ORIENTAL ACONY.

The Crowning Event in the Career of Emperor Alexander III.

A Ceremony of Surpassing Magnificence Within the Walls of Kremlin.

The Georgeous Trappings of Nobility Brought Out in Full Force,

While the Officials of the Realm Bow Low and Smite Their Craw.

The Booming of Cannon and Pealing of Bells Proclaim Another Czar.

And the Thousands Without Take Up the Shout, "Long Live the Emperor"

Graphic Description of the Scenes Outside and Inside the Palace-

THE CORONATION.

PRELIMINARY CEREMONIES.

Moscow, May 27 .- At 7 o'clock this morning the inauguration of the magnificent ceremonies attendant upon the coronation of emperor and emby the ringing of hundreds of bells and by the thunder of artillery. Even at that early hour the streets were thronged with people, visitors from abroad and from other parts of the press of the Russians was announced abroad and from other parts of the empire crowding the residents, and all striving to find elegible places from which to view the procession and such part of the ceremony those, particul-arly the favored might be able to witness. During the entire night there was unusual activity on the streets, for not only were people there whose anxiguards of soldiers patrolled all parts of of all the countries of the north; Masthe city, giving the streets

A VERY MARTIAL APPEARANCE. Great bodies of soldlers shortly before six were stationed along the route of prince of Toherlask, master of Turk the procession four miles in length estan, heir presumptive of Norway and occupied streets on either side, and duke of Shleswig-Holstein, of and occupied streets on either side, keeping the people on the walks. All unreserved space in the streets was speedily filled by eager sightseers, while windows, doorways and housetops were let out at fabulous prices to visitors. Those dignitaries of the realm who were to take part in the actual ceremony assembled according to prearranged programme at the cathedral of the Holy Assumption, within the walls of Kremiin. These functionaries entered the magnificent building at 7:30 a. m. At about 8 there followed in order, the princes of foreign governments, the nobility of Russia and other states of Europe and special and regular ambassabors of foreign countries residing in Russia.

THE UTMOST CARB WAS EXERCISED made to exhibit a carefully prepared ticket, which was subjected to the closest scrutiny. This form was observed at the gate of the Kremiln and doors of the cathedral. At the request of the ambassador from Germany eighty members, comprising the diplomatic corps assembled at his mansion, were conveyed thence to the Kremlin in superbly equipped coaches, richly gilded as to their harness and coats of arms. The remainder of the diplomatic body, consisting of attaches of various legations, were assigned positions in the tribune, just outside the cathedral proper, but in and nobleness of demeanor which also side the enclosure of the Kremlin. provoked the admiration of all. After When the white walls of that won- the empress had been duly invested drous place closed on all of the crowd with the imperial mantle, and their that could be admitted, a chorus of majesties both seated on their thrones, boys chanted the To Daum, and the arch deacon intoned the imperial amidst profound silence outside the titles and sang the Domine Salum fac church, as well as in it, the clergy, accompanied by acolytes bearing a cross and ewer of holy water, pro-

TO RECRIVE THE CZAROVITCH.

This scion of royalty, who was in the midst of a brilliant cortege, took a place at the right hand of the throne. When the imperial procession started it was made known to those inside the cathedrai by renewed ringing of bells, by sonorous music from scores of bands, and by shouts of those outside. As the royal party appeared at the doors of the palace, the immense multitude immediately uncovered their heads and burst into loud acclamation. Even women were there, and the enthusiasm was spontaneous and hearty. At the head of the procession, which now entered the Kremlin, was the master of ceremonies, flanked by heralds righly clad and mounted upon pure white horses. It was of immense length, and comprised deputies parts of the city, when it was speedily from the Asiatic states of the empire, students of universities, clergy, judges, nobility, and prefects from every section of the empire. When its front ranks reached the door of the palsce, it was met by the emperor, wearing the white uniform of a colonel of the imperial guards, and the empress was dressed in the Russian national costume-black velvet, righly ambroidered with diamonds and girdled with A MAGNIFICENT BELT OF PRECIOUS STONES. the regalia, which they publicly sented even a more splendid sight with linense. Upon entering the portals of the cathedral the emperor and empress were received by the metropolitans of Novogowa the metropolitans of Novogowa and English sented even a more splendid sight than that which escorted them to the obsiness part of the business part of the village burned to-day. Loss, $50,000.

