SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier, 30 cents per week; by Mail, $15.00 per Year.

Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

READY FOR BUSINESS.

An announcement of Special Interest to Those Wishing Fine Job Work.

P. M. Pryor has opened in connection with The Bee office in Council Bluffs, a complete job printing establishment, and is now prepared to fill orders in that line promptly and satisfactorily.

MINOR MENTION.

See Joseph Reiter's spring styles. Additional local on seventh page. The Bavarian band went to Minden today.

Harlan proposes to have a Fourth of July of its own.

The public schools are to be closed on Decoration Day.

Good music and dancing at the Spiritual soiree this evening.

The employees of the water works yesterday were made happy. Pay day.

The races set for to-day are good ones. See them, if the weather lets you.

Ben Hogan is still fighting the good fight in a series of meetings at Broadway Methodist church.

The city council has an industrious streak. It met yesterday afternoon to do some more equalization of taxes.

Henry Paul also takes place among the victims of sneak thieves, a watch being the plunder taken from him.

"There is no Death" Spiritual drile on Sunday (to-morrow) afternoon and evening. Also on Tuesday evenings.

Two boys, about sixteen years old, have been arrested as vagrants. They gave the names of J. M. Taylor and Albert Sanders.

Central church services at Bloom & Nixon's hall to-morrow at 10:30 a. m. and 8 p. m. Sunday school at 12 m. Rev. P. F. Bresse, pastor.

Mrs. H. W. Wilson is at the Ogdens house and intends to remain there for a week or more giving psychometric readings and developing circles.

A permit to wed was yesterday given to A. Anderson and Mary M. Thresher, both of Plattsmouth, Neb. The happy man is 60 and the bride 42.

Married, May 24, in this city, at the Central church parsonage, Rev. P. F. Bresse officiating, Mr. Ed. Johnson and Miss Ida McKay, both of Atlantic.

The democratic township convention has been called to meet at the court house Saturday, June 2, and the caucuses to be held on the Thursday evening proceeding.

J. W. Riek and William Kastner had a difference of opinion which they tried to settle by muscle. Each has had the other arrested for assault and battery, and both cases are to be heard Monday before Justice Schurz.

J. F. Farrar now succeeds Mr. Caughey in the management of the City house, the latter retiring on account of the bad health of himself and family. Mr. Farrar promises to maintain the popularity of the house.

In the case of B. Hansen vs. M. H. Judd the motion for a new trial was yesterday overruled by Judge Reed, and the finding of the jury confirmed, it giving the plaintiff $50 for the personal injuries which he claims to have received in an assault.

In the district court yesterday the case of John Watson vs. the Wabash, St. Louis & Pacific railway company was still on trial, it being a claim of damages for the loss of a foot, while Mr. Watson was unloading lumber from a car which was suddenly switched. This is the second trial of the case, the jury in the first trial giving $6,000 to the plaintiff. Myrster & Adams are the attorneys for the plaintiff and D. H. Solomon and Mr. Burnett for the company.

A one-legged man, giving the name of Shay, was arrested for kicking up a row at Madame Batterfield's. He knocked her down because she refused to let him in, and then had a tussle with one of the girls, who came to her help. He fought the policeman who arrested him, and, in fact, fought everything except the case. Bill Lucy was on his bond to appear in court, and he did appear yesterday morning, but on seeing the array of witnesses, stepped out with the remark that he would be back in a few minutes. He is still out.

Those Complaining of Sore Throat, Hoarseness, or "taking cold," should use Brown's Bronchial Trochans. The effect is extraordinary, particularly when used by singers and speakers for clearing the voice.

Another special sale of handkerchiefs at Harkness Bros.

TOO MUCH RAIN.

It Caused a Postponement of Yesterday's Races.

Some Rare Sport Promised To-day if Weather Permits.

The rain which commenced falling here yesterday morning, and which drizzled along until afternoon, caused a great disappointment to many who expected a rare day's sport at the driving park. The races were to consist of the three-minute class, the free-for-all, in which Loafer and Little Sioux were entered, the brewers' stake and the consolation race.

The rain put the track in such heavy condition that even when the water stopped falling there was no possible chance for any sport, and hence all races were declared off except the brewers' stake, which will be run this afternoon.

There was great disappointment, not only to those already here but to many who came in yesterday morning, starting from home before the rain set in. Some of these intended to come the day before, but the morning on Thursday opened so threateningly that they put off coming until yesterday. Thursday morning was followed by an almost perfect day, while the brighter promise of yesterday morning ended in rain, thus bringing a double disappointment to many in their planning to attend the races.

