well kept in all respects. The rooms and the table are particularly well furnished. Travelers and all others who find themselves hibernating in Council Bluffs will have good quarters and a moderate bill at the Revere house.

Bridging the Muddy.

To the Editor of This Bee.
Some time ago a few of the business men on Broadway got tired of wading through the unbroken sea of mud that the city allows between the Ogden house and the Methodist church, and bought lumber at their own expense for a crossing. This had got worn out for a short space on one side, and now, without any notice, comes a gang and tears it up and haul off the plank and cross ties, leaving nothing but the holes where the sleepers laid to reward them for their outlay in behalf of the citizens in that part of the city. Whoever ordered this done should take a walk up that way the first rainy day, so that the curses may not be wasted, but put where they are needed. If they won't build a walk they should at least let the business men build one for themselves. This is the largest stretch of mud in any business part of Iowa. No wonder the residents are hot.

SOME OF OUR INTERESTS.

SHUGART IMPLEMENT HOUSE.

The original house was established here fourteen years ago, and the same parties who had a controlling interest in that establishment still hold a controlling interest in the new firm, which was effected about three years since. The firm occupy 34,600 feet of floor room of their own, besides being obliged to rent considerable space in other buildings. They have two warehouses, one situated on the Northwest corner track and the other on the C. B. & Q., which are used exclusively for storage and transfer purposes. This firm handle a very large line of farm implements, among which are the J. I. Case and West plow goods, Farmstead and G. W. Brown corn planters, Bain, Shuttler's Old's Stud-baker and Reine's wagons and carriages. Horneys, Haydock and the Columbus buggies, Buckeye reapers, and mowers. The J. I. Case and Nichols & Shepherd's threshing machines, power and hand corn shellers, also extras for all machines they handle besides all kind of small farm and garden tools. They also carry a full line of field seeds. This company is one of the largest business houses in the northwest and are perfectly reliable in all their undertakings. Their trade is principally in Western Iowa, all through Nebraska, Southern Dakota and the western territories with good orders from Missouri and Kansas. Their trade has grown to such proportions that the company contemplate the erection of a four story brick building, 90x100 feet on the lots immediately south of the foundry on Main street, which they have recently purchased for that purpose. To show our readers that the business interests of Council Bluffs, while rapidly growing, are already very large, this firm doing over half a million dollars' worth of business in one season. In order to transact this vast business they must have good territory for their trade, plenty of money and good facilities for handling so large a business. All these we have here amongst us. Let us encourage and foster that which we have, and induce others to accept and take advantage of the many privileges that is offered to all who desire to locate at this great railroad center.

Dr. West, Dentist, 14 Pearl street.

Seed Corn Free.

The following circular speaks for itself, and will give our farmers a chance to secure pure seed at actual cost of purchase:

To agents, farmers and grain dealers:
Until June 1, 1883, this company will transport, between any of its stations in the state of Iowa, corn for seedling purposes, free, subject to the following rules:

If the corn is consigned direct to farmers the agent at the receiving station, upon being satisfied that the corn is for seedling purposes only, will correct Chicago & Northwestern railway charges to read "free" on such shipments.

If the corn is consigned to grain dealers, it must be in full barrels, and before billing is corrected or C. & N. W. charges refunded, consigners must guarantee that the corn will be sold to parties for seedling purposes only, at not more than ten cents per bushel above cost.

WM. S. MILLER,
General Freight Agent.
HENRY O. WICKER,
Freight Traffic Manager.

Social Event.

Mr. H. Friedman, one of the leading merchants of this city, whose millinery and fancy goods stand second to none, took the train on the Rock Island road last evening for Des Moines, Iowa. The smile which he carried with him would denote that he anticipated a much more pleasant time than usual, and when we inform you, kind reader, that it was on no less an important occasion than to meet his fiancée, Miss Charlotte Kroger, a charming and handsome young lady of Des Moines, no preventing Providence, and all parties continuing in the same mind, they will be united as one on Thursday evening of this week. He, with his happy bride, will then go to the eastern markets for the purpose of selecting and purchasing a fresh stock of goods for his large establishment in this city. May joy and pleasure accompany them home through all their many days, here below.

Money for the Unmarried.

One of the most solid and substantial institutions in the country is the Marriage Fund and Mutual Trust Association, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa. They are organized under the laws of Iowa and have officers and directors among the leading and most prominent business men of Cedar Rapids. Every unmarried person should have a certificate in this association.

It is a splendid investment, as safe as government bond. You can just as well have a good sum of money to commence married life as not. A large number of officers have been paid off, receiving over 300 per cent on their investment. Write for circulars fully detailing the plan, which is the finest known. Do not postpone it. Get agents wanted. Mention where you saw this notice. feb28-3m

What Typographical Errors Will Do.

