DORSEY SPEAKS.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—S. W. Dorsey was serenaded late this evening by the colored republican club of this city. He made a brief speech in acknowledgement of the courtesy, in which he said: "I thank you for the heart you have shown in calling here this evening, and for the honor you not only confer upon me, but for all the defendants. I thank you, not only for all the defendants, but their families, for the courage you have shown in the presence of all the dithorator that the government has tried to put upon me in plastering the graves of mothers and the cradles of babies with infamy by unjust power. You are brave and strong enough to raise up your voice and your right hand against this attempted injustice. I thank you for the pluck, men like you can show in looking in the face of power. But over and above all that, this verdict has told the story in whose presence humanity will bow down. Possibly not this year or next, but the time will come when it will be pointed to as Manley pointed to the Warren Hastings. 'The trembling wires of intelligence that bore the message of acquittal to Berlin, Moscow and Doinin, told the poor, lowly and hopeless that there were yet twelve men to be found who would do justly by them; that there was not a government large enough to use not a public treasury fruitful enough, there were not leaders of gold thick enough, there was not executive power great enough to reduce the judgment of twelve honest men.' This trial and this verdict has placed upon the books of justice a splendid record of the manhood of men. The jury was made up of democrats and republicans, colored men, white men, Protestants, Catholics, Atheists; all agreed that the man charged were not guilty. So it turns out that in the District of Columbia, where the cloud of power casts its shadow over every individual, twelve men could be found who would bend the pregnant hinges of the knee that thrive might follow favoring. The halo of glory and truth will hang about them as long as they live; it will decorate every thatched cottage that has been built, or will be built in the next thousand years. Good bye, I thank you."

A LETTER FROM DORSEY.

EX-Senator Dorsey has written the following letter to the newly elected secretary of the republican national committee, Gen. Jno. A. Martin, of Atchison, Kas: "DEAR SIR:—At the time when I was confined in a dark room, unable to see the walls, I received a letter from you. I supposed an answer was sent you. But it turns out the stenographic notes were never read. I hope the secretary of the republican national committee, at the request of Gen. Garfield, and accepted the place at the earnest solicitation of Gen. Arthur, representing the Grant side of the house, and Wm. E. Chandler, representing the Blaine side, I made the same request of Gen. McCormick, who was my predecessor, that you have made of me. I had at that time a fanciful notion that a record had been kept of the republican party that showed its life and purpose, that would leave a permanent history of an honorable existence, and show what had transpired in '56, '60, '68, and '72; that that record belonged to the republican party, and that the secretary was the proper custodian of it. Chandler gave McCormick no records. Mr. McCormick told me he had no records to give. I have nothing more to give you than what I have given me. I have a great mass of papers relating to the campaign. They are chiefly letters, addressed to me, and letters written by me, in which no one could have the slightest intimation, except to obtain curious information. When I accepted the secretaryship I made a condition that not a penny of money subscribed for political purposes should come into my hands. There never was a dollar of subscribed funds received by me personally. By my direction, but all my personal expenses, and the expenses of the clerks serving with me, were paid from my own pocket, amounting to over $1,300. The only records I have are the paid checks of my own contributions. The bank book showing the charge of my own folly. I think best to keep as a reminder of the splendid gratification of disunion power. In the midst of the storm brought about by the efforts I had put forth under its direction and in its behalf, a brutal assault was made upon me as leader of the committee, when I was not present to defend myself, and not one among the forty members had the courage or manhood to resent the miserable cowardice of an ambitious hypocrite. But bear in mind that justice will come but be written by the hand of honor. So far as I am personally concerned, if there is any paper in my possession, or any suggestion I can make, I will be gratified to respond to your call. Sincerely yours, STEPHEN A. DORSEY."

The Pennsylvania Railroad.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—The Pennsylvania railroad stockholders' privilege of subscribing to the new stock of the company, expired this afternoon. Although the actual allotment of subscriptions cannot be learned until computations are made, which will take ten days, officers of the company say there is no doubt that the entire allotment, amounting to 100,000 shares, will be taken. For some time the rumor has been current that the Pennsylvania railroad company intended leasing the lines of the Lehigh railroad company. The stock has not been disturbed in any perceptible way until today, when it took a leap of nearly five dollars a share. This sudden activity and enormous rise comes of the fact that on Third street today the rumored lease was given high color by assurances that an agreement had been perfected and that the Pennsylvania railroad company had taken the road and guaranteed a dividend from 10 to 15 per cent on the Lehigh Valley road's capital stock.

The St. Joe Saengerfest.

ST. JOE, Mo., June 15.—The saengerfest opened with every prospect of success. The city is finely decorated. The Omaha Masonic choir is in the best of spirits, and the Fourth Infantry band is prima. They excel. Big orchestras arrived this morning. The grand concerts are an assured success.

THE OLD WORLD.

CHILI AND PERU.

LIMA, June 15.—The following particulars relative to the terms of peace are published here, taken from letters stolen from a special courier en route to Gen. Iglesias: Chili not to forfeit territory above the parallel of 29° 20' S. Chile to be divided into two parts, one to be given to Peru, the other to be given to Chili. The net profit of 1,000,000 tons, deducting expense, be equally divided between the Chilean and Peruvian bondholders. These profits are only to be used for the islands now worked, as the future mines found in the unworked territories belong exclusively to Chili, who can dispose of such newly discovered mines as will. Chili does not hold herself responsible for any independence of Peru. Chili holds sovereignty of the Lobo Islands until sufficient guarantees to fulfill the sale of 1,000,000 tons. When the treaty is ratified Chili turns over to Peru 5 per cent of the net proceeds from the Lobo Islands. Lastly, commercial relations and indemnity to the Chilean citizens will be discussed afterwards.

