

THE TRAIL OF BLOOD.

A Vivid Description of the Dublin Assassination by the Crown Council.

The Great Conspiracy Trials Begin in Earnest, With Brady on the Dock.

The Informers Unfold Their Bloody Tales and Swear Quite Freely.

The Irish Party in the Commons Again Spat Upon and Squelched.

The German Navy Liable to Become a Headless Institution.

The Triple Alliance Continues the Subject of Discussion.

IRELAND.

DUBLIN, April 10.—The trial of Joe Brady on the charge of murdering Cavendish and Burke, was begun this morning.

DUBLIN, April 11.—Porter, crown counsel, in opening, described the Phoenix park crime as of unparalleled atrocity—a crime that had shocked the whole civilized world.

DUBLIN, April 11.—The evidence concerning the conspiracy was to "remove" all whom they regarded as tyrants, probably with the ultimate purpose of forming a republic.

DUBLIN, April 11.—The evidence concerning the conspiracy was to "remove" all whom they regarded as tyrants, probably with the ultimate purpose of forming a republic.

DUBLIN, April 11.—The evidence concerning the conspiracy was to "remove" all whom they regarded as tyrants, probably with the ultimate purpose of forming a republic.

DUBLIN, April 11.—The evidence concerning the conspiracy was to "remove" all whom they regarded as tyrants, probably with the ultimate purpose of forming a republic.

DUBLIN, April 11.—The evidence concerning the conspiracy was to "remove" all whom they regarded as tyrants, probably with the ultimate purpose of forming a republic.

DUBLIN, April 11.—The evidence concerning the conspiracy was to "remove" all whom they regarded as tyrants, probably with the ultimate purpose of forming a republic.

DUBLIN, April 11.—The evidence concerning the conspiracy was to "remove" all whom they regarded as tyrants, probably with the ultimate purpose of forming a republic.

DUBLIN, April 11.—The evidence concerning the conspiracy was to "remove" all whom they regarded as tyrants, probably with the ultimate purpose of forming a republic.

DUBLIN, April 11.—The evidence concerning the conspiracy was to "remove" all whom they regarded as tyrants, probably with the ultimate purpose of forming a republic.

DUBLIN, April 11.—The evidence concerning the conspiracy was to "remove" all whom they regarded as tyrants, probably with the ultimate purpose of forming a republic.

DUBLIN, April 11.—The evidence concerning the conspiracy was to "remove" all whom they regarded as tyrants, probably with the ultimate purpose of forming a republic.

DUBLIN, April 11.—The evidence concerning the conspiracy was to "remove" all whom they regarded as tyrants, probably with the ultimate purpose of forming a republic.

DUBLIN, April 11.—The evidence concerning the conspiracy was to "remove" all whom they regarded as tyrants, probably with the ultimate purpose of forming a republic.

DUBLIN, April 11.—The evidence concerning the conspiracy was to "remove" all whom they regarded as tyrants, probably with the ultimate purpose of forming a republic.

DUBLIN, April 11.—The evidence concerning the conspiracy was to "remove" all whom they regarded as tyrants, probably with the ultimate purpose of forming a republic.

DUBLIN, April 11.—The evidence concerning the conspiracy was to "remove" all whom they regarded as tyrants, probably with the ultimate purpose of forming a republic.

DUBLIN, April 11.—The evidence concerning the conspiracy was to "remove" all whom they regarded as tyrants, probably with the ultimate purpose of forming a republic.

DUBLIN, April 11.—The evidence concerning the conspiracy was to "remove" all whom they regarded as tyrants, probably with the ultimate purpose of forming a republic.

DUBLIN, April 11.—The evidence concerning the conspiracy was to "remove" all whom they regarded as tyrants, probably with the ultimate purpose of forming a republic.

DUBLIN, April 11.—The evidence concerning the conspiracy was to "remove" all whom they regarded as tyrants, probably with the ultimate purpose of forming a republic.

DUBLIN, April 11.—The evidence concerning the conspiracy was to "remove" all whom they regarded as tyrants, probably with the ultimate purpose of forming a republic.

