WASTE OF WATERS.

Further Details of the Ruin Wrought by Indian Creek. Losses Fall Heavily Upon Many Ill Able to Bear Them.

The Rumors of Death Seem Unfounded.

The Bee has already given many details of the wreck and ruin caused by the great rain of Friday night, and the consequent overflowing of Indian creek, and yet there seem on every hand losses to note and incidents to narrate, many of which will never be able to crowd their way into print.

Winchester's grist mill was badly damaged—water soaked.

Conrad Foran lost 150 feet of picket fence, and had his house flooded. The Pierce street school house fence went down.

There is not a foot of sidewalk intact on either side of Broadway from Oak street to John Clausen's residence, a distance of half a mile or more.

William Keeline's 300 feet of picket fence is hanging on the trees. John Steiter's tenant house on Broadway was badly undermined and sagged.

J. Neumeier had to move out his family at midnight, and lost fence also outbuildings, besides being flooded.

George's gardens suffered greatly. Five private bridges above Gade's brewery were swept away, two of them being foot bridges; the others wagon bridges.

There is not a house on Broadway from Oak to Union street, but what is badly damaged by mud and water and more or less outbuildings, fences, etc., gone.

Notwithstanding the rumors of persons being drowned none yet return to be well founded.

The following telegram will explain themselves: OMAHA, June 2, 1883. To Mayor Brown, Council Bluffs.

Omaha very much regrets to hear of the terrible flood which visited the Bluffs last night. If your sister city can render you any assistance let me know.

CHAMPION S. CHASE, Mayor. COUNCIL BLUFFS, June 2. Champion S. Chase, Mayor of Omaha.

THOS. BOWMAN, Mayor. The water works company will not lose more than $500. In some places mains were washed almost out, and where the pipes of the company and of these works crossed the creek, they were broken off almost like clay pipe stems.

The Glen avenue reservoir has considerable water in it which must be pumped out. The two horses swept down the stream when the barn belonging to the Orvis packing house went, were on Saturday found in the lower part of the city all right, save some bruises and scratches.

A. Louis's lads to residence will be $1,000, and besides this he lost $1,000 of fine dried venison. DeVol & Wright had several thousand dollars worth of goods in their cellar, which was flooded, the damage being quite heavy.

Frank Levine lost several hundred dollars in the water soaking his fine lot of hams. Green & Co., pork packers, had much bacon soaked.

The stores all along lower Broadway had their floors covered with from five to eight inches of mud. C. C. Dawson's lime house was swept quite a distance and landed on Broadway. His lime, cement, tools, and a large quantity of sand were lost.

The neat little cottage owned by Dr. Lawrence, and occupied by Mr. Derksen, was moved off its foundation, and bridge timbers knocked a great hole in its side.

Tom Hill's horse was taken about 150 feet down the creek and the contents ruined. The Chicago & Northwestern yards have been filled in with from one to three feet of mud.

Mrs. Bernard, on Wyandotte street, lost all her household goods, the building in which they were stored being ruined. Sibley & Co., the commission merchants, lost several tons of butter, their basement being flooded.

The mains of the gas company crossing the creek being broken off, all the water of the city north of the creek is without light from that source, at least. The water did not make so much havoc on Main street as was at first reported. Some of the new-filled earth was swept away, and much flooding of cellars was done, but little if anything swept away.

T. H. Hunsinger, very nearly drowned, Friday night, while assisting a poor family to escape from their flooded house in his neighborhood, but Jack being tall managed to keep his head above water and got the family to his residence, where they were safely kept and are yet.

Jacob Neumeier's damage to yard, cellar, etc., will reach about $400. J. M. Olsen had his store damaged to the extent of several hundred dollars. Mrs. Ann Butterfield's house suffered to the extent of $300. Oscar Yaunkeman had carpets spoiled and other damage.

V. Jennings had a number of hogs swept away and other property damaged to the amount of $650. One of the worst wrecked houses was that of belonging to Olin & Pacey, near the bridge on Sixth street, and occupied by Dick Ricketts and Thomas Hill. It was carried two hundred feet or more. Mr. Ricketts had a narrow escape for himself and child, which he was carrying off in his arms, he having fallen three times in deep water.

The women in the French laundry had a narrow escape also. They were taken out after the house had been set adrift. Mr. Besoff had also a close call. He was taken off First street bridge just before the structure fell.

There are almost numberless other losses reported of small amounts. Among them are J. J. Newton, $50; G. H. Brown, $50; Chas. Bosen, loss of lumber and damage to building, $500; Mrs. Clinton, fences and household goods, $500; B. Grant, $300; Wait, Young, $300; C. Whitney, $300; J. H. Pasa, $100; J. P. Weaver, $100; A. D. Foster, tenement house, $30; George H. Jones and roomers, $500; F. A. Burke, $500; S. Werlich, $100; Mrs. Newman, $350; Mrs. Hendricks, $100; Jas. Mithen, $300; Phil. Armour, $500; John Stagg, $200; V. Batton, $400; Mrs. Miller, $500; W. C. Unthank, $200; James F. Sparo, $700 of household goods; Wally Cook $500 in cord wood.

Paul Bonquet had his barn damaged and lost a wagon and some harness. L. H. Hammer had some of his lumber carried off. One of the heaviest personal losers

by the flood was Mr. Dehany. His new opera house was back to within a few feet of the creek, and he had at considerable expense, tried to protect the foundations by driving piles and filling in dirt. This even could not stand the rush of waters, and the building was undermined, causing a large portion of the wall to fall. The basement was filled with water, and so far that has affected the rest of the foundation. It is difficult to determine. One of the side walls is cracked, and it will probably take $5,000 to put the building in as good shape as it was before, and perhaps more. This disaster excites much sympathy, as the public took much pride in the enterprise, and cannot but regret to see such a heavy loss fall on the projector and such a check to the speedy completion of the building.

