The Recommendations of Generals Crook and Schofield-The Interfor Department Refuses to Receive Them.

Special Dispatch to Tun Bun. CROOK DISPATCH.

Washington, June 22.—The following telegram was received at the war depart-ment June 20: Pesidio, San Francisco, Cala., June 20. To Adjutant General: The following dispatch was just received from Gen. Crook. I recommend for the present at least the management of surrendered Chiricahuas be left entirely in the hands of Crook, that both the war and interior department give him full authority and means to carry out this policy. This seems to be the only possible way of a successful issue. Evidently the Chiricahuas cannot be treated arbi trarily as prisoners of war. Gen. Crook alone has power to control them. He telegraphs, "I see by the papers that Secretary Teller declines to receive on the San Carlos reservation any Chiracahuas Apaches except women and children. If these Indians are not fed they must either starve or go back to the war path. They are now as thoroughly subjugated as it is possible for them to be. By nature they are so suspicious and vigilant that at no time will they camp in one body, but occupy different elevated points, making surprise and destruction of the entire band an impossibility. In like manner in surrendering, they would not trust themselves in our hands at once, but came dropping in from all sides in small fragments. They would say, 'We give ourselves up to do with us as you please.' Had I seized upon the first who came in, no others would have followed. in, no others would have been as bad as the whole number. Chitto in his raid through Arizona and New Mexico had but twenty-six men, Hiranimo in his recent depredation in Chihuahua had less than forty. While it is repellant to my feelings to put these red handed murderers on the reservation, I reflect they are no worse than were the 6,000 Apaches I put on the reservation ten years ago. Then I had nothing special Dispatch to Tuk Bek. but soldiers and scouts who had subjugated them ro organize and discipline 6,000, but to discipline and control this handful of Chiricuhuas I would have not only soldiers and scouts but the valuable assistance of all other Indians, who would watch with jealousy the slightest movement the Chiricuahuas might make. I am satisfied the Chiricushus would not use tobacco in any form, the interest have surrendered to the Mexicans under on the fund that year to be added to the any circumstances, and if I am not sustained now they will not surrender to the United States again. A TALK WITH TELLER.

dians. I shall be only to glad to get rid

Secretary Teller was asked to-night whether he had reached any conclusion with regard to the disposition of Crook's captives. He said he was willing to take children and unmarried women, to put the former to school, the latter upon the reservation, but as to the others they should not go upon the reservation. His reasons were -first, that the Indians now upon the reservation, the Indian agents and white settlers in the surrounding country did not want them there; secondly, putting them upon the reservation would practically leave them loose, because they would only remain until next spring when they would go upon the war path again; thirdly, his appropriations for the support of the Indians would not allow his keeping four or five hundred of Crook's captives. Secretary Teller said, also, he did not think thore would be any disagreement between himself and the secretary of war as to the disposition of not inclined to move in the matter at these Indians and that when Crook understood the circumstances he would not ask to have them placed on the reservation. The secretary said further, that while his appropriation would not permit his undertaking to care for the captured roads, all of whom are quietly standing oners. He thought the war department orrespondence of San Francisco Chronicle. New York, May 24.—While New York is virtually a great bazar of trade, Brooklyn is a city of dwellings; while tenements, in ill-kept streets, with little room for the city's gowth, except sky-wards, Brooklyn's 560,000 people inhabit frame dwellings, set in ample gardens, on wide, long streets that have all of Long Island to extend upon. Grocers, druggists, milliners, tailors and furniture men are the principal business men of Brookyn, and so much is store-keeping suborlinated to house-keeping there that the meanest features of the city, instead of, as n New York, the grandest. It used to be literally true that Brooklyn was the "bed room of New York," since all there was to Brooklyn was the homes of those who drew their living from the metropolis. The only reason this is not true now is that land being much cheaper there than in New York, many New York manufacturers have moved their factories terests there. But while this keeps city, the great multitude still cross to New York every morning and back again every evening. High wind and torrents of rain visited Columbia, Mo., to-day. The storm par-tially unroofed the university, court house, Christian college and several residences.

New York, May 24.—While New York is virtually a great bazar of trade, Brooklyn is a city of dwellings; while New York's 1,250,000 people are, for the New York's 1,250,000 people are, for the The Scribes Arrested While Priming rails, the others badly smashed. Four persons slightly injured.

A New Pacific Road. It does look as though the only way for the Union Pacific railroad to command traffic on its line is to extend its road to the Pacific tide water. With the completion of the new Chicago, Burlington & Quincy line to Salt Lake via the Denver & Rio Grande and Burlington & Missouri roads, the Central Pacific has five outlets to the east and is sending reights Beirnes was bailed and went to his home in Ashland.

It appears the mayor of Covington received information as to the locality the belligerents were to meet, and sent a police officer over the Chesapeake & Ohio railway to Hanover Junction. When he got off the train the officer discovered the wants to or not. At present, with rivals springing up on all sides, it is at the merthousands of Brooklyn's workers in that had been arranged for this afternoon, but cy of the Central so far as through busiten minutes more would not have elapsed before the fight would take place. As it was it would have been all over but for some disagreement between McC. and the present summer bids fair to bring some big moves in the railroad business. Some railroad men claim that all this only means a big game of bluff on the part of the Union Pacific to bring the Central to terms, but the general opinion is that the management mean business and will put the road through.—Eureka Sentinel.

SALT RHEUM

Wonderful Cures of Salt Rheum when Physicians Hospitals and all other Means Failed.

BALT RHEUM.

I have been a great sufferer with Salt Rheum for thirty years, commencing in my head and face and extending over the greater part of my body. I have taken gallons of medicines for the blood of different kinds, and tried good physicians, all of which did me no good, and I came to the conclusion that I could not be cured. But a friend called my attention to CUNICURA REMEDIES. Got them and used them until my skin is perfectly smooth and I consider myself entirely cured. Yours truly, B. WILSON LORD, AGAWAN, MASS.

SALT RHEUM.

CUTICUA REMEDIES are the greatest medicines on earth. Had the worst case Salt Rheum in this country. My mother had it twenty years, and in fact-died from it. I believe CUTICURA would have saved her life. My arms, breast and head were covered for three years, which nothing relieved or cured until I used the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great with names) externally.

NEWARK, Omo. SALT RHEUM.

SALT RHEUM.

I had tried everything I had heard of in the east and west for Salt kheum. My case was considered a very bad one. My face, head and some parts of my body were almost raw. Head covered with scabs and sores. Suffering fearful. One very skilful physician said he would rather not treat it, and some of them think now I am only cured temporarily. I think not, for I have not a particle of Salt Rheum about me, and my case is considered wonderful. Thanks to Cuticua Resember.

SALT RHEUM. No system of remedies ever compounded so thoroughly eradicate the diseases for which they are intended as the Cuticura hemsdies. Many remarkable cures have come to my knowledge, and I feet safe in warranting satisfaction if directions are followed. Medicines that infallibly cure Salt Rheum as Cuticura Remedies do will cure any kind of skin diseases.
