Princes, potatoes, plants people, evergreen, the Samaritan Nurseries, Druggists $1.50. Col. H. Waters, U. S. district attorney, Kansas City, said: "Samaritan Nurseries cured my niece of epilepsy." Druggists in all states keep it.

The Electric Light in Light-Houses. Springfield (Mass.) Republic. The value of the electric light in light houses is soon to be thoroughly tested in the New York lower harbor; but though electricity is used successfully in many light houses both in England and France, our light-house board do not expect very satisfactory results.

Humbogged Again. I saw so much said about the merits of Hop Bitters, and my wife who was always doctoring, and never well, teased me so urgently to get her some, I concluded to be humbugged again; and I am glad I did, for in less than two months' use of the Bitters, my wife was cured, and she has remained so for eighteen months since. I like such humbugging.—H. T. St. Paul. Pioneer Press.

THE COUNTY BOARD

The county board of supervisors continued in session yesterday. A committee of citizens appeared before the board to induce them to take some action for the relief of those distressed by the flood. The alderman also appeared before the board to see about getting some help from the county in rebuilding the bridges washed away.
