MINOR MENTION.

—See Joseph Reiter's spring styles.
—Additional local on seventh page.

—David Niven, for hitting Jennings and disturbing the peace, paid $1.00.

—A fine runaway down Broadway in the morning of yesterday, with no damage resulting.

—John Brown, of color, partook too freely of the life of corn and rye, which cost him $2.00.

—It is a bad plan for people to run their wagon wheels against the street car tongue for the wagon wheel may lose some spokes.

—A practical mason wants a job, or any kind of work. He is a good, live man.
Address Mason, this office, or call and leave word.

—David D. Nugent, for being drunk and carrying concealed weapons, a large Colt's revolver and three bottles of poor whisky, paid $14.70 and all was over.

—A smash-up of a wagon was settled for by paying for the wagon; hence the lawyers were fooled and the officers beat out of their fees.

—A young colored man fell under the street cars and broke his arm. The accident occurred near the checkerboard. Dr. McRae attended the unfortunate sufferer and set the fracture.

—Miss Darling and her little pigs received a verdict at the hands of the jury for $16.50 against Jeremiah Fulson, and Justice Abbott confirmed the judgment.

—The colored masons who had charge of the arrangements attended in a body the funeral ceremonies of their brother Jordan Chris. They were led by a brass band. A sister number in regalia.

—Col. John Lindt occupied the time of Judge Abbott a little while yesterday morning, and secured a judgment against the parties Mason and Hurst of $100 in each case attorney's fees. The case, we understand, will be appealed.

—A couple of days since Sarah Berry fled a complaint against her alleged for assault and battery, and yesterday the accused Alfred appeared before Justice Abbott and gave bond to keep the peace and for his appearance at the next term of the district court.

—Mr. Lewis Chadwick, who married Miss Laura Keely, (a daughter of Col.
Keely) has accepted a position with B.
Newman & Co., of Omaha, and was moving over yesterday. Mr. Chadwick has been in the employ of Mr. P. C. Duvall for the past year.

—A new feature in the Kintz case has come up: A brother-in-law now comes in and claims the goods by virtue of a chattel mortgage given a few days before Mr.
Kintz undertook to move the goods. The creditors here are making preparations to investigate the validity of the mortgage.

—A meeting of the vestry of St. Paul's church the following named gentlemen were chosen officers for the ensuing year: Wardens, D. C. Bloomer and John Han-thorn; treasurer, A. W. Street; secretary, H. C. Corry.

—Yesterday in the U. S. court nothing of importance occurred. A few motions were made on account of the death of F. M.
Gen'l Howe, the court adjourned at noon till 10 o'clock this morning, when the case will be argued and the court will commence business in earnest.

—The following marriage licenses have been issued since Monday: Charles Frederson to Lena Johnson, both of this city; Hans Schmidt to Christina Dolan, both of a recent Patrick Gilmore to Anna A. Donnell, residents of Pottawattamie; H. J. Upton, of Pierce county, Nebraska, to Mattie Clauson, of Mt. Airy, this state.

—Geo. Young and wife, nee Miss L.
Lamburn, of Chester county, Pa., were here visiting J. M. Palmer, one of our old residents, and left last night on the B. & M. road for Lincoln, Neb., where they have a sister living. This young couple are on a bridal tour of a couple of weeks and so far as they have gone think the Bluffs is about the prettiest place they have visited.

—The reception given to Rev. J. G.
Lemen upon his retiring from the pastori-ship of the Baptist church in this city took place as announced at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Filbert. Early in the evening the handsome parlors were filled with friends who made the parting really a meeting of pleasure like tending adieu into joy. The juvenile band appeared on the grounds playing choice selections. The company retired after partaking of an elegant supper which had been prepared by the host and hostess.

—In the case of Confidence Corpse Hill a new deal in the matter came up. A Northwestern railroad detective is after the young fellow with a check on the bank of Caldwell, Hamilton & Co., of Omaha, for over $800, signed "Goodbody & Co.," which he had passed off, receiving an equivalent for the same. The young man was requested to furnish another $1,000 bond, which he failed to do and goes to jail till next Thursday, when he will be examined. In the original case on which he was arrested Col. Daley, his attorney, waived examination and the case will come up before the grand jury at its next sitting.

ONE MORE UNFORTUNATE.

The Mother's Dispatch and the Coroner's Jury Verdict.

The following dispatch was received by the coroner, Mr. Paul, yesterday afternoon, from the mother of the unfortunate girl who died in this city from the effects of an untimely delivery of a child in order to cover a previous indiscretion:

DILLER, Neb., March 28, 1883.

Place remains in respectable case; express to Fairbury, Neb.; quickest route.
Answer what route and when may expect corps. Money deposited with express agent to pay all charges at Diller.