In a row at Atchaion Friday evening concerning him in my report of the concerning him in my report of the unitantly killed a colored man unamed Disk than that which escorted them to the obsiness part of the village burned to-day. Loss, $50,000.

P.S. Every person that saw me said that Turpin. The sheriff arrested Taylor and them to the country jail, fearing an attack by a mob. Taylor killed a more beautifully. The sheriff arrested Taylor and them to whole rounded another a stankly killed a colored man unamed Disk them that which escorted them to the whole rounded in the market buildings and a large section of the business part of the village burned to-day. Loss, $50,000.

The market buildings and a large section of the business part of the village burned to-day. Loss, $50,000.

The metropolitans of Novogowa and English to the procession, which part of the procession, which part of the procession, which part of the sented even a more splendid sight. Uxbridge evening that in my report of the whole rounded him to my report of the whole rounded him to my report of the whole rounded and that Turpin. The sheriff arrested Taylor and the whole rounded with the whole rounded and the whole rounded and the whole rounded with the procession, which part is the thing that in my report of the whole rounded and the whole rounded with the whole rounded with the procession, which part is the thing that in my report of the whole rounded with the whole rounded with the procession, which part is the thing that in my empress. Before the sacred images whence laws - re anciently promul- A FIELD DAY FOR FIENDS.

conducted to the aneient,

THRONES OF IVORY AND SILVER. while the empress was seated in an broidered with gold and lined with the arms of Russia, and all her dependencies in the most ingenious manner. In front of the thrones were two tables covered with gold cloth, upon which were placed the crowns, orb and scepter. None but foreign princes were accommodated with seats. The Russiau princes and dignitaries stood during the entire ceremony, according to the custom of the Greeks. The dignitaries of the realm who were carrying the standard and seals of the empire, took their stand upon the steps of the dais. When their majes. ties had been seated the metropolitan successfully. Silver tokens in memof Novogerod asked the emperor in a loud and distinct voice, "ARE YOU A TRUE BELIEVER?"

The emperor, falling on his knees, read in reply, in a clear voice, the Lord's prayer and the apostle's creed of the Greek church. The metropol-itan responding, "May the grace of the Holy Ghost remain with thee,' descended from the dats. The forlowing customary summons was then three times repeated by the bishop, "If there be any of you here present knowing any impediment for which Alexander, son of Alexander, should not be crowned, by the grace of God, emperor and autocrat of all Russias, of Moscow, of Ki ffe, of Viadimir, of of Podolia and of Finland; prince of Esthonia, of Livenia, of Courland, of Semigalia, of the Sameyedes, of Brielostock, of Corelia, of Ingor, of my order of St. Alexander Newski, in Paru, of Viatka, of Bulgaria and diamonds, as a testimonial of my of other countries; master and grand duke of the lower countries in Novogorod, of Tchernigoff, of Riszan, of Polotsk, of Rostoff, of Jaresloff, of ter Absolute of Iversk, of Kastalnisk, of Kabardinsk and of the territory of Armenta; sovereign of the mountain, Stormane, of Dithmarz and of Oldenburg, let him come forward now, to show what the impediment is, or let him remain dumb forever." After reading selections from the gospel, the metropolitans of Novogorod and Kieffe, again ascended the dais and invested the emporor with the imperial mantle of ermine, the metropolitan of Moscow saying at the same time, "Cover and protect thy people as this robe protects and covers

The emperor responded,

"I WILL, I WILL, I WILL, God helping." The metrepolitan of Novogorod, crossing his hands on the political offences, and other matters head of the emperor then invoked the benediction of Almighty God upon patches. benediction of Almighty God upon patches. the throne. He then returned the the empress who knelt before him. He touched her head lightly with the crown of the emperor and then formaily crowned her with her own crown. The expression and attitude of the empress as she knelt was one of czar preserved throughout

