Mr. H. W. Tilton has leased the city circulation of THE BEE at Council Bluffs, and also entered into a contract for the entire advertising business of the Council Bluffs page.

MINOR MENTION.

See Joseph Reiter's spring styles. Additional local on seventh page. There are now thirty-two prisoners in jail, six of them are women. The jubilee singers are to be at Dohany's next Tuesday evening. Justice Vaughan yesterday received his commission and seal as notary. The Catholic Boys' band give a ball at St. Joseph's academy this evening. Bayliss' park is being cleared up and cleaned up for the summer season. There is a good prospect of the erection of a $15,000 Masonic temple here at an early age. A large combination awning now appears at the front of Wells, Cook & Co.'s establishment on Broadway. The work of filling to grade of the sidewalk along the Beysant building on Broadway has been commenced. L. B. Clark & Co., of the Upper Broadway drug store landed a fine thirty hundred pound safe in their store yesterday. The rising young Irish comedian, Wm. J. Scanlan, appeared at Dohany's last evening in Barney Campbell's new play "Friend and foe."

FROM OYSTERS TO BEEF.

The Visit of Baltimore Capitalists to Western Plains.

Their Welcome in Council Bluffs Yesterday.

The special train bearing the Baltimore excursionists reached the city over the C., B. & Q. railway early yesterday morning from Burlington, their last stopping place. The train reached the depot at 7 o'clock and the visitors found there waiting to welcome them a number of the prominent citizens and officials provided with carriages at their disposal for a drive about the city. The visitors declined the urgent invitation to breakfast at the Ogden, they having already all in readiness for their refreshment in the dining car, and being desirous to make the most of their time they hurriedly partook of their meal there, and then jumping into carriages were taken at once to the board of trade rooms, the president of that body, E. L. Suggart, Mayor Bowman, Dr. McCune, Alderman Eicher, Col. J. W. Chapman and others serving as guides and escorts. The rooms being reached, a more convenient opportunity was presented for an interchange of individual courtesies and welcomes. Boxes of cigars appropriately labeled "Business," were speedily attacked, and the company engaged a short session of sociability and informality. The visitors were Colonel S. P. Thompson, of the Baltimore board of trade, George H. Baer, president of the corn exchange, F. T. Smith, G. T. Gambrell, W. T. Bamdollar, W. M. Cooper, G. W. Titlow, R. S. Fowler, John C. Legg, B. B. Clark, E. B. Owens, T. B. Hull, O. F. Lantz, G. W. Hill, E. M. Schwyer, Frank Fisher and Charles Rous, all members of the Baltimore corn exchange; Fred A. Wheeler, superintendent of the B. & O. elevator, E. P. Rippley, general freight agent of the C., B. & Q.; H. O. Dehit, general freight agent, Ford Wood, assistant freight agent and M. J. McConegny, traveling agent of the I. B. & W. railway. President Shugart by a gentle tapping on the table caused a lull in the conversation long enough to permit of a little more formal talk, but this part of the exercises was with good business sense made brief, as he suggested that it seemed more desirable to spend the short time allotted, in showing the visitors the advantages of Council Bluffs rather than to indulge in speeches. Col. J. W. Chapman being called upon to give more formal utterance to the welcome felt by all performed that duty very happily, and expressed regret that the visitors, crossing Iowa by night were unable to see much of what he deemed the grandest state in the union. He related the incident told of Sheridan, who said that if he owned Texas and "hell," he should prefer to live in hell and rent out Texas. Mr. Chapman thought none of the visitors could say that of Iowa, but that he would prefer to rent out Baltimore and come to live here. But if they really insisted on staying in Baltimore they would trade them beef for oysters, but the west was to have something to say about prices hereafter. In conclusion he bade all a hearty welcome. Col. Thompson, who seemed to be a sort of foreman of the party of visitors, was called on, but he secured a substitute in Mr. Baer, another of the visitors, who, in a really elegant and eloquent address of only a few minutes length, responded to the welcome. He spoke of the wonderful growth and brilliant future of the west, and that the stars of empire was not westward taking its course, but was already here. As residents of the east they felt a pride in this no less than those of the west, for it was one country, and the prosperity was shared by all. They would carry back with them many happy remembrances of their western trip, and among them not the least would be the incident of their visit to Council Bluffs and the hearty welcome given them here, for which all felt duly grateful. The carriages were then filled and the company enjoyed a drive around the city, the principal places visited being Fairmount park, the driving park and the stock yards and the big elevator. The drive gave the visitors a chance to see much of the city and the citizens who accompanied them improved the time in pointing out objects of interest and giving information concerning Council Bluffs advantages. Secretary Odell, of the board of trade, furnished the visitors with copies of the annual reports of that body. To do at their leisure, and armed with these they took the train about 10 o'clock for across the river to see Omaha and its attractions. At the train there was a scene of jollity. The visitors had an opportunity to return some of the courtesies extended, their dining car being well supplied. Corks flew and smoke arose, and short speeches of the banquet type were made, among the participants in this exercise being Judge James M. F. Rohrer, D. F. Eicher, E. H. Odell and others of our well known citizens. The train then moved across the river, the company expecting to return in the afternoon, and then proceeded to Kansas City, from which point they will turn homeward. The visitors did not originally expect to come so far west, but hearing of their being at Peoria, the C., B. & Q. road by its general manager T. J. Potter, gave so generous and so urgent an invitation to become its guests and run over its road, that it was accepted. The visitors have been royally cared for by the C., B. & Q., and they express equally their delight at their reception by Council Bluffs. The previous night they were received at Burlington by the board of trade, but declined the pressing invitation to remain there yesterday to drive about the city, so that Council Bluffs has the honor of being the first western city which they have inspected in carriages. Dr. Jeffries elegant residence on Sixth avenue, for sale.

