

The Daily Bee. COUNCIL BLUFFS. Friday Morning, May 25. SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier, 10 cents per week. 7 Mail, $1.00 per year. Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

READY FOR BUSINESS. An announcement of Special Interest to Those Wishing Fine Job Work.

P. M. Pryor has opened in connection with THE BEE office in Council Bluffs, a complete job printing establishment, and is now prepared to fill orders in that line promptly and satisfactorily.

MINOR MENTION. See Joseph Reiter's spring styles. Additional local on seventh page.

By all means take in the races today. The last day of the races. Much sport is promised.

A large portion of Ford's opera company stopped at Kiel's hotel.

M. W. Raymond now rejoices as the father of a bright girl baby ought to.

Bliss' opening proved a great success, and drew a crowd of admiring ladies.

The Pacific and Ogden houses are both so rushed as to demand new registers.

Ford's comic opera company gave its second entertainment here last evening.

That hundred dollar coffee urn of granite ware that A. Louis received yesterday is a beauty.

The Bavarian band goes to Minden this evening to furnish music for a dance there.

The Mænechor society will give one of their popular dances in Dohany's hall to-morrow night.

J. D. Iler, of Omaha, was over here yesterday, with a party of friends and a four-in-hand team and carriage.

The foundations have been laid for the new city jail, and the work is now ready for the laying of the water-tables.

The juvenile band never played better than they have during the past few days on the streets and at the track.

Ben Hogan continues the good fight against the devil, and is drawing crowds to hear him, and some every evening arise for prayers.

Yesterday the time of the district court was occupied with the replevin case of Gates vs. McFadden, which was given to the jury just before the court adjourned.

The county clerk has issued his official permit to Ed. Johnson and Ida McKay, both of Atlantic, and Jacob Kohner and Barbara Raggett, a Swiss couple, of Boomer township, in this county.

One solitary drunk, and he an Indian, was disposed of in the police court yesterday. He gave his name as John Slacey, and was let off just the same as a white man, with a $5.00 fine.

A young lady from Avoca arrived in the city yesterday to receive treatment for an injury received last fall from a kick by a horse.

The protest made by the expressmen and others, against the discrimination of the management of the driving park, shutting them and their passengers out of the grounds, has had its effect, by being voted by THE BEE. Yesterday all were admitted so that passengers were taken right into the grounds, an accommodation which they appreciated as well as the carriers.

Harkness Brothers have made a happy hit in decorating one of their show windows with a design of the new suspension bridge in Brooklyn.

The work of grading Main street and sidewalks has been completed three blocks now, and is still being pushed along on the other blocks.

has all the loafers it needs, and all the crooked men it will support. Let them move on. Yesterday Jacob Rehmer and Barbara Raggett were in the clerk's office at the court house after a marriage license, and on getting the necessary paper, they called on Justice Vaughan, who chanced to be standing near by, and were speedily made one, thus doing the business in a very practical way without loss of time.

There has justly been complaint entered about the number of highly painted, and jeweled prostitutes who are allowed to parade themselves at the race track, putting decent women to shame.

If you want to see the finest and largest stock of pianos and organs go to Mueller's Music Hall.

For bargains in Lamps, Glassware, Crockery, etc., go to 23 Main street, W. S. Homer.

The finest line of Oil and Gasoline Stoves in the city. De Vol & Wright, 504 Broadway.

Iron in a colorless state and Peruvian bark, combined with well known aromatics, make Brown's Iron Bitters the best medicine known.

To supplement the report of the sheriff's convention published in THE BEE of yesterday Secretary Farrell furnishes the following report of the third session, which was held yesterday morning:

The meeting was called to order by Sheriff Barr, of Mehaaka.

Sheriff Webb, of Boone, was called upon and made a neat and telling speech, showing himself to be thoroughly acquainted with his business.

Then came a general discussion which was freely indulged in by all sheriffs present, touching on all matters connected with the duties and labors of sheriff, and a kindly feeling prevailed throughout.

Communications were read from numerous sheriffs, regretting their inability to be present and wishing those present a pleasant time.

On motion the next meeting was to be held at Des Moines, the time to be fixed by the officers.

Sheriff Hyres, of Plattsmouth, was presented and introduced to the Iowa sheriffs.

On motion of Sheriff Webb a vote of thanks was tendered the president and secretary, who responded in short speeches.

A motion extending thanks to the driving park association and the mayor was passed.

The meeting then adjourned until call of officers.

Refrigerators cheap. De Vol & Wright, 504 Broadway.

Commercial job printing, finest styles and reasonable rates, at Pryor's BEE Job Office, 7 Pearl street.

CARPETS. Visit Casady and Orcutt's exclusive Carpet House.

Slugged with a Rock. Last evening a man was found in a box car, near the Kansas City depot, in a bloody and insensible condition, while a rock weighing six or seven pounds, with blood on it, seemed to be the weapon used in some mysterious assault.

WATCHING AND PREYING. While the Sheriffs are in Session Thieves Ransack the Houses. The Sneaks Take Clothing, Jewelry and Beef-Steak.

Notwithstanding the fact that sheriffs from all over the state were in session at the Ogden house, sneak thieves or burglars made a general raid upon that part of the city which lies in the vicinity of the hotel.

Peter Bechtel, the well known host who is now building a new hotel, was one of the losers by the raid, the thieves getting $65 of his money and a watch.

Charles Barghausen, nearly opposite the Methodist church, and within the sound of Ben Hogan's voice, lost by the raid a new suit of clothes, for which he had just paid $38.

Mr. Dancon, who is in Mr. Kittering's house, on Washington avenue, lost $50 in money, a silver watch and a gold chain.

J. M. Palmer's house was also entered. The thieves by this time had, apparently, got hungry, and they helped themselves to a lunch, and then carried off the breakfast intended for the next morning's breakfast.

John Hammer was another victim who woke up to find that he was the loser of about $15 and a silver watch.

The residence of George R. Beard was also entered, and in the morning his clothes were found in the yard, soaked by the rain.

The residence of D. O. Bennett, the conductor of the Broadway line of street cars, was entered, but the noise awoke Mr. Bennett, who threw a shoe at one of the men who could be seen in the night in the room next to the bedroom.

The house of Mr. Merriam, on North First street, was also entered, but they did not make much by it.

J. W. Morse, special policeman was visited by the gentry, as usual, on such occasions, but the dog barked and they skipped out.

NO RECEPTION AT ALL. Council Bluffs Treats Its Editorial Visitors Very Coolly.

The editors forming the great excursion party from the east, arrived here yesterday morning on the C, B & Q. railway, and although the announcement of their coming had been made some time ago, and one or two feeble attempts made to arrange for a reception, there was nothing done to show them even ordinary courtesy on the part of the city authorities or organizations of the city.

The editors strolled about the depot and wondered where the town was, and did the best they could to kill time.

It is understood that the Boys' band was engaged to welcome the visitors with music, but received no orders when to start or where to go.