GRAVE AND DECORUS DIGNITY Imperatorem, which was taken up and thrice repeated by the choir. Directly after this part of the ceremony was finished the bells in all the churches of Moscow rang out in chorus, a salute of 101 guns were fired, and inside the cathedral members of the imperial family tendered their congratulations to their majestles. The emperor then kneit and recited a prayer, at the end of which the clergy and all kneit be-fore the emperor. The bishop of Moscow said aloud, in behalf of the nation, a fervent prayer for the happiness of their majestles. Shouts of "LONG LIVE THE EMPEROR," then rent the cathedral, and were taken up by the thousands outside and carried from mouth to mouth until that part of the multitude who were unable to get inside of even the ample acreage of the Kremlin caught up the sound, and waved it in huge volume of human gratulation to the remotest made known to all the world that another czar of the Russias had been

The cathedral choir then sang the Te Denm, after which the emperor ungirt his sword, and, accompanied by the empress and numerous dignituries proceeded to the gate of the sanctuary. There the metropolitan of Navogorod ANNOINTED THE EMPEROR'S FOREHRAD, eyellds, lips, ears, breast and hands, The Empress leaned on the arm of her royal consort and placed them—was annointed only on the forehead.

The illuminations to night are magnificant. The city looks like a mass of variegated fires. beneath a canopy richly Both partook of the sacrement and wrought in silk and gold borne by 32 then left the cathedral, wearing their generals of high military rank. They crowns and mantles, the emperor also then took their place near the head bearing the aceptre and orb. After of the procession, being directly praying in the cathedral of Boston, May 26.—Revised esti-after the regalia. At this moment Michael the Archaegel, their mates place the loss by fire on Hawley the entire body of clergy emerged majestics returned to the palace, from the cathedral in order to meet escorted by the procession, which presented even a more splendid sight UXBRIDGE, Ont., May 26.—The than that which escorted them to the market buildings and a large section the regalia, which they publicly sented even a more splendid sight which flanked the doors of the gated. The sturned and saluted cathedral they knelt and bowed the people, who immediately uncovable heads, after which they were ered their heads, cheering enthusiastically and blossing the czar.

THE IMPERIAL BANQUET Alexander occupied the historical began at 3:30 p. m. in the ball called throne of Czar Visdimir Monomague, the Granovitiaia Palata. This hall was specially restored for the occasion arm chair glided and encrusted with and was splendidly decorated with jewels. The thrones were placed on cloth of gold. The emperor and ema dais erected between the two middle press, wearing their growns sat at columns of the cathedral. Over the separate tables an thrones of unequal dais was a canopy of scarlet velvet height; their mejestles were served suspended from an arched roof, em- by distinguished nobles, acting as broidered with gold and lined with cup bearers, carvers, etc. The first silver brocade, which was worked with teast was "His Majesty, the Emperor," which followed by a salute of 61 gans. Next was "Her Mejesty, the Empress," followed by 51 guns. The third was "The Imperial household," followed by 31 guos, and the fourth was, "The clergy and all faithful subjects," followed by 21 guns. The toreign princes and diplomats present stood during the first course, and afterwards, in accordance with ancient custom, withdrew to a separate repast.

The weather was fine throughout the day, and everything passed off ory of the day were distributed in 20 Moscow churches to-night.

THE CZAR'S MANIFESTO was issued this evening, and is a document of very considerable length. Crowds besieged the printing office to obtain copies, the perusal of which caused great rejoicing. The czar has addressed the following rescript to De Giers, minister of foreign affairs: The great power and glory acquired by Russia, thanks to divine provi-dence, the extent of her empire and her numerous population leave no room for any idea of further conquests. My solicitude is exclusively nevoted to the peaceable development of the country and its prosperity to the preservation of friendly relations with foreign powers on the basis of existing treaties and the maintenance of the dignity of the empire. Having found in you a constant, zealous and useful collaborator for promotion of these views in the direction of our intermy order of St. Alexander-Newski, in gratitude.

Before their majesties left the palace the route to the cathedral was sprinkled with holy water. Heavy under the canopy > packed it would have been impossible use them against the czar. The czar's crown dates from the recovery.

