The city council meets in adjourned session this evening.

The Macedonia are planning for improving and enlarging their cemetery grounds.

Remember the jubilee singers at Dohany's to-morrow evening. A rare musical treat is promised.

Few companies appear here so highly endorsed as the jubilee singers who are to be at Dohany's to-morrow evening.

Rev. A. H. Rhodes, of Malvern, occupied the Baptist pulpit here yesterday, and gave two excellent sermons.

The students of Tabor college are to have a chance to see and hear Rev. Joseph Cook on the evening of the 10th of May.

Dr. Slade lectured here yesterday and succeeded in interesting many, even if he did not convince them all to his peculiar belief.

The competitive examination of applicants for the cadet appointment to Annapolis commences to-morrow at the Bloomer school building.

Wanted, a good trimmer in a millinery store. Good pay. Good references required. Address A. R., Box office, Council Bluffs.

Theodore Bray has sold his fine dapple gray team, recently purchased by him in Missouri, to J. P. Goulden, the consideration being $500.

S. D. Street, clerk of the court, met with a slight accident Saturday, being thrown from a buggy, but fortunately receiving only slight bruises and bumps.

E. Bernhorn, the jeweler, has purchased the residence of B. Thurman, on Sixth avenue. The latter expects to remove with his family still further west in a month or two.

The wild whirl of wind Saturday night caused a havoc among the signs and awnings, boxes and barrels. Several signs were blown down to the risk of passers along the streets.

The beats of the police force were changed somewhat yesterday. Officers Brooks and Casick now go on day duty. Officer Barbyth takes Central Broadway, Sterling Middle Broadway, and Clough, West Broadway.

Those of our citizens who have been taking claims in Dakota have been stirred up by the tidings which come from Constable Fox, who is there, and who says that most of the claims of parties here, which have not been improved, have been "jumped."

Call at Harkness Brothers for the elegant new summer dress goods in cashmere, silks, etc.

All kinds of Singing Birds, and Bird Cages, at Brackett's.

List the milliners attend the auction sale of Mrs. Booth's to-night.

The Bonnet of Jubilee, The New Orleans university jubilee singers who are to appear at Dohany's to-morrow evening have won so much of a name and fame that little need be said to urge people to hear them.

Their quaint plantation songs, camp meeting and class meeting songs, their solos and choruses make up an entertainment which cannot but be a treat. There is no music which touches the heart and moves the sympathies more effectively than that given by these colored vocalists.

Everybody says Brackett has the best Baby Carriages in the city for the least money. Over thirty different styles to select from.

Lost His Grip. Rev. Thomas J. Mahar, who has had charge in the dioceses of Denver, Chicago and Milwaukee and who is well known in this part of the country also, came in on the Sioux City and Pacific the other day. He had the misfortune to lose, or have stolen, his valise, which contained valuable papers and clothing. He has sought the help of some of the officials here in the search for his valise, but so far in vain.

Useless Fright. To worry about any Liver, Kidney or Urinary Trouble, especially Bright's Disease or Diabetes, as Hop Bitters never fails to cure where a cure is possible. We know this.

Ladies of Council Bluffs, be at Mrs. Booth's auction to-night for bargains.

Wanted For Embezzlement. The officers, in response to telegraphic instructions from Louis Adler of Chicago, have arrested here a young man named J. P. Connelly, who is wanted for the embezzlement of about $200. The young man now lies in jail here awaiting the arrival of Chicago parties. He appears to be quite penitent, and says that his folks live in Philadelphia and are not beset with much wealth. He was traveling on the road, but got discouraged at the small sales and big expenses and was ashamed to return to Chicago. He has about $130 with him, and hopes to be able to clear up the matter in some way so as to relieve him of the grave charge.

For Coughs and Throat Disorders use Brown's BRONCHIAL TROUSERS. Have never changed my mind respecting them from the first, except I think yet better of that which I began by thinking well of.—Rev. Henry Ward Beecher. Sold only in box prices, 25 cents.

THE NEW NORTHERN.

The Ida County Committee Report Enthusiastically in Its Favor.

