LOCAL BREVITIES.

-A very curious and suspicious circumstance was witnessed about 2 o'clock Sunday morning near the corner of Farnam and Thirteenth street. A BEE employe passing that way saw a man come up Thirteenth street with a ladder. Thinking it a funny time of night to be lugging around place for gambling were sent up ten a ladder, he watched the man, who turned days each on bread and water. east on Farnam, glancing up at the stores as he went along. At Gen. Frederick's hat store the man stopped, set his ladder, and coolly climbed up to the second story window, raised it and disappeared inside. A few moments later the BEE man return. ing the same way, saw the ladder lying on the sidewalk as if its mission was accomplished. Who the man was or what Saturiay. his business was, no one has thus far explained.

- Quite a delegation of our German citizens are returning to the old country this year. Among those who have left most recent'y are Peter Goos, who started Sat urdsy; Henry Eicke, Chas. Bancker, of The Post-Telegraph, and Hon. Henry Bolln. Mr. Eicke is commissioner from Nebraska to the London exposition. The latter three gentlemen left on Sunday and all will meet in Chicago and proceed together to New York, where they will take the steamer "Westphalia" which salls Thursday.

- For several days past Mrs. Hertaman, wife of Dr. J. F. L. D. Herteman, has shown unmistakable signs of insanity.