THE SUN SHONE BRILLIANTLY. In the cathedral it was noticed when the czar knelt alone to utter the prayer of intercession, his eyes filled with tears and he sobbed audibly as he read. In making a profession of faith the czar's voice was the name of the Holy Trinity and grandly resonant. The metropolitan delivering his allocution.

period of Emperor Paul I. It is valued at 3,000,000 roubles. The manifesto announces the continuance of the present state of affairs in Russa, conditional pardon to the Poles, remission of penalties for non-

The cost of the coronation is estias he appeared at the entrance, being it upon his own head, and assuming covered by the issue of treasury bilis. the scepter and orb took his seat upon | Only thirteen newspaper correspondents were allowed inside the catheinsigms of his title to the dignitaries dral during the ceremony-six Rusappointed to receive them, and called sian, seven foreign, the latter including one English and one American correspondent. The academy professor and twelve Russian artists were of events of the coronation. Mounted Cossacks patrolled every sympathy with her royal husband and street. Troops lining the route of the touched deeply the audience. The procession remained barricaded the whole morning. Those unable to obtain admission to the Kremlin remained outside on their knees, close to the walls during the best part of the day, praying for the czar. A correspondent who witnessed the greatest pageants the last 35 years, says the spectacle culminating in the advent of their majesties being crowned and robed, was the most imposing and splendid he ever beheld.

CELEBRATING IN ST. PETERSBURG. by special services in all the churches to-day, and by a parade of troops. The city was brilliantly illuminated to-night, and the streets thronged with people. Perfect order prevails. GERMAN SENTIMENT.

Berlin, May 27.—The Russian standard was hoisted on the Embassy to-day, and a solemn Te Daum was performed in the Embassy church, at which all Prussian generals and officials were present. The emperor was slightly indisposed and the crown prince were represented by their personal adjutant generals. The Official Gazette says Germany has special reasons for taking sympathetic interest in the coronation of the czar. The family connection and common interest in peace combine to make Germany wish for the successful reign of the czar.

PARALYSED HIS PEN.

London, May 27 .- The Times correspondent, the only English newspaper representative in the cathedral, says: My pen can give only a dim at the same time exclaining: "Behold and imperfect impression of the event. nificent. The city looks like a mass

Special Dispatch to THE Bur. street, early this morning, between $90,000 and $100,600; fully insured.

The Subalterns of Satan Break Loose and Slake Their Thirst for Gore.

Mysterious Murder and Robbery of a Carpenter at Kearney.

A Pittsburg Madman Pursues His Wife and Kills Her Frotector.

Discovery of a Horrible Plot to Cremate a Family at Nelsop, Ill.

Ireland and Italy Euckle to With Stones, Sticks and Stilettes.

Special Dispatch to Tue Ban,

Kearney, Neb., May 27 .- This morning the body of I. J. Summers, a carpenter of this place, was found in his yard with a bullet hole through his head. It is supposed he was murdered for his money, as it is claimed he was in possessing of a large sum last evening. The coroner's jury have not yet examined all the witnesses. but thus far nothing of importance has turned up. The case is surrounded with mystery, and all sorts of rumors are afloat. No arrests.

Wagon communication between here and Kearney county has been Horrible Work special Dispatch to THE BEE.

Sr. Louis, May 27.—A fiendish plot to destroy a whole family is reported from the town of Nelson, Ill. Friday night ropes were tied to all door knobs of the house of Mr. Boyd and then made fast to trees in the yard. Coal oil was then poured on and around the foundation of the dwelling and fired near the main door. Boyd was awakened by the noise of the flames and luckly was able to burst open a to that post. Two companies door and with his wife and several of the Ninth infantry have been of the Ninth infantry have been ety concerning the interest in the cor- Bislosersk, of Oudorn, of Obdorsk, of rain fell before their mejesties started children rushed through the flames onation kept them awake, but strong Kondisk, of Vitelsk, of Matiloff and but just as they took their places without harm, but the escape from a terrible death was a very narrow one It is not known by whom or for what reason the devilish deed was commit-of Novogorod almost broke down in wife. Welsh who had been drinking over rugged mountains, through for-Kremlin square was so densely poker, and stabbed him in the left up the wild wastes to settlement and breast, the bayonet passing through cultivation. for any miscreant to have extricated his left lung and coming out at the his arms should he have intended to back. The injured man is still living, but physicians have no hopes of his Ireland and Italy.

A Hot Hele.

NEW YORK, May 17 .- A pitched battle took place yesterday between the Italians and Irish in Cherry street, New York. Marie Morena was were freely used.

