LOCAL BREVITIES. -Boys, look out for the prizes next week in the bowling alley at the Paxton house. -It is perfectly wonderful, the manner in which the hotels are crowded nowadays. The Paxton is doing a rushing business and its office at night looks like a huge refrigerator. -The storm continued last night with unabated fury.

-A large party of C. A N' W. and a union depot at an early day.

-The firemen's May party comes off at and P. J. Farnsworth, of Clinton. Masonic hall, May 24th. The boys hope to raise the necessary funds in this way to fix up their apparatus for participation in the S ptember tournament at Lincoln.

-The Nebraska and Iowa Insurance Co., has filed amended articles of incorporation in the county clerk's office. The changes relate to the holding of business meetings by the board of directors and to the time and manner f electing directors.

-The storm of To day and yesterday stopped the intertainment promised by the Cody and Carver combination. The street parade was abandoned and posters will naturally bring together a much put out announcing the postponement of the show. It is hardly possible that the bad weather will hold out all week but in case it should there is some talk of cancelling the Das Moines engagement, though this is not yet agreed upon. In fact it is heped Friday and Saturday may prove -In the police court yesterday three victims of budge were sent up for three days each and another paid his fine. Mike Gilligan was arrested for creating a disturbance at Crounse's hall last night. He wanted to get in to the call in progress there, and in the attempt to eject him a orw ensued.

-Plenty of fresh Fish at Motz & Rosen-

DEATH AND DESTRUCTION

A Rumored Lyclone at Valparaiso. Nebraska

The storm which prevailed all day yesterday cuiminated in the evening carin that peculiar appearance of the sky which betokens a storm.

Heavy clouds arose on all sides of the horizon, and in the south rolled up so black and threatening as to indicate that the atmospheric dissuing year: B. Rosewater, president; Ed. turbance was doing something more than brooding.

ACCIDENTAL FRATICIDE.

Fatal Snooting in the Outskirts of the City.

At a late hour last evening Coroner Jacobs was notified of a tragedy which occurred early Wednesdoy morning in the outskirts of the city.

Jacob Shipporeit, a farmer who lives on the Cornelius farm, just below town, came into the city and informed him of the facts, which were substantially as follows:

has been annoyed conriderably by ise of being a very pretty little girl tramps, and procured a revolver, which he kept under his pillow. Wednesday morning he got up quite early and started to town, leaving the weapon behind him. He had two boys, one aged six and one thirteen years. The eldest arose first, and finding the pistol under his father's pillow, began examining it and while he was doing so his brother came up. In some way the revolver was accidentally discharged and the younger boy was struck by the ball, which penetrated his abdomen. Dr. Grossman was summoued and fortunate boy, but he expired at 1 p. m. yesterday. Coroner Jacobs did not, last night, deem it necessary to hold an inquest as the facts in the case were plain. Mr. S. feels terribly over the matter, and takes all the blame for the

THE RAILWAY WAIF. The Baby that Was Found in the U

P Depot.

Resders of THE BEE will remember the baby which was abaudoned by its mother at the U. P. depot last winter, and was taken in chargo by Officer Hinchey of the police force. This officer took the little waif home and kept it in good shape, his wife nursing it with her own baby, about the same age. Although several parties were anxious to adopt the child, the folks were afraid to let it go while unweaned, and were too much attached to it to give it up unless to a first-class party.

According to the note sent THE BEE from the mother of the child it is a year old this month. It now crawls about and is heaithy and hearty. Its For some time past Mr. Shipporeit features are delicate and it gives prom-It is the intention of Mr. Hinchey as soon as it can be weaned or safely taken care of by others, to allow some responsible parties who can assure it s good, permanent home, to adopt it, but he will be very careful to whose care it is committed.
