SUBSCRIPTION RATES:
By Carrier, - - - - 50 cents per week.
By Mail, - - - - - $10.00 per Year.
Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near roadway.

MINOR MENTION.

—See Joseph Reiter's spring style.
—Additional local on seventh page.
The city calaboose was actually swept out yesterday.

Baker and Farron appeared at Doherty's last evening in the comedy of Chris and Lena.

You run no risk in buying goods at auction at 102 Main street. Every article exactly as represented, or money refunded.

COLLECTIONS.—Promptly attended to by Pottawattamie County Collection Agency. Front office, with N.
Schurz, over 419 Broadway.

At the Y. M. C. A. rooms this evening there is to be a mock trial, at which "Judge" Booth is announced to preside, and much fun is promised.

The juvenile band gave a very enjoyable social party and ball at Bloom & Nixon's hall last evening. These gatherings are always happy ones and well conducted.

The move to induce the railways to give Council Bluffs better local depots is a good one. The city certainly merits better buildings and more accommodations of that sort.

The confidence men have not all cleared the town, but they are keeping a little more steady than before notice was given that they would be swept out.

Officer Clough's boy was bitten in several places Wednesday evening, and quite severely, by a miserable whelp who dashed out at him as he was walking peacefully along the sidewalk.

Mrs. Annie Fredericks, of Minden township, was yesterday adjudged insane, and last evening was taken to Mt. Pleasant by Deputy Sheriff Clatterbuck. This is the second time that Mrs. Fredericks has had to be placed under treatment.

Attention is especially called to the card of Harkness Bros., which appears elsewhere. They are showing their usual enterprise, and their trade is not only large, but growing. It will pay purchasers in that line to inspect their stock and get their prices.

There was a pleasant social given last evening by the Congregational ladies at the residence of Mrs. Samuel Clinton, the entertaining committee being Mrs. Otis, Mrs. Van Brunt and Mrs. Nicholson.

The Council Bluffs Driving Park association is bent on having a big Fourth of July celebration here as well as a showing of speed. H. Elseman, J. T. Stewart, D. F. Erder, Thos. Bowman, and W. F. Sapp have the project well in hand.

—The Boston Tea store is the only one furnished by A. Louis with that chole sugar cured venison, which he has prepared, and of which mention is made elsewhere. It is the nicest thing in that line.

The fire department added another laurel and won fresh praise from citizens by the promptness with which they responded to the alarm caused by the burning of the Wabash carpenter shop. It was a long, hard run, but it was well done.

A Louis has prepared about 2,000 pounds of sugar cured venison, and it certainly is the nicest thing in that line we ever sampled. He certainly has struck it just right, and has already disposed of about all of it that he can spare to dealers. The meat which has attracted this effort will lead him another season to cure other varieties as well and in still larger quantities.

The Home for the Friendless is to receive another benefit Sunday afternoon by a lecture, to be given in Doherty's hall by Judge Paige, on "The Scientific Aspect of Spiritualism." The lecture is to commence at 3 o'clock, and the admission is to be 25 cents. As Mr. Doherty generally gives the use of the hall, all the proceeds will go directly to the worthy cause to be thus advanced.

The attempt to get the city to give up Union avenue to the Union Pacific seems to be weakening, and now that the people have got hold of the facts, the opposition to the scheme is almost solid. Many are desirous to have the Union Pacific run up to Broadway, but they don't like to pay such a heavy price. Let some more practical, tangible and equitable proposition be made, and then instead of trying to crowd some scheme through, let the citizens have time to consider and discuss it. Those who have urged the city to hastily throw away thousands of dollars worth of property, should take back seats or change their tactics.

The Citizen's bank yesterday had rolled in a new Diebold burglar-proof safe weighing 8,000 pounds. The weight on the floor at the octagon corner of the building strained the joists there to the utmost, and it was feared for a time that there would be damage done. The joists settled enough to make it impossible to open the doors leading into J. M. Palmer's office below and a young man who was at work there found himself a prisoner. He escaped by another exit rather than run the risk of having four tons come down on his head.

Justice Abbott and a jury of six yesterday listened to the case of Nick Backus versus James Wickham, which had been on trial before but on which the former jury had disagreed. This suit grew out of the case of the man who was hurt seriously by falling while at work on the First & Bradley building. The man was taken to Backus hotel, and this suit was to make Wickham pay the hotel bill, it being claimed that he guaranteed the payment, a claim which Wickham denies. It is also expected that the injured man will commence suit against Wickham for damages. It seems that the man was on the elevator and that by carelessness the horse used to run the elevator acted so as to cause the man to fall. In the trial of the suit for the board bill, J. W. Baird and John Lindt appeared for the plaintiff and Capt. Price for the defendant.