The Murders of Mygatt. pecial Dispatch to THE Bus.

STEUBENVILLE, O., May 27 .- Tw years ago Alex Mygatt, wife and eight children came from England, settling in Mansfield, Penn. His appointed to make a complete album wife left him on account of his abuse, and went to Staubenville with John Bird. She had three daughters and one son with her, Mygatt keeping the four other children. She married Bird and lived with him. This morning the father and one son arrived, and asked to see his wife and children. Bird assented, provided he would raise no disturbance, He was calm for a time, then became shusive and demanded that the woman go back took her part. The two men went into the yard in the rear of the house. Mygatt suddenly drew a revolver, and shot Bird in the back of the head instantly killing him, then returned St. Petersburg, May 27.-The to the house and struck the woman. coronation of the czar was celebrated She fled, her cries summoned help and Mygatt was arrested.

TELEGRAPH NOTES.

Special Dispatches to Tun Ban.

The Tabor Milling company's stamp mill at Leadville burned. Loss, $60,000. It now transpires that Major Wasson's defalcation was known tolthe paymaster general at Washington before it was made public in Galveston.

Governor-sleet Bowen, of Rhode Island, is suffering from rheumatism and it is feared he will be unable to go to Newport Tuesday to be inaugurated.

Joseph Nall, assistant postmaster at Atlanta, Ga., is $8,000 short. Nall says there must be some mistake, but will make good the deficit if any.

A terrific explosion occurred at Chandler's lumber mill, Leon, Oaio, killing Nelson Johnson of Tyrell Hill, and injuring several others. The mill is a total wreck. The Nord Deutsche Zeitung prays the coronation may be the starting point on a new era of happiness and fessed judgment for $13,000 in favor of

> The graves of the confederate dead at Louisville were quietly decorated Satur-day afternoon. There were no ceremonies other than prayer by Bishop Dudley and the sing of hymns,

The Irishman in Galveston are raising a fund for the benefit of the widows and children of the men recently executed in tention is to make it $1,000.

The Irish land leagues of Chicago have reorganized as branches of the Irish National League of America. Alexander Sullivan, president of the National League. movement. In a row at Atchison Friday evening of $5,000 or more. The trustees have made an examination of his books and will re-port at the grand lodge meeting in June.

At a late hour Friday night a policeman At a late hour Friday night a policemany discovered a man wandering among a maze of railread tracks, in Chicago. The man was evidently out of his mind, saying he was being pursued by headlights of locomotives and that his enemies were trying to get him run over. He was taken in charge and turned out to be State Senator Thus, Fish, of Marshall county, Iowa.

In the great competitive drill at Nash-In the great competitive drill at Nashville the following prizes were awarded:
Infantry drill. Mobils Rifles first prize,
$4,000; Crescent Rifles second, $2,000; Breating Rifles third, $500. Badger of the Crescents took the first prize cup.
Eichborn's band, of Louisville, took the $1,000 prize; Postlewaite's band, of St.
Louis, the second. The Decorah drum corps. of Decorah, Iowa, took the gold headed drum sticks. The people generally were satisfied with the result.

The coat bound passenger train of the

The cast bound passenger train of the Denver & Rio Grande road went through the bridge over the Gunnison river just below the mouth of Roudebeaux creek, at 5 o'clock Thursday morning. The engine, o'clock Thursday morning. The engine, mail and bag, age cars are a complete wreck. The mail and bargage cars stoated a mile before lodging. The engine is completely submerged. Engineer Duncan and Fireman Emory were drowned, and one brakeman slightly hurt. It is supposed the bridge was weakened by high water in the Gunnison river.

CROOK'S CAMPAICN.

The Situation and Prospects of the Apache Hunter in Mexico Thoroughly Canvassed.

General O. O. Howard Interviewed and Yielding Up Entertaining Recollections.

No Authentic News from the Seat of War in the Sterras.