MARIAH BROWN.

The coroner's jury, who were subpoenaed at 8 a. m. yesterday, after hearing all witnesses who had any knowledge of the affair, and after mature deliberation, returned the following verdict:

We, the jury, find that Della Brown, came to her death from the effects of a miscarriage and the improper use of medicine given by whom to the jury is unknown.

E. ROSECRANS, Foreman,
JOHN STAGG,
A. KEELER.

Thus closes the sad tale of a once happy, pretty girl, and this morning the last of what remains of the mortal will be conveyed by express via the B. & M. road to her sorrowing but loving friends. The question naturally arises who is to blame, the villian who perpetrated the deed and then left her among strangers in her dying hours, and when cold in death cowerdly beyond all comparison, snaked off. No language can express our contempt for such villainy, and only one hope is, there may be a hell somewhere to receive such cowards and destroyers of some of earth's brightest flowers.

Dresses, cloaks, coats, stockings and all garments can be colored successfully with the Diamond Dyes.
Fashionable colors only 10c.

Nigger John.

For the past two or three days some anxiety has been felt as to the whereabouts of John White, nicknamed Nigger John, although he is a white man. Last Sunday John White went to a party who lived in the house of Mr. W. Martin and borrowed a long, old fashioned, smooth bore musket to go hunting with. He started off down toward the river and between one and two o'clock Sunday afternoon he was seen by S. S. Burcham in company with three or four other parties around here on the island. Mr. Burcham did not know the parties with White, but recognized White, though he did not speak to him.

Jeppie Hannibalson met the deceased at 3 p. m. Sunday, he was then on the island nearly opposite the old boat house, and only a few steps from the lake. He was then carrying his gun at full cock and Jeppie cautioned him, but he replied that he always carried a gun that way. Mr. White started down to the lake and took a drink of water and Mr. Hannibalson came on home. On his way he met two buggles containing five men going hunting. They were business men of this city, and must have seen the deceased as he was near the road.

Another person also saw White and two or three persons between three and four o'clock Sunday afternoon gathered around a fire. White called to this party to come over and join them, but he decided not to and

As White did not return home Sunday night or Monday, a search was made on Tuesday for the man without finding any signs of him, and on Wednesday morning as Mr. S.
Burcham was going around a short boat in the river to see if he could get some square timbers which he had seen lodge there the day before, and in passing along he discovered the body lying partially on its right side with the head kind of tucked under.
He was about two feet from the body when he first saw it, and walked up and around the body, and although there was some shadow on the face, from the clothes and what he could see the features he was rattled it was the person of John White. Mr. Burcham then went to Mr. Martin's house, telling Mr. M. about it, got one of the men folks to come in to the city and notify the proper authorities, when the deputy coroner went down bringing the body to the undertaking rooms of Mr. Connell, where an investigation was made by Dr. Edmunds, who ascertained that the entire charge almost had entered a little to the right from the center of the breast, striking the breast bone and passing downward. The body had on two coats, a vest and two shirts, through which the charge had passed before entering the body, and yet the clothes were not even powder marked. The river is rising some and the banks near where the body was found were caving in rapidly, still the body was on the bank away from the river about fifteen or twenty feet. The powder and shot flask and a box of cups were found in the pockets, yet no gun was found, though the doctors agree that he might have run some little distance after being shot before falling, but he certainly could not have thrown the gun into the river from where he was found. No one seems to have any knowledge of who the parties were who were seen with him on Sunday afternoon. The cause of his death will probably remain a mystery for some time, perhaps forever, and it is quite probable a case of accidental shooting.

John White came here nearly two years ago and has been to work driving an express wagon for Mr. W. Martin for the past five or six months, coming here from Canada where his relatives live, and was about 24 years of age.
The coroner's jury which is the same as in the case of Della Brown will not render a verdict before some time today.

ham's Vegetable Compound is the best

Our New Loan and Improvement Co.
Investigation into the matter convincing us that one of the most equitable, reasonable and feasible plans of building houses is that proposed and in operation by the Mercantile Loan, Trust and Improvement company of this city. By investing in shares in this institution, which is backed by some of our best and most reliable business men, it becomes possible and comparatively easy for a man of moderate means to secure a comfortable home for himself and family. In taking a certain number of shares, at a certain monthly payment, in a few years a man can own a house of his own for about the same as he pays monthly for rent. We believe the Mercantile Loan and Trust company, by organizing and opening up for business, having filled a long felt want in Council Bluffs. Their plans and system of loans will bear the most careful scrutiny and examination, and we have no hesitancy in pronouncing them reasonable and equitable, and backed by gentlemen of honor and integrity. As the company exists it becomes, at once an institution of value and credit to our city and those who desire homes.