The committee appointed at an enthusiastic meeting of citizens of Ida county to consider the project of the new Council Bluffs and Northern railroad have reported as follows: GENTLEMEN:—Your committee, appointed to visit Council Bluffs on railroad business, has discharged that duty, and beg leave to submit the following report:

A company has been organized, and articles of incorporation filed, to construct the Council Bluffs & Northern railroad. Two or three weeks will complete all the preliminary work of trial surveys, locating the road, etc.

The object of the road is to open up and develop the most productive section of northwestern Iowa, as a feeder to Council Bluffs. J. W. Chapman, president, and J. J. Brown, manager, both of acknowledged ability, will start out on a prospecting tour in a few days, when we propose to show them the finest and most wide awake city of its years in the northwest, surrounded by the richest agricultural district on the Missouri slope, and, as Mr. Pusey, congressman-elect, says, in the rich corn belt of the west.

Your committee gave such evidence as it had at hand, outside of actual surveys, that our county and city are accessible on the south by a railroad, not only by the soldier but by other routes, which we propose showing the engineer corps when it arrives. Preliminary surveys will be made at once, and the cheapest road bed, developing the greatest feeder to Council Bluffs (all other things being equal), will be adopted.

With such men to the front as John T. Stewart, E. L. Shugart, J. J. Brown, J. M. Palmer, J. W. Chapman, Mr. Dodge, Samuel Haas, J. T. Hart, W. C. James, Mr. Coffin, Judge Larimer, Thos. Bowman, Alex. Wood and Mr. Pusey, there can be no failure. The rapid and substantial growth of Council Bluffs, under the shadow of a mighty rival, such as Omaha, is an evidence of their ability.

FRANK BURNS, J. KENNEDY.

More new carpets received at Harkness Brothers.

Everything in the way of Boys' Wagons, Velocipedes, Bicycles, etc., at Brackett's.

Dr. West, Dentist, 14 Pearl street.

Auction To-Night. Owing to falling health, my entire stock of millinery will be sold at public auction, the sale commencing at 7 o'clock to-night. Six new sewing machines will also be sold, and my large store room is for rent.

MRS. BOOTH, Middle Broadway.

Dr. Jeffersons elegant residence on Sixth avenue, for sale.

A friend to the rich and poor. A medicine that strengthens and heals, is Brown's Iron Bitters.

The Confidence Men. The decrees having gone forth that the confidence men who have been hanging about the city must leave at once, the next move is to enforce the order. One of the alleged crooks, D. H. White, has been arrested on the charge of vagrancy and put in jail. Two others, Dr. Bagge and George Bennett, were arrested Saturday and given ten hours in which to leave the city. They agreed to leave. In this mode of procedure results in clearing the town of the gang it will prove a blessing and ought to be kept up.

Do not fail to see the beautiful Rhams and Persian curtain goods just received at Harkness Brothers.

How Wind and Water Have Been Playing Sad Havoc.

The house of Mr. Zerringer in La Grange township was on Friday night lifted off its foundation by the wind, and badly wrecked, but none of the family were injured.

The heavy rain Friday night caused many cellars and excavations in this city to be flooded, and some had to be pumped out by the fire engines so as to allow business and building improvements to go on.

At Harlan the Friday night storm caused much damage, blowing off the chimneys from the court house, tearing some of the roofs blowing in some of the windows of the new school-house, unroofing some barns, turning over some small buildings, and blowing down the amphitheatre at the fair grounds.

At and about Peralta, Harrison county, there was much damage done Friday night. Cochrane's implement house was blown down, causing a heavy loss. Bay's picture gallery suffered a like fate. E. C. Campbell's house was moved several inches off its foundation, also a house belonging to Richard Blunders. It is also reported that a farmer named Edwards was killed by lightning.

Doing a Great Deal of Good. Mr. J. Berry, of Portland, Me., writes: Your HENRY'S CARBOLIC SALVE is doing a great deal of good. Some of my friends have been greatly benefited by its use. I think it is the best salve I have ever used. Beware of counterfeits.

Canon straw matting, rich velvet rug and mats, and elegant Smyrna rugs and carpets at Harkness Brothers.

Police Pickings. William Desmond was arrested Saturday evening to answer for participating in a beer garden disturbance the Sunday night before, and will have a hearing to-day.

John Trenton was given lodging in the calaboose over Sunday.

George Gray, plain drunk, was fined the usual amount Saturday.

J. McGinnis suffered a like fate for his boozing.

HASTE MAKES WASTE.

