LOCAL BREVITIES.

-Another dash of snow fell at noon ye terday.

-Everything one hears on the street now is politics. Caldwell block is being painted a light and pretty gray. One plain drunk was sent up yesterday in default of his fine. -We called at Cruickshanks for a local but found them too busy yesterday.

-Both branches of the district court were sitting vesterday, Judge Neville having recovered from his illness.

-The retiring board in the case of Captain Mahon, of the 16.h intautry, met at army headquarters Wednerday.

The U. P. train from the west yester day was reported an hour late, the delay being occasioned by snow on the Central Pacitio.

-The next classic concert of the Philo matheun ciub will take place at Max Meyer's music hall on Wednesday, April

-A large audience gathered at the First Baptist church Wednesday to hear Ben Hogan, who gave them a lively and interesting talk.

-A colored man was sent to jail yesterday in default of $5 and costs for disturbing the peace by being an inmate of a disreputable house.

-There were eleven cars out on then on train yesterday, which was adouble header. Four were coaches packed full and two were Pullmans equally crowded. The rush on the emigrant run is very large, seven cars going out night before last.

-The republican caucus in the Sixth ward Wednesday agreed to recommend O. P. Straight for the city council, and Mr. Hon. James E. Boyd. Bennett, proprietor of the laundry for member of the school board.

Miss Anna Morgan, t reader, gaye a charming entertainment Wednesday evening at Boyd's. The audience, while small, endeavored to make up, as far as possible, in appreciation what it

-The Prussian Imperial band, billed for evening, are said to be the best band in Prussia, and for two years were imme distely connected with King William's ehold. Admission 50 cents; reserved seats without extra charge.

-The St. George's society, organized in this city about one year ago, and having a membership of nearly two hundred, have decided upon having a grand entertainment the coming month With this end in view they have secured the opera house for Wednesday, April 25, and are now engaged in the work of selecting talent for the occasion. The entertainment will be dramatic in its nature, and it is quite likely will consist of some sterling old English comedy or melo-drama. The members of the society will leave nothing undone to make this, their first venture of the kind, an unqualified, artistic and pecu niary success.

Saratoga Lyceum. The closing meeting of the lyceum season, Saturday evening the 31st, for which extensive preparations have been made, gives promise of eclipsing all its former attempts.

The U. P. orchestra has been en gaged to furnish the music, and the programme which will be found below will be seen to include a sufficient variety to make it interesting to all. The admission has been put at the low price of 25 and 15 cents.

a committee of three to notify Judge Savage of his nomination and see if he would accept. Carried. The chair appointed Messrs. Desmond, Moriarity and Casey. Mr. Fitz norris made a statemen concerning Judge Savage's willingness to accept the nomination and on motion the committee appointed to wait on the gentleman was discharged. It was moved and seconded that the nomination of Judge Savage be made unanimous. Carried. JUDGE BENEKE RENOMINATED. Mr. Thos. Casey moved to nominate Hon. Gustav Beneke as police judge

by acclamation. Carried. TREASURER BUCK RENOMINATED.

Mr. Thos. Casey moved the nomina-tion of Truman Buck for city treasurer by acclamation. Carried.

Mr. Buck was called for and thanked the convention, promising if elected, as he expected to be, to serve the interests of the people of Omaha to the best of his ability. Mr Anderson moved that as the nomination of six councilmen at large lowed to make its nomination, beginlowed to make its nomination, beginning with the first ward, and that the whole convention vote on the nomination, the six reciving the highest R. Markley, M. D., of Juniata, Neb., tion, the six receiving the highest number of votes to be declared the nominees of the convention. Mr. Ford amended the motion to ward. A. N. Ferguson from the fifth ward. L M. Anderson of the first ward. JUDGE SAVAGE

Mr. Anderson responded. BOARD OF EDUCATION. The following nominations were

Tae committee seat to wait on Judge Savage returned with that gentleman, who was received with loud cheers:

Judge Savage said he appeared bafore the convention with a good deal of embarrasament. The use of his name was not entirely unexpected, though it had been invariably refused. He had been assured that the nomi nation, unsought and undesired, had met with the entire approbation of all present and he ought to lay aside his own resolution in deference to the wishes of his friends and felt con strained to accept the nomination. Applause.

The old central committee was continged for two years. The convention adjourned.