The lawn mower has already entered upon active duty in Baylis park.

How about base ball for the season of 1893? Let the boys be stirring themselves.

The Rescue hose company is preparing for a May pole party when the time comes.

A post mortem was held by Dr.
Ballinger in the case of Bill Clark, the colored man who died so suddenly.
It showed that congestion was the cause of death, the brain, lungs and liver being very badly affected, and the liver being enlarged to nearly twice its natural size, it weighing fully six and a half pounds. The remains were buried yesterday from Connell's undertaking establishment.

Among the marriage licenses appeared one yesterday leaving the solemn injunction, "Don't publish." The parties most concerned were David C. Hoyer and Miss Emma Coyner.
David is connected with the Globe and ought to have known that reporters don't keep things for the public, but now that Justice Schurz has tied the knot good and strong, the happy couple cannot but accept gracefully the many congratulations and well wishes which are theirs.

Do not fail to see the stock of CAR-PETS at Harkness' before purchasing.

riage Fund and Mutual Trust Associa-

PERSONAL.

W. J. Armstrong, New York's celebrated lecturer was yesterday a guest of Colonel L. W. Tully's. It would be a capital idea if arrangements could be made by which our citizens could be given the treat of hearing one of his lectures before he returns to the east. He left for Lincoln last evening.

M. A. Upton, recently appointed head book-keeper for the Iowa and Nebraska insurance company, has resigned that position in order to enter upon a still better one. He will be succeeded by J. W. Mc-Kenzie, formerly agent of the Chicago & Northwestern here.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Leonard, who have been in Macedonia for the past year, have returned to Council Bluffs with the intention of remaining here.

G. A. Tyson, a prominent restaurateur, of Avoca, came down yesterday on business and to look over the thriving metropolis of Pottawattamie.

Herbert Simmons, formerly of Quincy, Ill., and who is a nephew of F. M. (Cor-baley, has taken a position in the house of Rudd & Co. here.

J. M. Phillips, the well known Uncle John of boot and shoe fame, expects to seek rest and recuperation at Cherokee Springs.

C. M. Crippen the Neola hotel man, was among yesterday's welcome callers at The Bee office.

Joe Consigny, the irrepressible mayor Defiance, is in the city a guest of the Pacific house.

P. P. Mack, of Rochester, New York, is in the city on a visit to D. S. Mack, of the hotel house, who is a relative.

Charles Adolph, representing Latz & Lang, has returned from another of his successful business trips.

Mrs. W. C. Perkins, of Burlington, is visiting Mrs. Horace Everett and other old friends here.

Lena Kinkadee, of Knoxville, Iowa, was visible here yesterday.

F. E. Robinson, of Waterloo, Iowa, was in the Bluffs yesterday.

A. L. Walcott, of Detroit, Mich., was at the Ogden yesterday.

A. J. Tullock, of Leavenworth, Kan., arrived at the Ogden yesterday.

George A. Dickey, of Boston, is at the Ogden.

W. C. Erb has returned from an extensive visit to friends and relatives in the west.

R. T. Bryant now goes to Colorado for a two weeks' trip, mainly on business.

Judge Reed has gone to Carroll to hold court there, the term opening yesterday.

A. B. Keith, of the Denison Bulletin, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. McGrew, and Mrs. D.
A. Norris, of Neola, were in the city yesterday.

George Barr, wife and child, of Buffalo, are at the Pacific.

J. G. Wolf, of Atchison, Kan., was at the Pacific yesterday.

Ed. Mitchell, of St. Louis, was among yesterday's arrivals at the Pacific.

P. M. Pryor yesterday left for Chicago on a brief business trip.

New attractions in carpets at Harkness Brothers.

Mueller has not only the finest, but also the nicest and cheapest baby carriages in the city.

Elegant new curtain goods and curtain fixtures, window shades, etc., at Happy Wedding.

There was a happy little gathering at the residence of A. S. Clough yesterday afternoon, the occasion being the giving in marriage of M. A.
Clough's sister, Miss Carrie C. Harvey, to S. H. Walters. Rev. Mr. Hamilton, pastor of the Congregational church, performed the ceremony, which made the twins one, and if the wishes of friends are realized one will be brightly married and the other will be brightly married. They will go east on a short trip and will then settle in their home in Harlan, where the happy man is engaged in the drug business.