"John Abbe" made one of his red hot speeches, ridiculing mechanics who had courage to contend for their interests, stating that he himself was an employer but he always stood with labor, and when his men were challenged, he was ready to draw his sword."—Extract from Saturday's Bee.

If the men who put the above in type had not omitted words "not the," our lines would have read, "ridiculing the mechanics who had not the courage to contend for their interests," and then John Abbe would have smiled blandly, asked us to take something, and wish for us long life, health and happiness. But those two words were omitted, and presto—change! He who has never been refused a favor and who has sworn to defend even to the death, rushes into print and aims with the pen which "is mightier than the sword," a thrust as venomous as any ever made by the assassin's knife. Such is the life of a writer. In blissful ignorance of having done wrong none being meant, he never reads his own report until the thunders of an outraged victim of a typographical blunder calls him a liar.

and all the other pet names he can think of.

Now, if John will only go and kill that impostor, it will be a great relief to our grief-stricken and sorrow-laden soul.

PERSONAL.

Capt. H. S. Henry, of this city, has recently returned from an extended trip through the east and south and will leave in a few days again for New York City. The captain is largely interested in mining interests in Colorado and Utah; he showed us some valuable silver ore taken from some of the interests and feels sure some of them will soon be worked with large paying dividends.

W. E. Smith, who is connected with the Allen Printing company of Omaha, is in the city on business connected with the large house he represents. They are an exclusive job printing company and can give as fine work as cheap as any house in the northwest.

R. B. Williams, president of the Empire Cross Spring and St. Julian Gear company, of Janesville, Wis., manufacturers of buggy springs, bodies and running gear, was a pleasant caller at our office.

Judge Wright, formerly a member of the supreme court of this state, is the gentleman who made the motion to refer the argument on the prohibition lock at Des Moines, and with his lady is stopping at Ogden.

Chief Justice Day, Associate Justices Rothrock, Beck, Adams and Seavers are all registered at the Ogden house; also Attorney General McPherson, Reporter Ebersole and Clerk Pray.

Jno. G. Woodward, of Chicago, representing the Kingsford starch company is supplying our merchants and the Ogden house boys listen to his prattle at meal time.

M. B. Davis and S. S. Fawcett, of Sioux City, W. S. Silvermore and J. A. Harvey, of Des Moines, and E. C. Richards, of Red Oak, are resting at the Ogden house.

C. E. Bennett, of the Heard and Bennett hardware and brass manufacturing company of Detroit, Michigan, is standing around with our business men.

U. S. Senator James F. Wilson who was here for the purpose of arguing in favor of the amendment as carried, is at the Ogden house.

H. C. Hannway, of Kansas City, is one of the good penmen who scroll their autographs on the Ogden house book.

Ex-Clerk of the Supreme Court Holmes is registered at the Ogden, and is assisting the new clerk in his duties.

A. W. Clyde, L. Gas, E. C. Byers, Earling, and E. H. Cowles, Pine Bluff, are anchored at the Pacific.

Governor Hall, of Wyoming territory, is in the city, his physician representing well his name.

J. A. Danielson, a resident of Missouri Valley, stops at the Pacific while he takes in the city.

N. P. A. Peterson and F. M. Gardner, of Walnut, still stay at the popular Pacific house.

E. C. Smith, from the land of Odawanda, smiles while a guest at the Pacific.

Hon. T. M. C. Logan, of Logan, is in attendance at the supreme court.

W. B. Cuppy registers at the Pacific from Avoca.

Wm. Dabbi and lady, Red Oak, are at the Pacific.

L. A. Riley, of Wapello, is at the Pacific.

Our New Loan and Improvement Co.
Investigation into the matter convinces us that one of the most equitable, reasonable and feasible plans of building houses is that proposed and in operation by the Mercantile Loan, Trust and Improvement company of this city. By investing in shares in this institution, which is backed by some of our best and most reliable business men, it becomes possible and comparatively easy for a man of moderate means to secure a comfortable home for himself and family. In taking a certain number of shares, at a certain monthly payment, in a few years a man can own a house of his own for about the same as he pays monthly for rent. We believe the Mercantile Loan and Trust company, by organizing and opening up for business, having filled a long felt want in Council Bluffs. Their plans and system of loans will bear the most careful scrutiny and examination, and we have no hesitancy in pronouncing them reasonable and equitable, and backed by gentlemen of honor and integrity. As the company exists it becomes at once an institution of value and credit to our city and those who desire homes. Their president is T. A. Kirkland, vice president, Judge Peake; secretary, I. R. Henry; treasurer, C. Sober, and their office is in the basement of Shugart's and McMahon's new block, corner First avenue and Pearl street. jan27-1y
