YELLOWSTONE PARK.
 Mr. Hatch's Visit to Europe--The Latest-Grazing Business.
 St. Paul Special to Globe-Democrat.
 Harry F. Douglas, post trader at Fort Yates, who is interested with Rufus Hatch and Mr. Hobart in the Yellowstone Park Improvement scheme, has been in the city, and says Mr. Hatch is in Europe to place $1,000,000 of bonds of the company. "You don't want the million for the improvements, do you?"
 "The park improvements are not the most important matters in connection with the scheme. We propose to go into the business of raising cattle on a very extensive scale."
 "Are you to graze them in the park?"
 "What nonsense that is. The question was never broached. We might as well have tried to get a patent on grazing grounds at Niagara as to have sought to take cattle into the park. We never asked, nor wished for such permission."
 "Where are your grounds to be?"
 "That is not settled yet. You may say positively, however, and I wish you would to set at rest the foolish alarm forever, that the idea of pasturing in the park was never even thought of. I have regarded the Union Pacific opposed to us. Secretary Teller was absent when the articles were signed, but he was cognizant of every step in the matter, and was in accord with his assistant."
 "What about the charge of game declination?"
 "I only know that we contracted with certain parties to provide our workmen in the park with meat. We are not opposed to set in the capacity of police. The government has a park constabulary, and if the contractors unlawfully destroyed game it was their business to put a stop to it. We don't want to charge excessive rates, but have a right to make a fair profit on our outlay, and the extreme shortness of the season is to be considered. I don't honestly believe there is much money in the hotel, guide and boating privileges. The cattle herds will insure the profits. The big hotel at Mammoth Hot Spring will be ready by the time the herders want it."

The Doctor's Endorsement.
 Dr. W. D. Wright, Cincinnati, O., sends the following professional endorsement: "I have prescribed DR. WM. HALL'S BALM FOR THE LUNGS in a great number of cases and always with success. One case in particular was given up by several physicians who had been called in for consultation with myself. The patient had all the symptoms of confirmed consumption--cold night sweats, hectic fever, harassing cough, etc. He commenced using this balm at once and was soon restored to his usual health. I also found DR. WM. HALL'S BALM FOR THE LUNGS the most valuable expectorant for breaking up distressing coughs and colds that I have ever used."

The Coming Craze.
 Cincinnati Times-Star.
 Speaking of art reminds me of a talk the other day of a representative of a foreign house that makes a specialty of household art novelties.
 "What is the latest craze?" I inquired.
 "Oh, brass and old iron. In a year this country will be wild over old iron and brass decorations for the home. The factories of Germany, France, and Switzerland are now making up these things, which will begin to pour in about next fall."
 "What are they?"
 "Everything you can think of. Hat racks made of muskets; centre tables with the legs made of swords; card receivers, cabinets, brackets, and mantle ornaments to name a few. They were made of old instruments of war. Old iron and brass is to be the next rage in this line."
 "Did she die?"
 "No; she lingered and suffered alone, pining away all the time for years, the doctors doing her no good; and at last was cured by this Hop Bitters. The papers say so much about it. Indeed! Indeed! how thankful we should be for that medicine."
 A Battle in the Grass.
 From the Austin Dispatch.
 A fight between a rattlesnake and a black snake was recently witnessed near Fort Worth. The black snake forced the fighting, gliding around in swift circles while the rattlesnake lay coiled. The circles grew smaller, and the rattlesnake appeared confused as the black snake drew closer. His rattles ceased to give out their usual sharp sound, and his head dropped as if vertigo was seizing him. The black snake seized, by a lightning movement, the rattler by the throat, and, winding about him, the two rolled over together. In a few moments the rattlesnake ceased to breathe. An examination of the dead body of the rattlesnake revealed a fracture of the spine as complete as if done by a blow with a club. The rattlesnake measured five feet and three inches.

An Assault on the Beef Business.
 Chicago Tribune.
 The managers and general freight agents of the roads running east from this city will meet at Commissioner Moore's office for the purpose of considering the proposition of advancing the rates on dressed beef, which was referred to them by a late meeting of the joint executive committee in New York. At present the dressed beef rate is 60 per cent above the cattle rates, which is about as much as the business can stand. The roads, however, which are doing but little of the dressed beef business seem to be jealous of the large business being done by some of their competitors, and therefore want the dressed beef rate made so high as to virtually drive that kind of business out of the market. The movement is largely in the interest of those roads and managers interested in stock yards, as the dressed beef business is rapidly assuming large proportions and commences to seriously diminish the live stock business. It is not believed that the movement which is being made to increase the rates on dressed beef to prohibit figures will be successful. The roads now doing the bulk of that business will strenuously oppose it, and threaten to leave the east bound pool if it is carried out. They say they could not possibly stand an advance in dressed beef rates, as they have made contracts at the present rates that cannot be abrogated, and which will require them several months to carry out.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 15, 1880.
 GENTLEMEN--Having been a sufferer for a long time from nervous prostration and general debility, I was advised to try Hop Bitters. I have taken one bottle, and I have been rapidly getting better ever since, and I think it the best medicine I have ever used. I am now gaining strength and appetite, which was all gone, and I was in despair until I tried your Bitters. I am now well, able to go about and do my own work. Before taking it, I was completely prostrated.
 MRS. MARY STUART.
 A Red-Headed Statesman.
 Philadelphia Times.
 Missouri has a red-headed and hopeful statesman. His name is Vest, and he is a United States senator. He is sure the democrats will carry the country and elect a president in 1884. Consequently he is making arrangements to move upon the national capital. He does not appear, however, to have taken into account the democratic capacity for blunders during a winter. He also seems to have lost sight of the destructive power of Mr. Watterson.

A Train for Express Matter Only.
 Buffalo Express.
 For some time American Express company have been trying to get faster transportation facilities between New York, Buffalo and the west. The fast mail and express train on the Central known as No. 19, which left New York at 8:50 p. m., was a heavy train, and almost always was very late in reaching this city. A new arrangement has been ordered by Superintendent Touey, taking effect April 3. By this arrangement train No. 19 on the New York Central is divided. One section, leaving New York at 8:45 p. m., will consist wholly of mail cars. The other section, to be known as train No. 11, leaves New York fifteen minutes ahead of the mail train, and is made up wholly of express cars. This train will be known as the "Special American Express," is, we believe, the first fast train ever run in this country for purely express purposes. It will leave New York at 8:30 p. m., stopping at Poughkeepsie, Albany, Utica, Rome and Syracuse, which is reached at 5 a. m. From Syracuse to Buffalo the schedule time is as follows: Lyons 6:45; Cayuga, 7:15; Batavia, 8:17; Buffalo, 9:20 a. m. No other stops are made. This train will have the same right as regular passenger trains, and will run daily, Mondays excepted. At Albany it takes a Boston car from Boston and Albany that left Boston at 3 p. m., thus giving very quick time between Boston and Buffalo. With these new mail and express trains, new local arrangements have been made. For some time past the west-bound mail and express matter over the Lake Shore has been transferred at East Buffalo. Yesterday morning both the new trains ran into the Exchange street depot. The express special brought eight cars, two having been dropped at Rochester. The transfer is made in the depot yard before the mail gets in. At 9:55 a. m. it left over the Lake Shore, having one car for St. Louis, one for Chicago, and two for Cleveland, Cincinnati and the south. Besides the fast time to be made by the American express train, it will be an especially advantageous train for New York shippers, for it leaves New York about two hours later than any other train bringing express matter. Perishable freight can be received from oyster boats, etc., and dairy products shipped at night and landed in Buffalo early the next morning.
