FROM MANUFACTURER TO CONSUMER DIRECT WITHOUT ANY INTERMEDIATE PROFIT.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The announcement made by us one week ago, created, as we supposed it would, and intended it should, a profound sensation in business and social circles.

Realizing the unusual effort that we had put forth to bring within the reach of the people of Nebraska the best values that they had ever known, we anticipated a corresponding return, for never before in their establishment has there been so much labor as was put into the two weeks previous to and in preparation for this sale. We never had any doubt the result. We knew it would be a and would be the largest and most important sale of dry goods that we had ever attempted and carried through. But we are free to confess that our most sanguine expectations have been literally dwarfed into insignificance by the stupendous results and almost incredible figure which our business for the past week has realized. We venture to assert that no house west of the great cities has ever, under the most favorable circumstances, sold the amount of goods at retail that were purchased at our establishment last week.

For the second week, beginning Monday, we propose to continue the excitement, and we offer for your perusal a list of bargains in all departments, which no house in this country can match or approach. A great many lots which we offered last week have been sold, but we have drawn from

OUR RESERVE STOCK other lots, equally cheap and desirable, to fill their places. We shall present in every department an unbroken line of great inducements and attractions. We shall open on Monday several lots of goods that are really remarkable bargains, and these goods will be offered very cheap.

Timely Suggestions

AND

RULES OF THE SALE.

As the rush for these goods will be entirely without precedent, we would consider it a personal favor if all who can make it convenient to do so, will come between 8 and 10 o'clock a. m., so to divide, as far as possible, the business through the day. This suggestion is of the utmost importance. Please heed it, all who can.

We have engaged a large extra force of salesmen and have made every provision human forethought can suggest, but ask, in advance, public indulgence for any annoyances that may arise.

We have instituted and carried through successfully a great many large and important sales, but have never attempted anything of gigantic proportions, or one which is fraught with so many benefits to the public.

The following are a few rules which we found necessary to adopt during the sale, and we think it best to mention them as they are directly contrary to our usual custom.

Remember, however, that they will only hold during the sale, and are only adopted in the interests of the public to facilitate business.

First—Be careful in making your purchases as no exchanges will be allowed.

Second—No allowance will be made on any kind of goods. No Samples will be cut over the counter, we should, of course, be most happy to send them by mail when requested, but to secure goods our patrons at a distance ought to have some resident in Omaha to make a selection or rely on us to do so.

As our shipping department will be tried to its utmost capacity, and although we shall make every effort to deliver on time, we would respectfully request that customers will take small parcels themselves.