St. Paul Pioneer-Press. Gen. O. O. Howard, commandant of the department of the Platte, accompanied by Lieut. Guy Howard, his son and sid-de-camp, is at the Merchants on route to Omaha. The general is on his way home from Fort McKinney, where he has been looking up the condition of affairs in the country tributary transferred to Fort Russell, near Cheyenne, to give place to two com panies of the Fifth cavalry, as that arm of the service is more effective at that point than infantry. There are now three companies of cavalry and one of infantry at McKinney. The general expressed himself as pleased PITTSBURG, May 27. - Thomas with the development of the country Welsh was fatally stabbed with a red | where he followed the Ne z Perces hot bayonet this afternoon by his on that long and wearisome march struck his wife, when she grabbed up bidding canyons and over trackless

ARIZONA MATTERS. General matters having been talked over for some time, the interviewer eaked Gen. Howard the following direct question: "It has been stated in the papers Apaches; and the allegation was further made that Gen. Crook was just then prepared to conquer them." The general hesitated somewhat, and of the combatants were injured; said he did not desire to enter into pires that little or no regard is being authorized or improper person except III. the crown of Russia, who placed mated at £2,000,000, which will be sticks, stones, stilletos and revolvers why controvery with a brother officer, paid to the alleged agreement, as it as he appeared at the entrance being nor to make any reply to the state is said that the Oregon Short Line is ment that could be construed into an expending thousands of dollars in the attempt at defense, when none was needed. Finally he requested that the question, as above given, be written, and then dictated the following answer: "In 1872 President Grant, at the request of Mr. Delano, secretary of the interior, sent me to attempt to make peace with these Indians, the only tribe then at war with the United States. The president gave meletters to the division and department commanders, the latter being Gen Crook, and directed me to report for specific instruction to the secretary of the interior. The letters and instructions are matters of record. I succeeded in carrying out the latter, but never exwith him. She refused, and Bird cooded them. Gen. Crook and myself were acting under orders then as now. He is a judicious officer, and

> A DANGEROUS TRIP. The general gave a sketch of his trip at the time of the treaty and said, with a half smile:

1 wish him abundant success.'

"I may have been too zealous in not a pleasant commission. I never to be made for the purpose of securing went into battle with as many chances an agreement different from the one of death againt me as I took when with an aide, an interpreter, and two scouts I went into the lair of Cochise, the Dragoou mountains. My scouts found the trail and finally the hiding place of the band, and I was told I two combinations for possession of Times. the Chiricahua chief, in the heart of could go in, but only with four or five the important territory in the exmen with me. I rode the last 125 treme northwest, which will result miles through the most difficult in the building of several important country, scarred with the deepest and branches of road next year. most precipitous canons you ever saw. The entrance to Cochise's den could have been defended by ten men against an army. It was through a narrow canyon, with walls 200 or 300 feet high, and of sheer rock on both sides. I spent the night in the camp, and next night Co-chise saw me. I made the treaty with him on my second trip, upon which I took back provisions. etc. The Indians went to the reservation provided for them at Camp Apacha and were afterward moved. why I know not, further north to San Carlos, and congregated with Indians with whom they were not friendly. Cochine died and afterward his eldest son died also, I guess the Indians Dublin for the Potenix park mur ers. Alson died also, I guess the Indians ready $750 has been subscribed and the inkept faith as long as we did; they genorally do, I take it. I simply did as I was ordered. I was ordered to make the treaty, if possible-as I might have been to take a battery-and I did was present at meetings and addressed it. The treaty was deemed then a them, congratulating the members on be-very desirable thing—and it was coming component parts of the general Gon. Crook and I were on the best of terms. He wrote me a beautiful let-In a row at Atcasson Friday evening Policeman Taylor (colored) shot and instantly killed a colored man named Dick Turpin. The sheriff arrested Taylor and removed him to the county jail, fearing an attack by a mob. Taylor killed a man attack by a mob. Taylor killed a man row Missouri and wounded another a case." ter in acknowledgment of what I said he was short in his accounts to the extent | mine-that he will act judiciously. can't tell as to the probabilities of his success as I don't know the number of Indians with whom he will have to contend. I should not suppose they numbered more than a couple of hundred, but, as I said, fim without infor mation on the subject. The band is desperate. They have lost all, or nearly all, their women and children, and in my judgment none will ever be taken alive. The Apaches are said to run away when attacked. So they do; it is their method of fighting, but they are the most dangerous antagonists in the world, so far as an ambush is concerned. You may ride right through their country and never see head nor hand, so perfectly do they conceal themselves, and you can ride right into an ambush, where you least expect it. The first indication you are likely to have is the ring of a rifle bul-