There is, however, the promise of some stoning sport to-day if the weather behaves itself and allows the track to get in good shape again, which it will do quickly, and with half a chance.

There are five races promised for to-day.

One is the running race for the brewers' stake of $300. There are entered in this race Loretta, Rosalind, Northland, Effie H., Fydanoo, Bingen, Homestreich, Ella Rowett, Cape Charles, Mont Boorhem, Lizzie Ester, Tubal Cain and Find Out. This will be an exciting race, indeed, in being three quarters of a mile and repeat. There are four other races, one a half mile dash, for two-year-olds, purse $150. Another is for a purse of $250, all ages mile heats, best three in five. A hurdle race is also to be run, one mile, over six hurdles, all ages, purse $150.

There will also be a mile dash, for all ages, purse $150. With five good running races, and with such a field of horses, there will be enough sport to make the afternoon lively.

A scientific chemical compound that gives health and strength is Brown's Iron Bitters.

SWAPPING STEEDS. Two Nebraska City Farmers Claim to Have Been Saddy Taken in on a Horse Trade.

There was quite a little flurry about police headquarters, arising from the report that a team of gray horses had been stolen in daylight from "the blue barn." A man giving his name as William Putnam was arrested for horse stealing, and soon after two men—J. H. Yager and J. R. Spencer—were arrested for swindling in a horse trade. Putnam was soon released as being the wrong man, but the others were held in ball till morning. Putnam was quite wrathful, and claimed that a travelling companion of his, named McGarvin, had been badly taken in by Yager and Spencer. It appears from his statement that Putnam and McGarvin had started from Nebraska City with a fine team belonging to McGarvin, intending to go to Dakota to locate land. On the way they fell in with Yager, who talked to them about buying the team. He thought the horses not quite heavy enough to suit him. If they were a little heavier he would give $300 cash for them. After a little, he told them that he had passed another emigrant on the road who had a team that was heavy enough but the emigrant would not sell his team for $300, but that if McGarvin could trade his team with the emigrant, he would pay him $300 for the latter team. They waited for the emigrant to come up, who proved to be Spencer. Yager deposited with McGarvin a few dollars as forfeit money to assure him that after the trade he would take the emigrant's team off his hands at $300, provided they would go to Missouri Valley where he could get the money. After some bickering the emigrant Spencer traded with McGarvin. Yager jumped into the wagon to go with McGarvin and Putnam to Missouri Valley to get the money, but they had not proceeded far when they discovered that the emigrant's team was windbroken and of no good. Yager refused himself as disgusted, and offered to give $300 for such a team. They got hold of Spencer and tried to get him to trade back, and as a compromise he agreed to turn out another team, and going to Missouri Valley turned them over one a little better than the broken winded horses. Still McGarvin felt he was badly sold and his friend Putnam kicked so lustily that the promise was given by Yager and Spencer that they would try and make another trade with somebody else and give McGarvin the benefit.

On reaching the city there had been no such bettering of affairs, and McGarvin took his original gray team out of the barn and drove off with them. Yager and Spencer claimed it to be a clear case of horse-stealing, and McGarvin's friend was arrested as a party to the affair, but was released as once. This led to Yager and Spencer being arrested for swindling, by obtaining property under false pretenses. They appeared in court yesterday morning, but no prosecution appeared and they were discharged, McGarvin doubtless being satisfied to get his original property back again.

Our New Loan and Improvement Co. Investigation into the matter concerns us that one of the most equitable, reasonable and feasible plans of building houses is that proposed and in operation by the Mercantile Loan, Trust and Improvement company of this city. By investing in shares in this institution, which is backed by some of our best and most reliable business men, it becomes possible and comparatively easy for a man of moderate means to secure a comfortable home for himself and family. In taking a certain number of shares, at a certain monthly payment, in a few years a man can own a house of his own for about the same as he pays monthly for rent. We believe the Mercantile Loan and Trust company, by organizing and opening up for business, having filled a long felt want in Council Bluffs. Their plans and system of loans will bear the most careful scrutiny and examination, and we have no hesitancy in pronouncing them reasonable and equitable, and backed by gentlemen of honor and integrity. As the company exists it becomes at once an institution of value and credit to our city and those who desire homes. Their president is T. A. Kirkland, vice president, Judge Peake; secretary, I. R. Henry; treasurer, Col. Beebe; and their office is in the basement of Shugart's and McMahon's new block, corner First avenue and Pearl street. Jan 27-17
