THE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

How Its Advantages May Be Enjoyed by Pupils.

A Real University Without Money and Without Price.

The last annual report of the trus tees of the public library called special attention to the fact that many scholars in the public schools here were reaping the advantage of this collection of books, by pursuing courses of reading under the guidance of the hands of wise teachers, and consulting freely reference books on topics in connection with their daily studies. The broadening and inspirational effect to their youthful intellects of thus getting away from mere text books, has attracted sufficient attention already to cause comment and commendation. It seems desirable that this drift of educational influences be more sharply deflued and more clearly guided.

tracted attention and excited thought in other cities, and from action taken elsewhere and the experience of other cities Council Bluffs may learn some profitable facts. In Chicago, a few days ago, a con-ference was held between the members of the school board and the trustees of the public library, at which this matter was discussed at length. A similar conference would be desirable here, and might result in much good his paper.

by bringing into force harmonious plans mutually sided by both boards.

Librarian Poole delivered at that conference an able address, a synopsis of which will be read with interest and profit by all. He said in substance that the public library is supported by the same constituency. the same constituency, by the same method of taxation, and for the same purpose as are the public schools, and that purpose is the education of the people. The public library comes in to supplement the work of the public schools; to give a broader education than the schools can give, and to fur-nish the opportunities of study after the pupils have left school and gone the pupils have lift school and gone into the practical work of life. It is the experience to every person who becomes a scholar, that when he left school, or even college, he knew very little. He had learned how to study, how to think, how to reason, and how to acquire, but he had as yet acquired only the rudiments of knowledge. His real sign ments of knowledge. His real edu-cation, if he ever had any, now begins, and with the use of books, he carries it on with no other teachers than these silent monitors. The citi zens of Chicago in the public library have the opportunities of a "real university," as Carlyle puts it, without money and without price. This is no facey sketch. I know young men in Chicago who, while pursuing their education than have nine-tenths of -Ed. Lincoln, a gentleman of color, the graduates of Harvard and Yale. stances, and I suspect there would be

THE Y. M. C. A.

Annual Election of Officers, and the Progress of the Work.

The Young Men's Christian Association, at its annual meeting held Monday night, elected the following flisers for the ensuing 12 months:

President-B. F. Lankton. First Vice President - C. W. Dunn. Second Vice President - C. T.

Recording Secretary—C. O. Fitch. Treasurer—R. V. Innes. The directors who hold over for the oming year are: F. H. Orcutt, C. T. Officer and T. W. Gowdy.

The directors elected for the year were P. J. Montgomery, C. H. Loncks and A. W. Street. The annual reports of the work were read, but contained little of general for enconragement at the prospects of enterprise. The room of the association, located on north Main street, are very com-fortable and attractive, and the seso clation has made a start which promises to result in much good work being done. The best preparation of iron a doctor can prescribe is Brown's Iron Bitteeth as other fron medicines will.

ble, reasonable and feasible plans of building houses is that proposed and in operation by the Mercantile Loan, Trust and Improvement company of this city. By investing in shares in this institution, which is backed by some of our best and most reliable the state of the state business men, it becom .: possible and comparatively easy for a man of modcrate means to secure a comfortable home for himself and family. In tak-ing a certain number of shares, at a certain monthly payment, in a few years a man can own a house of his own for about the same as he pays monthly for rent. We believe the Mercantile Loan and Trust company, by organizing and opening up for business, having filled a long felt want in Council Bluffs. Their plans and system of loans will bear the most careful scrutiny and examination, and we have no hesitancy in pronouncing them ressonable and equitable, and backed by gentlemen of honor and integrity.
