A Large Variety of Capital News.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The jury in the star route case this morning brought in a verdict of not guilty.

"You can ask the jury whether they have any communication to make to the court," said Judge Wylie to the clerk when the criminal court, hearing the star route case, re-assembled this morning.

The foreman, in reply, stated that the jury had agreed upon a verdict, and a painful silence fell upon the court room, only to be broken by wild shouts of applause when, in clear tones, the voice of the foreman stated that the verdict was "not guilty."

Immediately the decorum of the court of justice was forgotten, and cheers resounded from all quarters of the crowded room.

There was a large gathering of friends of the star route defendants at Col. Ingersoll's house to-night.

At the conclusion of the speech making Colonel Ingersoll invited the crowd into the house where liquid refreshments were spread.

COMMENTS ON THE VERDICT.

A TALK WITH BLISS.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Mr. Bliss, when asked to-night what he thought of the verdict, said it had been a surprise to him as well as to his associate counsel.

Speaking of further proceedings against the defendants who had just been acquitted, he said he thought the cases against Kellogg, Brady, and others indicted with Brady, would go over till fall.
