COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Wednesday Morning, May 23.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:
By Carrier, 25 cents per week.
By Mail, $10.00 per year.
Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

READY FOR BUSINESS.

An Announcement of Special Interest to Those Whoing Fine Job Work.

P. M. Pryor has opened in connection with the Bee office in Council Bluffs, a complete job printing establishment, and is now prepared to fill orders in that line promptly and satisfactorily. All of the presses and material are entirely new, and the selection has been made with great care, it being the intention to make a specialty of commercial printing, giving the latest styles and as fine workmanship as can be had anywhere in this part of the land. Satisfaction is guaranteed, both in quality of make and in prices. Mr. Pryor has for two years been connected with S. T. Walker & Co., of this city, and has already won a reputation here on nice work. Call and examine the material and facilities and learn prices.

MINOR MENTION.

—See Joseph Reiter's spring styles.
—Additional local on seventh page.

The Herdies were out yesterday morning to the races.

No suicides yesterday. The coroner had an easy time of it.

Ford's comic opera company is to give two entertainments here this week.

A mule team tried to get up a runaway yesterday near the Ogden, but failed.

The jury, in the case of Colman Smith, found him guilty of assault with intent to do great bodily injury.

The strawberry festival and quadrille party, given by the Catholic ladies last evening, proved a success and was highly enjoyable.

The ladies of the Central Methodist church gave a strawberry festival last evening at the residence of Rev. B. F. Breese.

Arrangement have been concluded by which Ben Hogan, the reformed pugilist, will conduct a series of meetings in this city.

Six million pounds of cured meat have been shipped from Stewart Bros' packing house this season. The business is now closed until next fall.

Dr. Patten's family horse got frightened at something on Hancock street yesterday, and made a wild dash, succeeding in smashing the buggy badly.

Dr. Poulson desires the person who borrowed his photograph of "Kraus" to return the same at once, as he has frequent calls from those desiring to see it.

The suit brought against Wickham by the man injured by a fall at the Bradley building has been compromised, the man receiving $100 in full of damages.

Yesterday Mr. J. Mueller received the news by cable of the death of his dear old mother in Germany. Out of respect for her memory his store was closed all day.

The juvenile band was sent over to Omaha yesterday morning to call attention by their music there, to the fact that Council Bluffs has this week the finest races in the west.

Yesterday evening a farmer from Honey Creek sold his salt before he intended to. A barrel of it fell from his wagon on Main street, and was thoroughly scattered.

Harkness Brothers are always alive, seeking for attractions. Yesterday they displayed in their store window a handsome lithograph of the new Brooklyn suspension bridge to be opened to the public to-morrow.

M. B. Brown, manager of the Western Union telegraph company, in this city, thinks the telegraph business is more profitable compared to managing the eight pounds of masculinity that arrived at his house.

Capt. J. W. Morse, John Duff, M. McFadden, C. F. Opitz, Jack White, L. Darrell and Ed Bates have been appointed special policemen during the races by Mayor Bowman, who is always on the lookout for the interests of the city.

Pat Ratigan, who was tried on the charge of murder, and convicted of assault with intent to commit great bodily injury, was sentenced yesterday by Judge Reed to serve 150 days in jail or pay a fine of $500. Mr. Ratigan congratulated himself on getting off so easily, as he is abundantly able to pay the fine.

Yesterday Dr. McKnight, of Earl- ington, came to the Bluffs accompanied by H. W. Moser, of the same place, to consult with Dr. Bollinger in reference to an injury of the knee received by Mr. Moser some fourteen years ago. The two M. D.'s performed an operation, and Mr. Moser went home with two straight legs, which was one better than when he came.

A joke was perpetrated on a party from this city who went to the lake, south of here, on a fishing excursion. While they were intently watching their bobbing cork, some one changed the front wheels to the hind axle, and vice versa. The change was not discovered until yesterday, when some one asked the owner of the buggy if he didn't have the horse hitched to the wrong end of the buggy.

For bargains in Lamps, Glassware, Crockery, etc., go to 23 Main street, M. S. Homer.

CALLED INTO COURT.