DUBLIN, April 11.—The evidence concerning the conspiracy was to "remove" all whom they regarded as tyrants, probably with the ultimate purpose of forming a republic.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Progress of the Count of the Cash Stored in the United States Treasury.

The Public Printer Pressed With Work by the Change in the Revenue Laws.

Miner's Shattered Memory Refuses to Improve While on the Witness Stand.

The Mobbed Chinaman of Georgia Enters a Claim for Damages.

Of National Interest.

TELEGRAPH NOTES.

Special Dis. to this B. The European steamers Helvetia and Bristol have arrived in New York.

Special Dis. to this B. Cornelius Vanderbilt has given $5,000 to the American church building fund of the Protestant Episcopal church.

Special Dis. to this B. A sale of horses at Eminence, Ky., aggregated over $12,000 for fifty-one animals.

Special Dis. to this B. Dr. G. H. Marshall, of Kitzburg, blacksmith of Mary Anderson, was released on $100,000 bail before the United States commissioner on the 19th inst.

Special Dis. to this B. Lists have been opened at the French legation in Washington for contributions to a public subscription opened in France for the erection of a statue to the late General Chanzy.

Special Dis. to this B. The Indians who crossed from Minnesota into Canada are being decimated by small-pox. Three hundred are reported dead. The remainder are on the way to Portage La Prairie.

Special Dis. to this B. The Connecticut house of representatives passed, 150 to 21, a bill forbidding a railroad of the state from discriminating in freight by charging more for a short haul than for a long one.

Special Dis. to this B. The Greenwood Rolling Mill company, of Philadelphia, Charles F. Shoener president, suspended. The works at Tazewell were shut down. The company refuses to make a statement.

Special Dis. to this B. Isaac H. Burch, who, years ago, was one of Chicago's principal merchants and wealthiest citizens, but who has passed most of the time in Europe for the past eighteen years, died at Nice yesterday.

Special Dis. to this B. Extensive buildings of the Knickerbocker company at Booth Bay, Me., and all runs, engines and engine houses, hay and store houses were totally destroyed by fire and 60,000 tons of ice ruined. The wharves were also destroyed. Boats loading at the wharves were hauled into the river. Loss, $150,000; insurance, $33,000.

THE ALMS HOUSE HORROR.

More About the Benevolence of the Bean Eaters.

Special Dis. to this B. BOSTON, April 11.—In the Towerbury almshouse investigation to-day Frank Barker, formerly in charge of the institution, testified that the buildings were in a filthy condition in the male wards. He had charge of the bathing of the male patients in a tank ten by fifteen feet and one foot deep. As many as 84 bathed in the same water, which was rarely changed. The patients would object to going in and had to be put in by force. The governor at length had the testimony of what the inmates themselves had told the witnesses introduced, but after a warm discussion it was suppressed.

Special Dis. to this B. Mark Heathcote, a policeman, who took a heading to the almshouse, saw a nurse filling it with soap.

Special Dis. to this B. Dr. Dean, a graduate of the Harvard college school, testified that he was a student that perhaps fifty bodies were used during the winter term.

Special Dis. to this B. Frightful Explosion of Powder. MUNCIE, Ind., April 11.—To-day Charles Rhodes, aged 18 and Bosch Tinsley, aged 35, started into the country, carrying a can of Hercules powder, to his home in the city. The powder exploded, instantly killing Rhodes and tearing him to atoms. His head was blown entirely from the body and found fifty yards from the place of the explosion. His legs and other fragments of the body were scattered in all directions. One arm cannot be found. Tinsley had one arm badly crushed. His face and body were horrible out. He is supposed to be seriously injured internally, and there is little hope of his recovery.

Special Dis. to this B. Boston Briefs. BOSTON, April 11.—Spinners of the Merobant woolen mill striking, forced out the weavers. The proprietors will not give the advance asked.

Special Dis. to this B. The Fallmakers' Meeting. PITTSBURG, April 11.—The Western Nail association held its annual meeting to-day and re-elected the old officers. Reports from all sections of the west indicate very little improvement in trade; stocks still light and not well assorted. In view of this it was decided to postpone the contemplated shut down of two weeks until May 7th, or a fortnight later than had been agreed upon. The present card rate of $3.40 was reaffirmed.

