In his region of despair sends forth his obedient angels to allure the sons of men to tread the downward path, that they might not be compelled to suffer for eternal ages alone; thus every device is put into the heart of man to cause him to shun the offer of an intercession.

Some so tenaciously hold to the theory of independence that they cause it to be the god they worship.

They scoff at the idea of being compelled to submit upon a substitute, and they exalt their own moral character and defy any god to stigmatize it.

Satish in his region of despair sends forth his obedient angels to allure the sons of men to tread the downward path, that they might not be compelled to suffer for eternal ages alone; thus every device is put into the heart of man to cause him to shun the offer of an intercession.

Dr. Alexander, of Princeton, when his students were to start from the centre of learning to preach, would kneel with them in prayer, exhort them to "make much of the blood of Christ." And every Christian minister who is faithful to his Master, will cause the blood of Christ and the atonement through his blood to be the theme of his ministry.

This is the only way for the rich and the poor, the educated and the illiterate, and after this is realized by man, he humbly depends upon Christ to enter heaven, where there is no distinction of person.

Which will you do? Will you listen while the angels of Heaven are singing Christ the gate and God your glory, and quietly fold your hands and hear the faint echoes dying away. I hope not.
