> Return of the Police." Chief Fields and Policeman Edgar returned yesterday from their trip to Beatrice, Neb., where they went with their prisoner Enoch Bradshaw, who is charged and indicted for the murder of a young man named Vorhees in the month of March, 1879. It would seem that Vorhees and Bradshaw were traveling together, going to Kansas to settle upon some land; they were from Schuyler county, Missouri, and when about sixteen miles south of Beatrice, Gage county, Nebraska, the murder was committed and the victim thrown into a ravine, this party Bradshaw then taking the team and going off with it. The remains of the young man were not found for several days and then the man had got out the way of the officers. It is claimed that he has lived here both before and since the murder was committed. When taken here he was coaxed to the Nebraska street.