Special Dis. to this B. Death of Kansas Lawyer. TROY, Kansas, April 11.—Judge Nathan Price was found dead in his office this afternoon, apparently as if he had died while asleep, but there are circumstances which lead to the suspicion that he committed suicide. He was one of the oldest residents of Doniphan county and a lawyer of high standing.

Special Dis. to this B. Donations to Indians. KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 11.—The president and party met by appointment some Seminoles. The president gave a papoose a quarter and Tom Tigertail a cigar. Chandler gave Tigertail his pocket knife.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Progress of the Count of the Cash Stored in the United States Treasury.

The Public Printer Pressed With Work by the Change in the Revenue Laws.

Miner's Shattered Memory Refuses to Improve While on the Witness Stand.

The Mobbed Chinaman of Georgia Enters a Claim for Damages.

Of National Interest.

CAPITOL NOTES.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The committee appointed to examine into the condition of the United States treasury expect to finish the report of all the reports in about eight days.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The committee of religious affairs closed today. There remains to be counted 150,000 standard silver dollars and $3,200,000 in legal tender notes. The committee are also engaged in verifying the accounts of all disbursing officers. No discrepancies thus far have been discovered in either money or accounts.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require. Some of these agents have reported a number of fraudulent entries, but it is too soon to expect full reports from all of them.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Progress of the Count of the Cash Stored in the United States Treasury.

The Public Printer Pressed With Work by the Change in the Revenue Laws.

Miner's Shattered Memory Refuses to Improve While on the Witness Stand.

The Mobbed Chinaman of Georgia Enters a Claim for Damages.

Of National Interest.

PREVENTING LAND FRAUDS.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out seventeen special agents, twelve of whom are new appointees to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and the department will send out more from time to time as the service may require.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Progress of the Count of the Cash Stored in the United States Treasury.

The Public Printer Pressed With Work by the Change in the Revenue Laws.

Miner's Shattered Memory Refuses to Improve While on the Witness Stand.

The Mobbed Chinaman of Georgia Enters a Claim for Damages.

Of National Interest.