PERSONAL.

R. A. Bryant, the oldest surviving brother of Judge Bryant, yesterday returned from Edina, Mo., where he has been sojourning among friends for the past year. He states that portion of Missouri the spring is backward, caused by the almost incessant rains, and that a great many farmers have not yet got their small grain sowed. Dr. Slada, the well known medium, has arrived at the Ogden, where he will remain for a week. Some doubt has been expressed as to his being the genuine Dr. Slada, but old friends here recognize and greet him so cordially as to dispel all such doubts. A. B. Slater, one of Walnut's real estate dealers, passed through the city en route home from a business trip to Wayne county, Neb. Mr. Slater reports that portion of Nebraska settling up rapidly, and speaks well of it as a county. W. H. Power, manager and proprietor of the Wm. J. Scanlan company, was among yesterday's callers at THE BEE, kindly introducing the popular young actor. Mayor Bowman and Alderman at Large McMahon spent the afternoon over the river yesterday with the Baltimore excursionists. F. Benjamin, one of the best known members of the Pottawattomie county bar has been chosen city attorney of Avoca. D. W. Bartlett, R. H. Logan, and G. K. Austin, of Des Moines formed a trio at the Ogden yesterday. W. H. Linfor, a prominent citizen of Walnut, was on a business trip to the metropolis yesterday. Judge Aylesworth has started for Dakota to view the farms which he has staked out there. Wm. Sanders, an old time friend of J. H. Pierce, made THE BEE a pleasant call yesterday. J. H. Means, of Shelby, Iowa, was in the Bluffs yesterday and stopped at the Pacific. F. M. Powell, of Glenwood, was among yesterday's guests at the Pacific. Miss Estella Miller has returned home from a visit to relatives in Lincoln. Mrs. J. S. Wilson and daughter have returned from a visit to the east. F. W. Haltem, of Avoca, Iowa, was at the Pacific yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor, of Dunlap, were in the city yesterday. H. J. Daniels, of Chicago, were among yesterday's arrivals at the Ogden. George Henderson, of Cedar Rapids, was at the Ogden yesterday. S. R. Sargent, of Cleveland, O., was an Ogden house guest yesterday. Charles F. Luce, of Woodbine, Ia., was in the city yesterday. H. W. Lyman, of Okaloosa, visited the Bluffs yesterday. C. L. Hyde, of Logan, Iowa, was at the Pacific yesterday. J. C. Colby, of Creston, was in the city yesterday. Justice Vaughan is able to be at his office again. W. T. Wells, of Hamburg, was here yesterday. Mrs. Minnie Pfeiffer has gone east after goods. For Coughs and Throat Disorders use Brown's BRONCHIAL TROCHES. "Have never changed my mind respecting them from the first, except I think yet better of them which I began by thinking well of."—Rev. Henry Ward Beecher. Sold only in box prices, 25 cents. Dr. West, Dentist, 14 Pearl street. Yesterday two dusky wenches made Main street air blue with oaths and foul language to the disgust of all passers-by. They were arrested and taken before Justice Abbott who fined them $30 or 15 days in jail. "They chose the jail, having more time than money. They registered as Mollie Mack, of Omaha, and Lottie Lee, of Des Moines. Deputy Sheriff Oberst-buck had quite a disagreeable task in taking