C. E. Stone's residence, on Vine street, was flooded badly. The washing away of the newly completed Madison street culvert has made much talk. There has been much discussion before about this culvert, some claiming it had cost too much, others that it was not rightly constructed. The fact that it went out first taken by such an evidence of the truth of their assertions, cost the city $9,000, and was intended as a sort of dam as well as bridge; but it seems now that it served the purpose of a dam too well and that of a bridge too poorly. The rush of waters was kept back, by it, thus causing the flood to spread over both sides, and cover property never before affected, and when a large body of water was thus accumulated, it was giving away of the culvert. Let it suddenly loose, thus allowing it to come with accumulated force and volume, sweeping down on the property below, and tearing everything away. The market street bridge, which, on the other hand, was considered very unsafe, and in fact is so now, was so high and had so wide a span that it allowed the water to pass under it. On Monday, the only one between upper Broadway and Eighth street. It looks as if the theories about the improvement of Indian creek will need to be modified.

The C. B. & Q. and Washburn seem not to have been affected. The Milwaukee & St. Paul suffered considerably, and the water was high in the company's bridge at Park's Mills was impassable. The Rock Island train ran out on the C. B. & Q. to Carson. The Northwestern was not able to get trains in or out but yesterday came by Omaha and Blair. Last evening the Rock Island was able to get out on its own track, the Northwestern went by Omaha, and the other roads were running as usual except the Milwaukee & St. Paul, on which travel was still interrupted.

The Bee's first estimate of the loss seems to have been nearly correct. It is now estimated to be $200,000, of which $50,000 fall on the city proper.

The big fish of Lake Tahoe again made his appearance day before yesterday. He suddenly rose in front of the steamer Governor Stanford and disputed her passage. There was quite a rough tussle for about ten minutes, when the fish leaped upward and snapping off the bowsprit, went away with it in its mouth. As the fish is making so much trouble the owners of the steamers will send below for a harpoon to be fired from a cannon, and will try to kill it. Herebefore this fish has only been seen two or three times in the past twenty-five years. In 1858 he attacked a large boat and drowned four Canadians, since which time he has not been seen till this year.

ARMY OFFICER'S TESTIMONY.

Captain Joseph L. Hayden, residing at No. 94 Fourth street, South Boston, Mass., formerly captain in the army, now with the Walworth Manufacturing Company, South Boston, writes, April 29, 1883: "While living in Cambridgeport my wife was afflicted with terrible pains in her back and sides, accompanied with great weakness and loss of appetite. She tried many so-called remedies without avail, growing rapidly worse, when her attention was called to Hunt's Kidney and Liver Pills. She purchased a bottle from Lowell's drug store, in Cambridgeport, and after taking the first dose she began to feel easier, she could sleep and after continuing its use a short time the severe pains in her back and side entirely disappeared, and she is a well woman. Many of our relatives and friends have used Hunt's Remedy with the most gratifying results. I have recommended it many times, and as many times heard the same story. Hunt's Remedy is all that is claimed for it, and a real blessing to all afflicted with Kidney or Liver trouble."

MADE A MAN OF HIM

Mr. C. G. Wheeler, No. 23 Austin Street Cambridgeport, Mass., makes the following remarkable statement. On April 27, 1883, he writes as follows: "I have been troubled with kidney disease for nearly twenty years. Have suffered at times with terrible pains in my back and limbs. I used many medicines, but found nothing reached my case until I took Hunt's Kidney and Liver Pills. I purchased a bottle of A. P. Gilson, 730 Tremont Street, Boston, and before I had used this bottle I found relief, and continuing its use, my pains and weakness all disappeared, and I feel like a new man, with new life and vigor. Hunt's Remedy did wonders for me, and I have no hesitancy in recommending it to all afflicted with kidney or liver diseases, as I am positive that by its use they will find immediate relief. You may use this letter in any way you choose, so that the people may have a sure medicine for the cure of all diseases of kidneys and liver."

TESTIMONIALS.

SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE, Chicago, West Division Railway, Chicago, December 5, 1882.—I, E. W. Felt, Superintendent of the Chicago and North Western Railway, have received from your company since October 1, 1882, about 100 car loads of granite paving blocks and have used them to repair the rails of our street railway tracks in the heart of the city. I have been using your material in this city for many years, and I take pleasure in saying that in my opinion the granite paving blocks furnished by your company are the most regular in shape and perfect in form, and so far as I have been able to judge, are possessed of a durable feature as any material that has ever been offered or laid in the city. Yours, JAS. K. LARK.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN—This is to certify that I have examined a piece of granite taken from the Sioux Falls Granite Quarry, and in my opinion, it is the best stone for paving streets in America. (Signed) HENRY FLAD, Pres. Board Public Improvements.

SOLID SHOT AGAINST Blood Poison.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 17, 1883. In 1878 I was the victim of a terrible Blood Poison, and after being treated by three physicians was confined to my bed, not able to raise my head or to do anything. I was prostrated and reduced in weight from 150 to 130 pounds. I then began the use of SWIFT'S SPECIFIC, and in less than three months my weight was well regained and I have never had any more of the disease since. If it had not been for Swift's Specific, I would have been in my grave. JOHN W. BISTOP.