GENERAL FOREIGN NOTES.

THE GERMAN PARLIAMENT.

BERLIN, June 15.—The committee of the lower house of the Reichstag, on the church bill, has approved a clause of the measure, with an amendment allowing bishops recognized by the state to exercise their functions outside their dioceses. All amendments to the sixth clause, which repeats the provisions of the May laws inconsistent with the bill, were rejected. The reading of the bill was completed by the committee. Herr Windthorst, Ultramontane leader, and the entire party, are undecided whether to vote for the second reading of the church bill. The Emperor will have an interview with the King of Denmark at Wiesbaden Saturday. This will be the first interview since 1879. It is probably intended to make further arrangements for strengthening the relations between Denmark and Germany.

BOARDING MAFUNGA.

PARIS, June 15.—Admiral Piorre, commander of the French fleet at Madagascar, in a report of the bombardment of Majunga, May 16th, says he demanded the surrender of the place, but received an evasive reply. Five vessels opened fire on the town, and three fired, mounting thirty guns quickly silenced. The Hova quarter of the town was destroyed, but the French factory and most of the American houses escaped injury. The garrison of 3,000 men retreated. The French sustained no loss. They occupied the town and are collecting customs.

ANOTHER BRIGHT SPEECH.

LONDON, June 15.—John Bright, responding to a speech of Lord Granville, at a banquet given for the necessity of extending the freedom of trade and franchise, and redistribution of seats in the commons. Referring to India, he said he hoped the majority of the commons would be supported in carrying out his policy of wisdom and justice. He reproached the course of the obstructionists in the commons, who, he said, allied with the Irish rebel party, were doing their utmost to make it impossible for the house to do any work.

THE SENTENCES.

LONDON, June 15.—The Times says that the sentences of the dynamite conspirators, Gallagher, Whitehead, Wilson and Curran, are severe, but considerately taking into account the offense, they received no more than their deserts. All the London journals approve of the sentence.

A Talk With Bishop Spaulding.

SPRINGFIELD, June 15.—In an interview with Bishop Spaulding this morning, the distinguished prelate corroborated the statement that the archbishops of the United States have been commanded to assemble at Rome next October, to arrange a program for a plenary council to be held in America. The business of the council will only partially to ecclesiastical offices in this country, not involving Irish affairs. It is three months since Bishop Spaulding left Rome, and the above was the pontifical intentions at the time of his departure. The plans for the establishment of a Catholic university in this country are immature.

Sidetracked in Mexico.

GALVESTON, June 15.—A Bastianese special says: Night before last a train from Monterrey, Tex., was sidetracked on the body of a Mexican lying on the track. An armed force of Mexicans arrested and jailed all the hands of the next train that passed. Another train reached the station this morning and was sidetracked. It has not yet been released. The affair will probably receive diplomatic notice. It is thought American capitalists will use the case as a test of the Mexican law for the protection of property.

A Faithless Wife Killed.

KANSAS CITY, June 15.—John Rayer, a mechanic aged 24, this afternoon shot and killed Ada Thorne, aged 18, an inmate of a bagnio on West Third street. Rayer married the girl about a year ago at Leavenworth. She afterward left him, and several weeks ago entered a life of shame in this city. Rayer, while under the influence of liquor, visited her this afternoon, and attempted to persuade her to return. Failing in this he drew a revolver and fired five times, three balls entering the woman's head. She died almost instant through her heart. R. loading, he fired twice at the other inmates and twice at an officer who attempted to arrest him, but without effect. He was then overpowered and taken to the station.

Orth Stein was Indicted to-day by the grand jury for the murder of Geo. Greedick.

Judge Krum's stealings.

ST. LOUIS, June 15.—Application was made this afternoon in the probate court, by an attorney for Mrs. Manning, for the return of the Ford estate, of which the missing ex-Judge Chester H. Krum was administrator, for the appointment of another person to take charge of the estate. The attorney stated that from an examination of the records it was found false statements had been filed in the court. Mrs. Manning, in an interview, stated that Krum had from $40,000 to $50,000 which was due her; that he had failed to make any settlement with her for three years; that his replies to her inquiries were all evasive.

Clarence Newcomb, of Thiel's detective bureau, returned to day and confirmed his previous statement that Krum had traveled with him from San Francisco to Oden. Krum was registered at the Palace hotel, San Francisco, under the name of James Rolly, and traveled under that name. His ticket was for Salt Lake City, but at Ogden he suddenly changed his mind, and saying he would go to Park City, a mining town in Utah, he gave him the slip. Nothing has been heard of Krum's whereabouts since.

The Ashland Criminals.

CATLETTSBURG, Ky., June 15.—The preliminary hearing of the case of Wm. Diney (colored), the newly arrested prisoner charged with committing a murder with two other negroes, the one on the Gibbons st., and the brother as Ashland, Ky., continued to Monday at the request of detectives. Ellis, Neal and Craft were tried, found guilty and ordered to be hanged for the murders. On the commission of Ellis, who was afterwards lynched, Neal and Craft have been contesting the case in the higher courts for the past six months, and were recently refused a new trial. The arrest of Diney on newly discovered evidence puts an entirely new phase on these celebrated murders. There is great excitement in Kentucky over the arrest of Diney in Ohio. Including Ellis and the victims of the outrage, sixteen lives have already been forfeited.
