ST. LOUIS. Sr. Louis, May 30 -Cattle-Heavy rain; liberal supply but light demand, and to-day being a holiday, combined to make a very slow market, and trading was confined to butchers and a few local speculators. Prices were unchanged for the grades sold, but shipping cattle were decidedly weak, and corcessions would have to be made to sell.

Sheep-Market about the same as for cattle, and only a local trade done at unchanged prices.
