Spec'al Dispatch to THE HEE London cablegram says: Sensational pated in the cabinet council held on as have been recent revelations, I understand revelations of even more sensational character are in store and the authorities auticipate confidently that disclosures will be made which will justify them in preferring formal request for O'Donovan Rossa Very strong evidence, it is declared, will be forthcoming involving O D movan in the commission of overt sore, such as will bring him under the operation of the recognized law of extradition. This much I am in position to say. Nothing beyond what is clearly warranted by law, as it now stands, will be sought or expected by the British government. One source of confidence of the authorities may be hinted at. Lynch is not the only informer whose budget of information has been placed at their command; indeed, before he appeared upon the scene at all there i been treachery in the camp of the conspirators and it was owing to information received that he and others were arrested.

It is stated that the divisional magistrate of the Dublin metropolitan police will open an inquiry to-morrow, touching the murders in Dublin during the past year of persons who have been arrested for crime and then turned informers. It is believed that Eugene Kingston, the man arrested in Liverpool, is incriminated in these morders. His case will be among those examined.

Twenty persons have been arrested in the town of Milltown, County Ciare, on the charge of conspiracy to murder landlords' agents and officials.
Two of the prisoners turned informers.

The hearing in the cases of Carmody Morgan, O'Herlihy and Featherstone, arrested in Cork some days ago on the charge of being engaged in a dynanite conspiracy, continued Saturday. It was proved that two documents found on Deasy, one of the men arrested at Liverpool, for bringing ex-plosives and infernal machines into England, ordering acids in the name of O'Herlihy, at Glasgow, were in the writing of Featherstone. It also dis-closes that the name of Featherstone ts an alias.