> "How about Crook's scouts?" excite them, they are excellent. They cannot stand inaction, however, and are very apt to get tired, want to go back and, if permission to do so is refused, to desert and take the back

"What of the alleged Mexican complications?" "Of them you know as much as do; your sources of information are the same as mine." "The country is very difficult of access and for travel, is it not?" "None could be mere so. It is far California and Southern Oregon,"

No News from Crook. Special Dispatch to THE BEE.
WASHINGTON, May 27.—The war department has not yet received any Information from General Crook. Adjutant-General Drum, however, received the following despatch:
FORT BLISS, El Paro Co.,

Texas, May 26

Gen. R. K. Drum:

Nothing authentic yet heard in regerd to Gen. Crook. I have daily communication with the Mexican military commander, Paso Del Norte, who assures me I shall be promptly informed of any news received from the military headquarters at Chihuahua. The commanding general of the Mexican forces at Chthuabus has also given me like assurances.

> FLETCHER. Commanding.

BAILROADS.

(Signed)

CHICAGO, May 26. - The Times special says: It is announced that an agreement had been entered into between the Union Pacific and the Northern Pacific railway under which the territory west of the Snake river, in Oregon, Washington and North Idaho, should be regarded as belonging to the Northern Pacific, or Vil lard combination, and all east of the Snake river should belong to the Union Pacific, or Gould combination. The agreement is understood to contain further stipulations in reference to the joint occupancy of the territory of Montana. Under the agreement the public is given to understand that the extension of the Union Pathat you went to Arizona and made cliic known as the Oregon Short Line, peace with the Chirleanua band of was to terminate at Burnt river, and the Baker City branch of the Oregon Railway and Navigation company to terminate at the same place, where a junction would be formed. It transsurvey and location of a line beyond the point where it was understood to have agreed to stop. The impression is given out that Villard has been giving the Union Pacific a wild goose chase, and is putting his forces in the field to occupy the territory east of the Snake river, and to take in Boise City upon an invitation from its citizens, who are anxious to have a competing line. Many do not believe the road will build 550 miles through the desert country and then stop 400 miles short of the Pacific coast at the very threshhold of the section that would furnish the very best of local traffic. For this reason they favor an extension of the Northern Pacific, and as a of the diffigentleman from the extreme bitration. northwest said to a reporter for The Times: "Give western cutlet opportunity to construct a road through the country where it is needed. Surveys are now being made by the Union Pacific road of the Snake river, but will never have a road conbeying orders, but it certainly was structed upon them, and are believed that is said to exist about the territory east and west of the Snake

The people of the country men

ONE DOLLAR.

A single dose of Sauford's Radical Cure A single dose of Saufard's Radical Cure instantly releves the most violent Smexing or Head Colds, cears the head as if by magic, stops watery discharges from the nose and eyes prevents ringing notice in the head, cures norvous headache and suddues crills and fever. In Chronic Catarrh it cleaness the masal passages of four mucus, restores the senses of smell, taste and hearing when affected, frees the head, thout and bronchial tubes of offensive matter, sweetens and purifies the breath, stops the cough and arrests the progress of Catarrh towards Consumption.

Surption.

One bottle Radical Cure, one Box Catarrial
Solvent and Sanford's Inbaler, all in one package, forming a complete tr atment, of all dungis a for 31. Ask for Sanfond's Rangar Cure. Por-TER DRUG AND CHENICAL CO., BOSTON,

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Major Nickerson's Wickedness Cropping Out in Other Quarters.

The Terms of the Treaty of Peace Recently Signed by

The Size of the Nation's Wad-

Ohili and Peru.

CAPITAL NOTES.