Some of the Charges Brought Against Innocent Citizens.

Fred Heinrichs was yesterday arrested on complaint of J. W. Gnodderly, charged with malicious trespass. It is claimed that Heinrichs went onto Gnodderly's land and cut off about $75 worth of timber. Heinrichs appeared before Justice Abbott and gave bail in the sum of $150 for his appearance at some future date.

A NEIGHBORHOOD ROW.

There seems to have been much war among some of the residents of Lincoln avenue, and as a result, Mary Frey has entered complaint before Justice Abbott against Lem Partridge, Mrs. Partridge, Lillie and Mary Partridge—in fact, a regular covey of Partridges; for she says they pounced upon her and assaulted and battered her. She also charges them with starting a riot. Another complaint is made against some of the Partridges by Henry Hess, who says they trampled down his cabbage and cucumbers, and, in fact, gave him tongue sauce for garden sauce.

AN EVEN HALF-DOZEN.

Six men were arrested for sleeping in freight cars, and brought into the police court yesterday morning, charged with vagrancy. None of them had any money, but each of them had a knife, and two had razors. They appeared to be anxious to get work, and on promising to do so were allowed to go in peace. They gave their names as George Sullivan, Tom Miller, John Clark, J. C. Brinnan, Wm. Barrett and John Clark.

Information was filed against Wm. Langdon, a painter, charging him with petit larceny. Langdon pleaded not guilty and was tried before Justice Vaughan. Langdon's partner claimed that he had collected money due the firm, and instead of dividing it, had misappropriated it to his own use. He was discharged because the evidence failed to show he was guilty of the charge.

For the finest line of summer suitings call and examine the stock of Nugent & Smith, at 7 and 9 Main street.

Homer, the China-man, 23 Main st.

The New Hospital.

The work of securing funds as a substantial and practical basis for the new city hospital has begun in earnest, and already $1,500 has been subscribed. Several times that amount is needed, however, and it is to be hoped that the giving may be even more generous and general. Some think that the city and the railways should aid. They surely ought to, and doubtless will, but one of the surest and quickest ways to secure this aid is for leading citizens to show by their own private subscriptions that they believe in the enterprise themselves and are willing to help it along. Thus far a number of leading citizens have become interested and when there are enough they shall then hold a meeting and take steps to secure the extra aid needed. The city surely needs such a hospital as is contemplated, and needs it badly. Let the enterprise have a hold on the hearts and personal pocketbooks of the people at large and it will surely succeed and get public help and encouragement as well.

Dr. West, Dentist, 14 Pearl street.

Ben Hogan.

The converted fire-fighter is holding meetings in Council Bluffs at the Broadway M. E. church. His audiences are only limited by the size of the house where his meetings are held. Large numbers of the sporting fraternity attend and listen with apparent interest to the experience of their old comrade. His long service in the cause, now some five years, gives promise that he will continue steadfast in the Christian work in which he is engaged. He has been instrumental in saving hundreds of drunkards from the snare of the intoxicating cup where he has spoken, and many of these are flocking to his meetings. If he can accomplish this, all should bid him God speed in his philanthropic work. The council over the country, where he has done evangelistic work, is speaking favorably of his manly course in his late trouble, and his old friends give him a warm welcome.

We understand that when his work is done at the Bluffs he will go to Omaha and spend a few days, and meet his converts. There is great inquiry there for the time of his coming, and he will meet the same welcome that was accorded him in his previous visit.

Kelley & Grow have removed their intelligence office to the corner of Broadway and Hancock streets, next door to J. W. Laing's.

PERSONAL.

Mr. C. O. Fitch, who went from here as a delegate to the twenty-fifth annual international convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of the United States and British provinces, held at Milwaukee, Wis., commencing May 16th, reached home this morning. He is filled with enthusiasm at the work of the association. He left at the Bee office a full report of the meeting, for which he will receive thanks.

Among the heavy weights now in the city are Mr. Althof, of the Burlington wine and liquor house of Prenzler & Althof, and C. N. Griswold, representing W. P. Locke, the hop dealer, of Waterville, N. Y. The former weighs 292 pounds and the latter 300 pounds, a pretty pair of cherubs.

