LOCAL BREVITIES.

-Judges Neyille and Wakely presided jointly in the old court room yesterday. -The Missouri Pacific passenger train due from the south at 6:50 a, m, yesterday did not arrive until 11:20, four hours and a half late. -It is said that two additional farms have been secured by the syndicate represented by Mr. C. R.Schaller, viz., the Begley and the Cassidy farms,

-The Musical Union Orchestra plays at Lincoln to-day for the Germania Mennerchor and at the commencement exercises of the university on Wednesday. -The funeral of Margaret Elizabeth, oldest daughter of Herman and Elizabeth Kountze, will take place from the family residence, Tuesday, June 12, at 2;30 p. m.

-Mr. Bandhauer, U. P. depot land agent, Monday found a gold combination badge of a barber and odd fellow. The owner can secure the same by paying for

-Billy Donnelly, one of the small-pox cases, on 18th street, is reported as much better and able to sit up and smoke a cigar, His case was only varioloid.

-The Musical Union Orchestra proved a great acquisition to the Bohemian Turner Society Sunday afternoon and they were highly complimented on their pleasent efficiency.

-Thekla Henning, daughter of A. R Henning, Esq., died at 9 p. m. Sunday, aged 3 years and 11 months. The funeral will take place at 10 o'clock Tuesday from the residence, on Twentieth and Dorcas

-Judges Neville and Wakeley have ex amined the law regarding court reporters, and they have decided that each judge is entitled to one reporter, as under the law the two judges are put on an equality in every respect.

-Mrs, C. E. Walker, a well known and popular speaker from the woman's executive committee of New York, will address a home missionary meeting to be held in the north Presbyterian church on Saunders street next Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

-The report that Mr, Jake Muck, of Baldwin's club room, had the small pox, is found to be erroneous, as he was seen eating a square meal at noon yesterday. The item was obtained from the authorities, and his many friends will be glad to know

-A great excitement was created by the report that the small pox had broken out at the Elkhorn Valley house, and that the flag was out. It went so far that on a honest laboring man was discharged, as his fellow employes were afraid to work with him. The whole thing was a mistake, there not being a sick person in the house. The report originated from the fact that a man just arrived from Ireland took off his red shirt and hung it out of the window.

-Quite an indignation meeting was held on Fourteenth and Dodge about yesthrhad been thrown out of the window of the room occupied by a small pox patient in Kuony's Hall. A little girl picked up the towels and carried them away, and if they really came from that room it may be imagined that it was a dangerous proceeding and liable to scatter the disease no one knows where. It is bad enough with the flag out and windows up, but the patient a reported as much better.

IN MEMORIAM.

Resolutions Adopted by the Lutheran Sunday School.

WHEREAS, God in His inscrutable wisdom has seen proper to remove by death Albert M. Leisenring, a member of our Sunday-school, and whereas, we desire, in view of this beasave- $100 ment, to give a suitable expression of our feelings; therefore,

RESOLVED, That whilst we deeply deplore the early departure of our esteemed friend and brother, we nevertheless yield with proper submission to Him who cannot err and who eventnates every silliction to the good of His children.

RESOLEED, That in the death of A. M. Leisenring his friends have lost an agreeable and loving companion, the Sabbath school a punctual and diligent scholar, and the church a willing and efficient member. RESOLVED, That we rejoice in being able to bear testimony to his Christian character, and that we will gladly cherish his memory. RESOLVED, That in his departure we are taught the lesson of our own mortality, the uncertainty of life and the urgent duty of preparation for the world to come

RESOLVED, That we sincerely sympathize with the family who have lost so beloved a son and brother, and that we commend them to Him who comforts His people in all their sor-

RESOLVED, That these resolutions be published in the city papers, and that our secretary be requested to farnish a copy of the same to the family of the deceased.