TREASURY STATEMENT

WASHINGTON, May 27 .- Gold, silver and United States notes in the treasury: Gold coin and bullion, $192,-The Apache scouts are excellent for | 668,821; sliver dollars and bullion, a time. So long as you keep them sill. 843.795; fractional silver coin, moving; so long as you give them active work, something to interest and $52,042,881; total, $384,790,023; cer-

NICKERSON'S FALSE PRETENCES. Some time previous to the institution of proceedings for his divorce, Major Nickerson applied to the war department for an attested record of his military services He assigned as a reason for preferring this request, that he proposed going abroad and ex-pected to visit Egypt to witness the military operations there, incident to worse than the lava beds of Northern the war then in progress between the English government and the khedive, and as he (Nickerson) was not a graduate of West Point, he desired to use as credentials an attested copy of his military record. Although contrary to precedent, the department acceded to his request and papers were duly prepared in the adjutant general's office. Major Nickerson did not go abroad, but it now transpires that the papers were used in the trial of the divorce case to establish the high standing and record of the plaintiff in

PERU AND CHILL.

Senor Godoy, Chilian minister, has advices from his government, via the Mexican legation, Paris, announcing the ratification of a treaty of peace be-tween Chili and Peru. His advices state that General Iglesias, who signed the treaty on behalf of Peru, is acand central Peru. The terms of the treaty include the cession to Chili for ten years of the provinces of Tarapaca and Arica-Tacna, provision being made that on the expiration of that term the question as to whom the ceded territory shall thereafter belong shall be submitted to a popular vote of the people of the territory, the country to whom the territory is voted to pay the other $10,000,000 before acquiring Senor Godoy says northern and central Peru, which has acknowledged Iglesias, constitutes about five-sixths of the whole territory of Peru and includes the capital, Lima, and the principal seaport, Callao. He says also the treaty provides for occupation by Chili of the ceded territory during the ten years covered by the terms of the cession, and in all probability the Chilian army of occupation is now in Lima and will remain there until the Peruvian government fully organized. and otder is entirely restored.

Senor Godoy states that the terms of the treaty were arranged by the Chilian plenipotentiary and Gen. Iglesias, representative of Lims, and forwarded to Gen. Iglesias in Northern Peru. Having been signed by him, the treaty was returned to Lima, and from there sent to Santiago De Chill, where it was ratified by the Chillen Government, who, on the 24th inst., promulgated it.

A Sole-Stirring Event.

Special Dispatch to Tue Bus CINCINNATI, May 27.-Last night the shoe manutacturers and shoe operatives came to an understanding and terminated the lockout which, has kept 2,500 workmen idle a fortnight. The workmen recede from their refusal to finish goods commenced by non-union men and all hands resume work to-morrow, leaving a settlement of the difficulty to a committee of ar-

Shipping News Special Dispatch to THE BEE.

from Liverpool.

America from Bremen.

NEW YORK, May 27 .- Arrived, the Queen and Nevada from Liver-FATHER POINT, May 27 .- Arrived, Nestorian from Glasgow, Sarmatian

HAVRE, May 27.—Arrived, Canada from New York.

BALTIMORE, May 28 -Arrived,

HOOD'S

Has "decided" claims upon the public. This is positively proven by the immense good it has done to those who have been cured of is positively proven by the immense good it has done to those who have been cured of diseases from which they have suffered intensely for years, as verified by the published testimonials, every one of which is a positive fact.

CHELSEA. VT., Feb. 24, 1879.

Messris, C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: The 6th day of last June I was taken sick with a swelling on my right foot, and with an awful pain. The swelling went all over me. My face was swelled so that I could with difficulty see out of my eyes, and I broke out over the whole surface of my body; my right foot up to my knee was one raw, itching mass, and my ankle and foot so lame and sore I could not step on it, and it would run so as to wet a bandage through in an hour. In this condition Mr. W. F. Hood (of the firm of A. R. Hood & Son, druggists, of this town), handed me a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I.a., and told me to take it. I did so, and by the time I had taken one bottle I found that it was doing me good. I have since taken five bottles more. After I had taken three bottles my soreness began to leave me, and I have been growing better every day, so that to-day I can waff without going lame. I have no soreness in my ankle and it has healed all up, and does not run at all. I lowe my recovery to your Sarsaparilla. I write this to let you know that I think it deserves the confidence of the public especially those who are troubled with humors.

Yours most truly.

JOSIAH PITKIN.

P. S. Every person that saw me said that I never would get over my lameness without having a running sore on my ankle; but thank God I have.

No other Sarsaparilla has such a sharpening