M. J. Davenport, formerly of this city, but at present division freight agent of the C. B. & Q. road, was here from Burlington, shaking hands with his old acquaintances. He was accompanied by J. D. Hardin, of Chardon, general stock agent of the same road.

U. C. Blake and C. P. Mortel, of Cedar Rapids, arrived here yesterday to attend the races. Mr. Blake is president of the Cedar Rapids association, and also a member of the board of appeals, while Mr. Mortel is also an officer of the Cedar Rapids association.

A. S. Vankausa, J. A. McMillan, W. H. Burns, S. T. Woodbridge, N. J. Jackson and L. F. Wilbur were among the Omaha folks who took in the bill of fare at the Ogden before taking in the races yesterday.

Mr. Wm. Reckless and Miss Jennie Reckless left the city for their eastern home last evening. They have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Reckless and other friends here.

Tom Brennan came down from Sioux City yesterday to renew old acquaintances and take in the races. The Bluffs was Tom's stomping ground for a long time.

A. R. Souer, formerly business manager of THE OMAHA BEE Publishing company, visited Council Bluffs yesterday. Mr. Souer made a very successful manager.

F. G. Eason, of Chicago, a returned missionary, was at the Ogden yesterday. He looked over Billy Smith and concluded not to convert him just yet.

Mrs. L. Kuttner, of Des Moines, wife of one of the leading dry goods men of that city, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Friedman.

J. H. Cloughly, of Audubon, Ia., and D. S. Archer, of the same place, were in the city, and accepted the accommodations of the Pacific.

M. T. Davis, attorney, from Malvern, was one of the visitors to the city yesterday whose name appeared on the list at the Pacific.

H. J. Chambers came in from Avoca yesterday to try a case before the honor Judge Reed, and made his headquarters at the Pacific.

T. P. Hobart and S. Burgess, well known business men of D. Vance, Ia., registered at the Pacific yesterday.

Geo. L. Tapham, the city talker from Chicago, told about the oil house he represented yesterday, at the Ogden.

D. N. Hann has returned to the city and is looking around to find the men who want to go to San Francisco.

J. N. K. Hill, late of The Red Oak Express, was in the city yesterday and favored the Bee with a call.

W. W. Cook travels for a Chicago house, but he never travels from the Ogden until business calls him.

Miss Ida and Mattie Sharp, of Omaha, are in the city visiting Miss Cora Keeline and other friends.

S. A. Lockwood, who sells iron for a Chicago house took his meals at the Pacific while in the city.

H. L. Wallace, of Boone, Iowa, asked the honor of bed and board at the Ogden yesterday.

W. D. Emmell, roamed from Romeo, Mich., and put up at the Pacific yesterday.

E. Paine and J. H. McShane, of Omaha, dined at the Pacific yesterday.

Chas. P. Benson, of Chicago, stopped at the Pacific yesterday.

D. R. Miller, of St. Louis, was among the guests of the Pacific.

R. R. Hays, of Chicago, registered at the Ogden.

Our New Loan and Improvement Co. Investigation into the matter convinces us that one of the most equitable, reasonable and feasible plans of building houses is that proposed and in operation by the Mercantile Loan, Trust and Improvement company of this city. By investing in shares in this institution, which is backed by some of our best and most reliable business men, it becomes possible and comparatively easy for a man of moderate means to secure a comfortable home for himself and family. In taking a certain number of shares, at a certain monthly payment, in a few years a man can own a house of his own for about the same as he pays monthly for rent. We believe the Mercantile Loan and Trust company, by organizing and opening up for business, having filled a long felt want in Council Bluffs. Their plans and system of loans will bear the most careful scrutiny and examination, and we have no hesitancy in pronouncing them reasonable and equitable, and backed by gentlemen of honor and integrity. As the company exists it becomes at once an institution of value and credit to our city and those who desire homes. Their president is T. A. Kirkland, vice president, Judge Peake; secretary, I. R. Beery; treasurer, Col. Beebe, and their office is in the basement of Shugart's and McMahon's new block, corner First avenue and Pearl street. jan27-1y