AN OUTRAGED OFFICIAL.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Secretary Teller indignantly denies the truth of the paragraph which appeared in a Philadelphia paper this morning, to the effect that ex-Senator Conkling had been trading upon his influence at the Interior Department. The story was that Conkling had for the consideration of $5,000 used his personal influence to secure the secretary's signature to an important paper, which would not have otherwise been signed.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Secretary Teller indignantly denies the truth of the paragraph which appeared in a Philadelphia paper this morning, to the effect that ex-Senator Conkling had been trading upon his influence at the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Secretary Teller indignantly denies the truth of the paragraph which appeared in a Philadelphia paper this morning, to the effect that ex-Senator Conkling had been trading upon his influence at the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Secretary Teller indignantly denies the truth of the paragraph which appeared in a Philadelphia paper this morning, to the effect that ex-Senator Conkling had been trading upon his influence at the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Secretary Teller indignantly denies the truth of the paragraph which appeared in a Philadelphia paper this morning, to the effect that ex-Senator Conkling had been trading upon his influence at the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Secretary Teller indignantly denies the truth of the paragraph which appeared in a Philadelphia paper this morning, to the effect that ex-Senator Conkling had been trading upon his influence at the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Secretary Teller indignantly denies the truth of the paragraph which appeared in a Philadelphia paper this morning, to the effect that ex-Senator Conkling had been trading upon his influence at the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Secretary Teller indignantly denies the truth of the paragraph which appeared in a Philadelphia paper this morning, to the effect that ex-Senator Conkling had been trading upon his influence at the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Secretary Teller indignantly denies the truth of the paragraph which appeared in a Philadelphia paper this morning, to the effect that ex-Senator Conkling had been trading upon his influence at the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Secretary Teller indignantly denies the truth of the paragraph which appeared in a Philadelphia paper this morning, to the effect that ex-Senator Conkling had been trading upon his influence at the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Secretary Teller indignantly denies the truth of the paragraph which appeared in a Philadelphia paper this morning, to the effect that ex-Senator Conkling had been trading upon his influence at the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Secretary Teller indignantly denies the truth of the paragraph which appeared in a Philadelphia paper this morning, to the effect that ex-Senator Conkling had been trading upon his influence at the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Secretary Teller indignantly denies the truth of the paragraph which appeared in a Philadelphia paper this morning, to the effect that ex-Senator Conkling had been trading upon his influence at the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Secretary Teller indignantly denies the truth of the paragraph which appeared in a Philadelphia paper this morning, to the effect that ex-Senator Conkling had been trading upon his influence at the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Secretary Teller indignantly denies the truth of the paragraph which appeared in a Philadelphia paper this morning, to the effect that ex-Senator Conkling had been trading upon his influence at the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Secretary Teller indignantly denies the truth of the paragraph which appeared in a Philadelphia paper this morning, to the effect that ex-Senator Conkling had been trading upon his influence at the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Secretary Teller indignantly denies the truth of the paragraph which appeared in a Philadelphia paper this morning, to the effect that ex-Senator Conkling had been trading upon his influence at the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Secretary Teller indignantly denies the truth of the paragraph which appeared in a Philadelphia paper this morning, to the effect that ex-Senator Conkling had been trading upon his influence at the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Secretary Teller indignantly denies the truth of the paragraph which appeared in a Philadelphia paper this morning, to the effect that ex-Senator Conkling had been trading upon his influence at the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Secretary Teller indignantly denies the truth of the paragraph which appeared in a Philadelphia paper this morning, to the effect that ex-Senator Conkling had been trading upon his influence at the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Secretary Teller indignantly denies the truth of the paragraph which appeared in a Philadelphia paper this morning, to the effect that ex-Senator Conkling had been trading upon his influence at the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Secretary Teller indignantly denies the truth of the paragraph which appeared in a Philadelphia paper this morning, to the effect that ex-Senator Conkling had been trading upon his influence at the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Secretary Teller indignantly denies the truth of the paragraph which appeared in a Philadelphia paper this morning, to the effect that ex-Senator Conkling had been trading upon his influence at the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Secretary Teller indignantly denies the truth of the paragraph which appeared in a Philadelphia paper this morning, to the effect that ex-Senator Conkling had been trading upon his influence at the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Secretary Teller indignantly denies the truth of the paragraph which appeared in a Philadelphia paper this morning, to the effect that ex-Senator Conkling had been trading upon his influence at the Interior Department.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Progress of the Count of the Cash Stored in the United States Treasury.

The Public Printer Pressed With Work by the Change in the Revenue Laws.

Miner's Shattered Memory Refuses to Improve While on the Witness Stand.

The Mobbed Chinaman of Georgia Enters a Claim for Damages.

Of National Interest.

NEW ORLEANS RACES.

NEW ORLEANS, April 11.—Sixth day of the race track heavy. The hurdle race, one mile and one quarter, Moscow won, Charles Bush second, Von Moike, third; time 2:27.

NEW ORLEANS, April 11.—Sixth day of the race track heavy. The hurdle race, one mile and one quarter, Moscow won, Charles Bush second, Von Moike, third; time 2:27.

NEW ORLEANS, April 11.—Sixth day of the race track heavy. The hurdle race, one mile and one quarter, Moscow won, Charles Bush second, Von Moike, third; time 2:27.

NEW ORLEANS, April 11.—Sixth day of the race track heavy. The hurdle race, one mile and one quarter, Moscow won, Charles Bush second, Von Moike, third; time 2:27.

NEW ORLEANS, April 11.—Sixth day of the race track heavy. The hurdle race, one mile and one quarter, Moscow won, Charles Bush second, Von Moike, third; time 2:27.

NEW ORLEANS, April 11.—Sixth day of the race track heavy. The hurdle race, one mile and one quarter, Moscow won, Charles Bush second, Von Moike, third; time 2:27.

NEW ORLEANS, April 11.—Sixth day of the race track heavy. The hurdle race, one mile and one quarter, Moscow won, Charles Bush second, Von Moike, third; time 2:27.