THE OLD GRAND CENTRAL.

Its Ghost Bobs Up Serency Once More.

The celebrated Omaha hotel cis was decided Tuesday by the sup eme intendent Morford, the heavy rain court of the United States in favor of the defendants in the supersedenbond autt.

The general outline of the care is thus given by one of the attorneys therein:

Creighton, Koun'ze and others some years ago commonced a foreclosure suit in the United States cir. wrecking the former and demolishing cuit court against the Omaha hotel company, who built the Grand Cantral hotel. The suit was for money loaned, the amount being $100,000 and interest, and in 1875 a decree was obtained by the plaintiffs for principal and interest, amounting in all to $185,000. The property was sold under forecinsure, and brought only $120,000 leaving a defelorer.

Wanted-O egood set ble man to c.nva s an isel goods. Etealy employment Call 407-25 sold under foreclusure, and brought amounting, with interest, to about $80,000, which included the rents and profits.

The hotel company, which included Caldwell, Hamilton, Barker, Pratt, Redick and others, took an appea from the decree and filed a supersedeas bond in the sum of $50 000. The decision of the circuit court was affirmed by the United States supreme court, and thereupon suit was brought by Creighton, Kountze and others upon the supersedeas bond. claiming a ferfeiture of the bond and interest, which would amount to about $80,000. At the January term, 1879 of the United States circuit court for Nebraska at Lincoln, this case was tried by jury, who rendered a special verdict, whereupon the judge entered judgment against the defendants for about $20,000

Creighton, Kountze and others then tock the case on a writ of error to the United States supreme court, and Caldwell, Hamilton and others, do fendants, took a cross bill. This case came up for trial in the supreme cours in April last, and on Monday the court reversed the judgment of the circuit court of Nebrasks, and directed a mandate to go back to that court ordering the judge to enter judgment poses of the long litigation.

The question involved in the write of error was one of very great importance. It was the construction of the 29th rule lu equity, and the decision was looked for by lawyers everwhere with great interest, as there never was a direct decision rendered by the supreme court upon a supersedeas or penal bond before. This relieves Caldwell, Hamilton and others of an alleged liability of over $80 000, and permits them to retain the money collected for rents and profits during the appeal, amounting to about $25 (00) which is included in the $80,000.