them down to jail, and finally had to get assistance, the wenches being very loud and disorderly. Mollie Mack will be remembered as having gained some notoriety as a amazon about a year ago, and having won for herself the appellation of "the yellin' girl from Tennessee." It is more economical to buy BURKE'S SALAD DRESSING than it is to make a dressing; besides this it is made of better materials than you can buy at the store. Everybody likes it. Dr. Slada's Lecture Dr. Henry Slada, of New York city, the most wonderful medium in the world, will lecture at Bloom & Nixon's hall next Sunday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock and in the evening at 7:30 o'clock, on which occasions he will (together with other demonstrations) give a history of the investigations of the great English and German scientists. Tickets on sale at Bashnell & Brackett's. Tickets admitting to both lectures, fifty cents. Doing a Great Deal of Good. Mr. J. Henry of Postland, Md., writes: "Your HENRY'S GARBOLIC SALVE is doing a great deal of good. Some of my friends have been greatly benefited by its use. I think it is the best salve I have ever used. Beware of counterfeits." Disolution. The firm of Sheppard & Ward have this day, April 12th, dissolved partnership by mutual consent, S. S. Sheppard retiring. J. H. Ward continues at the old stand, No. 121 S. 3rd Main street, and will settle all accounts. ap12-2t. A friend to the rich and poor. A medicine that strengthens and heals, is Brown's Iron Bitters. The Jubilee Singers. One of the richest and most truly enjoyable entertainments is promised at Dohany's on Tuesday evening, April 17. It is to be given by none other than the University Singers, of New Orleans, a double quartette of jubilee singers, who have already won a reputation equalled by few such organizations in the whole country. The company comes endorsed by such persons of national reputation as Henry Ward Beecher, the late Bishop

Our New Loan Improvement Co Investigation into the matter convinces us that one of the most equitable, reasonable and feasible plans of building houses is that proposed and in operation by the Mercantile Loan, Trust and Improvement company of this city. By investing in shares in this institution, which is backed by some of our best and most reliable business men, it becomes possible and comparatively easy for a man of moderate means to secure a comfortable home for himself and family. In taking a certain number of shares, at a certain monthly payment, in a few years a man can own a house of his own for about the same as he pays monthly for rent. We believe the Mercantile Loan and Trust company, by organizing and opening up for business, having filled a long felt want in Council Bluffs. Their plans and system of loans will bear the most careful scrutiny and examination, and we have no hesitancy in pronouncing them reasonable and equitable, and backed by gentlemen of honor and integrity. As the company exists it becomes at once an institution of value and credit to our city and those who desire homes. Their president is T. A. Kirkland, vice president, Judge Peake; secretary, J. R. Berry; treasurer, Col. Beebe, and their office is in the basement of Shugart's and McMahon's new block, corner First avenue and 5th street.
