

SOMETHING EVERY LADY OUGHT TO KNOW.

There exists a means of securing a soft and brilliant complexion, no matter how poor it may naturally be. Hagan's Magnolia Balm is a delicate and harmless article, which instantly removes freckles, tan, redness, roughness, eruptions, vulgar flushings, etc., etc. So delicate and natural are its effects that its use is not suspected by anybody. No lady has the right to present a disfigured face in society when the Magnolia Balm is sold by all druggists for 75 cents.

The Sullivan-Dodson Case Once More Brought Before the Police.

Renewed Threats of Severe Treatment of the Old Man.

The readers of The Bee will remember the Sullivan-Dodson scandal which occurred a few weeks ago...

Since the publication of this sensation, the Dodson family moved over to Twenty-third and Franklin streets...

A prominent official told a Bee reporter yesterday that they did not propose to stand any more such nonsense as that, and authorized us to say that if it was continued they would give the old man a terrible punishment.

THE SCOTT LAW CONSTITUTIONAL.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, June 26.—The supreme court today decided the Scott liquor law constitutional.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, June 26.—Following is the syllabus in the Scott law case. The statute of April 17th, 1883, entitled "An act to further provide against evil results from traffic in intoxicating liquors, authorizing the annual assessments upon the business of trafficking in intoxicating liquors," is a valid, constitutional enactment.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, June 26.—A special to The Tribune from Little Missouri, says: That Count DeMores, who has recently opened one of the largest cattle and sheep ranches in the west, expending a million dollars recently, had a difficulty with an outlaw named O'Donnell, leader of a band of desperadoes last night.

The Manager of the Florence Cut-Off Sets Down on the Set-Off.

Which Would Demoralize His Working Force.

The Bee reporter Monday met W. E. Phelps, who has succeeded Mr. J. P. Vincent as general purchasing agent for the Florence cut-off, the latter gentleman having worked for over two years with out rest, and being now bound for a visit to his old home in Pennsylvania, where he will remain for some months.

Mr. Phelps in the course of the conversation alluded to the Barnes-Nugent set-off, which was at first announced to take place on the North Ponca creek, on the line of his work.

"I have made up my mind," said he, "when I first heard of the affair to stop it if possible. I could not allow the right to take place on my territory as it would utterly demoralize my force and throw me out of at least two days' work."

Of course it has since been determined to have the contest at the driving park, and to use soft gloves in order to prevent interference by the officers, but this shows Mr. Phelps' sensible view of the matter.

ARMY ORDERS. To enable him to comply with paragraph 6, special orders No. 111, current series, headquarters of the army, Second Lieutenant James A. Leyden, Fourth Infantry, is hereby relieved as judge advocate of the general court martial convened at Fort Omaha, Neb., by special orders No. 46, current series from these headquarters.

First Lieutenant Edward L. Bailey, Fourth Infantry, is hereby detailed as judge advocate of the general court martial convened at Fort Omaha, Neb., by special orders No. 46, current series, from these headquarters.

Hospital Steward Charles Hillebrand, U. S. A., having reported at these headquarters in compliance with paragraph 3, special orders No. 110, current series, from the adjutant general's office, will proceed to Fort Washakie, Wyo., and report to the commanding officer thereof for duty.

The quartermaster's department will furnish the necessary transportation, and the subsistence department commutation of rations for the journey, it being impracticable to carry cooked rations.

The instructions of the Department Commander of the 14th inst., directing Lieutenant Colonel E. C. Mason, Fourth Infantry, acting assistant inspector general, to proceed to Fort Hartsuff, Neb., and return, on public business, are hereby confirmed.

The instructions from these headquarters of the 21st inst., directing the commanding officer Fort Douglas, Utah, to annul the contract of Acting Assistant Surgeon Samuel O. L. Potter, U. S. A., are hereby so amended as to direct that the contract of Acting Assistant Surgeon Potter be annulled at his own request.

INDEPENDENCE DAY. It will be gloriously celebrated at the Driving Park.

The celebration of the Fourth of July in Omaha promises to become an interesting event this year, as an interesting programme of amusements has been arranged to take place at the driving park.

The programme will consist of trotting, running, hurdle, chariot, pony and Indian racing, sack races, wheelbarrow races and pole climbing, and music and dancing in Floral hall.

There will be a grand five mile ladies race for a purse of $500, between Miss Nellie Burke, of Omaha, the renowned equestrienne; Miss Jennie West, of Texas; Miss Taylor, of St. Paul, Minn., changing horses every mile.

Grand hurdle race, the first ever seen in Omaha. Mile heats over three hurdles.

Grand free-for-all trotting race, for a purse of $500. Mile heats, best three in five. First money, $150; second money, 100; third money, $50.

Newspaper carriers' pony race—For a purse of $50—$25 to first, $15 to second and $10 to third. Open only to ponies that have been used at least 30 days on newspaper routes, and to be ridden by owner. No entrance fee.