The Suspicious Attempt to Hurry Up the Abandonment of Union Avenue.

There seems to be a great deal of hurry on the part of the few who want the city to give the Union Pacific the right of way over Union avenue. The Nonpareil, which always speaks the will of the Union Pacific, and acts as its servant, fairly begs the city council not to delay in the matter, but decide at once. In so important a matter such haste as is urged is unseemly, especially when the proposal made seems to be largely in favor of the railroad company and so little to the advantage of the city. Time shall be taken to get at all the facts, and to understand the situation thoroughly. As has been already shown, the city, wanting a broad, direct and easy driveway to the transfer, spent money in stonoring it, buying the land and paying thousands of dollars in improving it. The city is called upon now to give this valuable property as a roadbed for the Union Pacific to run a dummy on, and what does the city gain in return? The convenience of having the dummy start from Broadway instead of the depot. Simply that, nothing more. Is this convenience worth the thousands of dollars it will cost?

There seems thus far no assurance that the dummy will make any more frequent trips or that the fare will be less. There seems no prospect of attracting any more people into the heart of Council Bluffs than now. Transients going through the city will run to Broadway and then back to the local depots or the transfer. But few more Omaha people will be induced to visit this city, or to make more frequent trips, because they could ride up to Broadway on a dummy train instead of a street car. There could be little saving in time unless the dummy was allowed to run at a faster speed than would be safe to run inside the city limits. In fact there has not yet been presented any very great advantages for the city, in proportion to the amount of money which the city has to virtually pay to secure whatever convenience might arise from the change.

Since so much opposition has developed against giving up Union avenue, there has been talk of giving the Union Pacific some other street. The principle is the same. Shall or can the city give up to railroads streets for which it has paid money, and on which it has spent money? Is it a good policy for the city to pursue? Is it just to the property owners whose property is thus depreciated or made valueless? With such grave questions and so much at stake, it looks suspicious indeed to see a few men trying to get the council to jump into the scheme they have laid, and to protest against time being spent in investigating the facts and thinking of the results. Let the matter be well considered, thoroughly discussed and calmly decided. Let the citizens be heard as well as railway officials and their servants.

It is more economical to buy BURK'S SALAD DRESSING than it is to make a dressing; besides this, it is made of better materials than you can buy at the stores. Everybody like it.

PERSONAL.

Lu Cakes took in the rendition of his drama at Clarinda, himself taking one of the characters, that of a hearty Dutch man, and showed that as a comedian as well as a skitster he has more than average gifts. The play is supposed to picture out the early history of Page county, and the proceeds of the entertainment went to the poor.

Mrs. Booth's health has become so impaired that she has decided to retire from business, as will be seen by advertisements in the Bee to-day, and commences to close out her stock at auction to-night and will rent her store.

Captain Russell, Sol Foster, M. Gallagher, as well as Judge Aylesworth, are in Dakota looking after their lands and expect to return in a few days.

George Madison, the cigar-maker, now smiles with a peculiar happiness, his home being gladdened by the advent of a girl baby.

Charles A. Croncy, of Clarinda, was a Council Bluffs worshiper on yesterday, and made his headquarters at the Pacific.

Fred Spetman, of Spetman brothers, has returned from the east where he has been purchasing more new goods for the trade.

Hon. J. Y. Stone, of Glenwood, accompanied by his ten year old son spent Saturday in the city.

W. L. Van Alstyne and N. F. Chamberlain, of San Francisco, were Sunday guests of the Ogden.

C. L. Roberts was here and in Omaha last week, looking after machinery for his elevator at Oakland.

J. P. Olmstead and J. D. Hartwell, of Grand Rapids, Mich., were at the Pacific yesterday.

C. H. Kimball, of Chicago, spent Sunday over the Ogden house roof.

J. L. Pierce, of Champaign, Ill., was at the Ogden yesterday.

J. H. Bilas, of Chicago, was among yesterday's Ogden house arrivals.

M. Goodman, of Des Moines, Sundayed at the Ogden.

T. C. McCracken, of Bismarck, arrived at the Ogden yesterday.

J. F. Bacon, of Milwaukee, spent Sunday in the city.

J. W. Bennett, of Cincinnati, is at the Pacific.

M. Schroeder, of Cincinnati, is at the Revere.