SEIZED BY THE STARS.

A Gang of Fellows Arrested as Tramps Have a Banquet in the Calaboose.

Other Matters Which Claimed the Attention of the Authorities.

Judge Aylesworth's court yesterday morning was well thronged, there being inside the rail, besides attorneys and officials eleven husky young fellows who had been arrested as vagrants, while outside the rail was an unusually large audience of sight seekers. The judge interviewed the eleven accused, one by one, inquiring where they came from, how they got there and whether they were bound.
It appears they came from all points, but changed to be together on an incoming freight train on the Kansas City road, and were sleeper the box cars when arrested. Their stories varied in many details but agreed in this, that they were all hunting work, and being short of funds were traveling as economical as possible. Their statements led to the conclusion that it is not an unusual thing for broke men on freight trains to give some of this class of travelers a chance to ride in a boxcar, for a mere pittance, a quarter or a half a dollar, which amount it is naturally supposed goes into the pocket, rather than into the company's vaults. These fellows are thus slipped into a boxcar when the conductor is not looking, and the door is locked.
There is a natural query arises from this state of facts, and that is, how would it be in case of an accident, by which one or more of these men should be hurt? What would be the company's liability in such a case, its own employees having been parties to this peculiar mode of carrying human live stock? The court had no occasion to pass upon this question, however.
The eleven men gave their names and hailing places as follows: Mike Sullivan, Kansas; Thomas Young, Wisconsin; M. McGettrich, Vermont; John Palming, Missouri; Wm. Wilson, Illinois; James McCabe, Massachusetts; John Stephen, New York; S. Stewart, Missouri; M. Myers, Denver, Colo.; Ed. Madden, Ohio. Most of them had no money. The liberated landholder of the party having $3, while the smallest capitalist had a dime.
One of the party, a Vermontor, claimed to have had between $200 and $300 about three weeks ago, but penitently confessed to having spent it in riotous living. The court concluded that they were men hunting for work and that the fact of their peculiar method of traveling was not sufficient to cause conviction as vagrants. Rev. Mr. Fisk, who has practiced at the bar and who was formerly district attorney at New Orleans appeared in their behalf, and argued to the same effect. His clients were accordingly discharged, and as they had not had their breakfast, the court ordered that they be fed. They gratefully applauded him, and gave the judge an encore, after which they retired to the calaboose, where they indulged in a banquet consisting of beef, bread and coffee, served with tin plates and cups, with fingers for forks and newspapers for napkins, and after finishing their meal started off in high glee.

There were two drunks disposed of in police court yesterday. One was Charles Robertson, who settled by $2.50 in cash and $7 in work. The other was B. McNamee, who had to settle all by work.

Thomas O'Leary, who, while drunk, fell down some stairs at Lower's hatch-way, so badly injured that it seemed crucial to punish him further for his crime, and the court accordingly discharged him. Dr. Bellinger attended to his dislocated shoulder and put him in as comfortable condition as possible.

A. T. Wallace, the young man who stands on the street corner and sells the unwary a little bit of soap for fifty cents with the tempting prospect of drawing an elegant gold watch or some other big prize, was yesterday in court. He showed that he had a license for the city and the court held that this debarred the city from prosecuting him. Of course he could be brought up under the state law forbidding such schemes, but that was not this case. It seems that the city fathers, in framing the present license ordinance, had an eye out for making every kind of business contribute to the finances of the city, without so much regard as to whether the business was otherwise helpful or hurtful to the morals and prosperity of the city.

Our New Loan and improvement Co. investigation into the matter convinces us that one of the most equitable, reasonable and feasible plans of building houses is that proposed and in operation by the Mercantile Loan, Trust and Improvement company of this city. By investing in shares in this institution, which is backed by some of our best and most reliable business men, it becomes possible and comparatively easy for a man of moderate means to secure a comfortable home for himself and family. In taking a certain number of shares, at a certain monthly payment, in a few years a man can own a house of his own for about the same as he pays monthly for rent. We believe the Mercantile Loan and Trust company, by organizing and opening up for business, having filled a long felt want in Council Bluffs. Their plan and system of loans will bear the most careful scrutiny and examination, and we have no hesitancy in pronouncing them reasonable and equitable, and backed by gentlemen of honor and integrity. As the company exists it becomes at once an institution of value and credit to our
