THE LAST EFFORT.

A Fourth Convention Held Last Night at City Hall,

Which Endorsed the Entire Democratic Ticket.

As has been pretty generally known, the convention held by the labor union at City hall on Saturday night was not entirely harmonious.

One of those factions yesterday called another convention by means of the distribution of several hundred "bills" and last night at 7:30 about five hundred persons assembled at the council chamber.

It seemed at first that a collision was likely to take place between the two parties, but fortunately it was averted.

Barney Maguln was chosen chairman, and the assembly proceeded to endorse the entire democratic ticket.

Very little business was transacted, as the subject of the approaching election came up and soon developed into a heated discussion, in which considerable good natured badinage and mirth was indulged in.

The members, as a general thing, were inclined to draw the party lines pretty closely.

THE COMING SANGERFEST.

The Programme for the June Meeting at St. Joe.

The coming Sangerfest to be held at St. Joe June 14th to 19th inclusive, is beginning already to excite considerable interest among the Germans of this city.

The first day will be devoted to the reception of guests, and the evening to a reception concert. The second day will be the first grand concert, and the third day the second grand concert of the week.

On the third day the visitors will be driven about the city and in the evening there will be a grand ball. On the fifth day, Sunday, there will be a big picnic and on Monday, the sixth and last day, the convention of the Band will be held.

The Maennerchor society held a meeting yesterday and appointed the following committee to make arrangements for those wishing to attend from this city: H. Roserzweig, Chas. Krahn and John Baumer.

The Omaha delegation will take a good band with them, probably the Union Pacific band.

The attendance will no doubt be quite large if everything works well.

BEN HOGAN.

The Reformed Puginist Addresses a Large Audience at the Opera House.

The gospel service at the opera house Sunday afternoon was a notable attraction, on account of being conducted by Ben Hogan, whose transition from a sporting man to an evangelist, was as wonderful as that of St. Paul.

The opera house was crowded to its utmost capacity, and at least two hundred persons were standing up in the rear corridor. As Manager Boyd said "we almost had to drive people away with a club. The body of the audience comprised hundreds of the first people of the city but there was also a great many of "the gals" who generally remained in the back ground, but it was evident that all classes were pleased with the speaker's style.

The sermon commenced by singing, "Reason the Perishing," which was followed by prayer by Rev. W. J. Harsh. "Precious Promises" and "Blessed Land" were then sung after which Rev. A. F. Sherrill led in prayer. "Whoever Will" and "I've Found a Friend" were then selected, which was followed by reading of the 107th Psalm by the reformer.

Upon this text Mr. Hogan made a most eloquent and earnest address, first relating the story of his own life, his conversion and religious work and experience, and then drawing the natural conclusions therefrom. The speaker has a fine appearance on the stage, is easy and graceful in delivery, choice in his language except where he wishes to make the lesson intelligible to those accustomed to slang expressions, and is clear and distinct in enunciation. One can listen to him without tiring, and there is humor as well as earnest conviction in his talks.

Mr. Hogan spoke at the Baptist church last evening and speaks there again to-night. It is possible that if an interest is awakened he will remain and assist in conducting a revival in Omaha.

We regret that the unusual pressure on our columns precludes the publication of a synopsis of his speech.

THE COLORADO POOL.

A Supplementary Meeting Held in Omaha.

The Colorado pool hold a meeting at the Paxton hotel in this city last Saturday which was supplementary to the meeting held a few days ago in Chicago.

At this meeting there were present E. O. Vining, traffic manager of the U. P.; P. P. Shelby, general freight agent of the U. P.; Thos. Miller, general freight agent of the B. & M. J. F. Goddard, traffic manager of the A. T. & S. F. road, and J. H. Hansford, general freight agent of the Northern Pacific.

The only business on hand was the approval of certain measures agreed upon at the meeting in Chicago and nothing of public interest was transacted.

Capt. John J. Dawson, late of the British Army, residing on Love street, between Manderville and Spain, New Orleans, La., says he used St. Jacobs Oil with the greatest possible advantage when afflicted with rheumatism.
