

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Wednesday Morning, June 27.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier... By Mail... OFFICE: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

See Joseph Reiter's spring styles. Cheap Railroad Tickets at Bushnell's. The city council meets again this evening.

Kiel's hotel seems to be doing a thriving business. Thirty-one arrivals in one day is not bad.

There was not a prisoner in the calaboose yesterday morning to bring before the police court.

The Episcopalians are to hold a social Thursday evening at the residence of Mrs. J. W. Chapman.

The girls of St. Francis academy are to give their annual exhibition Thursday morning at 9 o'clock.

The friends of Max Mehn are pushing his name forward as a good one to go along with that of Sheriff.

The Pottawattamie delegates have gone to Des Moines enthusiastic for Judge Reed, and very hopeful as to the chances of success.

The Methodist church at Macedonia was injured by recent storms, being partially moved off its foundation. It will cost $500 to put it in shape again.

Thomas Green & Sons yesterday got out a search warrant for some blinds washed away by the flood, and supposed to have been picked up and appropriated by another party.

The district court reconvenes next Friday for the hearing of several cases continued until that time. There will be no jury trials, however, the jurymen having been excused.

Rev. Bishop Dubs preached in German last evening at the Evangelical church in this city. The church was crowded and the discourse listened to with evident attention and eagerness.

Council Bluffs is to have an elegant Masonic temple, to be built this summer at the junction of Broadway and Bancroft streets. It is to be a three story brick, one hundred feet square.

If the newspaper men of the city don't flash bright paragraphs it won't be Seaman's fault. He yesterday "let 'em up for the boys" in the shape of his No. 2 pencils, which are in fact A. No. 1.

Max Mohr and his Creston house seems to be growing in prosperity, as indicated by the increase in business, which warrants him in going ahead with his proposed new building on adjoining property, thus giving him more room.

The Driving Park association throws the gate open this week so that all who desire may drive on the mile track, so that the track may be worked down to the best condition possible for next week's races.

A. Schroeder, the saloonist, was discharged yesterday, the evidence being rather against the story told by Officer Warner that the place was open after hours. Several witnesses testified that it was closed on time.

The Harmony band is to go to Macedonia on the Fourth, not to Malvern, as erroneously stated in Tax Buz and largely copied by the other papers of the city. It is to be hoped they will now copy the correction.

The case of the Keitzenstein boys for malicious mischief in breaking John Kramer's windows, has been continued until to-day. Kramer, in turn, has been arrested for threatening the boys with a revolver, and he is to be heard Saturday.

The very pertinent and practical query is raised as to what becomes of all the whisky taken away from the drunks brought in by the police. The bottles when confiscated sometimes are full, but they don't stay so. Does it evaporate?

Mulqueen's new frame building on Main street is fast approaching completion, and makes quite an improvement. It is a double store with tenement rooms above, the building being 40 by 60 feet. The exterior is being painted and it will soon be ready for occupancy.

McClunk's new cracker factory will probably be started in active operation by the first of August. The work on the building is being pushed right along, and as soon as the roof is on the machinery, which is already here, will be immediately put in place.

Among the marked improvements on Main street is the brick building, two stories and two stores, being erected by J. Peters and William Plummer. The contractor is John Hammer, and he is crowding the work to completion as fast as possible consistent with thoroughness.

Wet weather has prevented any active step being taken in the building up of the old agricultural works as a foundry and machine shop. Mr. Hendine expects if rain holds off, and brick can be had, that by next week work on the new enterprise will begin in earnest.

The case of the state vs. Paulus Bleckert, for assault, was the subject of a strong and very loud discussion in Justice Schurz's court yesterday between Attorneys Sears and Lindt. One reason assigned for the talk being so loud is that the defendant is deaf and dumb and that the attorneys were trying to make him hear. Lindt came out ahead and got the case continued until the 9th.

The sidewalk along the east side of Main street has been narrowed from twelve feet to ten feet, in accordance with the late action of the council, in order to give greater breadth to the street. Some of the property owners on the west side object to narrowing, however, and still maintain the full twelve feet. This may cause trouble.

The communication of our worthy citizen Col. Cochran, urging the property owners along the creek to fill the adjoining streets at their own expense, was printed in the democratic paper by order of the council, and hence was paid notice. We are not informed whether the favorable comments of the editor were to be paid for or not, but probably not, as it would be difficult to prove any "value received."

If some poor widow, who is struggling, by the aid of friends, to hold her home, which chances to be on the creek, should write a letter to the council, asking that the tax be not forced upon her until she can recover a little from the losses of the flood, would the council order this printed in the democratic sheet?

and would it appear, with or without comments? Some of the Main street property owners who have been refusing to pay for the filling on Main street, claiming that the city should pay for the work out of the general taxes, have changed their mind, and instead of sending or being sued, yesterday "shrew up their checks and settled. Others are still holding out.

There was quite a demand for marriage licenses yesterday. Among those granted were: George A. Kellogg, of this city and Cecilia Sheehan, of Oxford, Iowa; John Roof and Amanda Longly, both of this city; Hans Madison and Christine Fredericksen, both of Neola; C. H. Orvis and Zella V. Smith, both of this city.

The organ of St. Jacob evidently needs badly. It gives "lickin'" to "anonymous scribbler," "leatherhead," "foreigner," "weak intellect," etc. When it recovers sufficiently it will answer the query of how much it is willing to pay toward filling Mynter street, and how much property it owns along the creek.

Council Bluffs Lodge No. 40, Knights of Pythias, has elected as officers for the ensuing year: H. A. Bolles, P. C.; J. E. Matalife, G. C.; George W. McCoy, V. C.; John Hammon, prolator; C. H. Day, S. M. at A.; A. H. Howe, K. of R. and S.; C. D. Waters, M. of E.; Mat Beltz, I. G.; J. B. Dobson, O. G.

Peter Beck, the Main street grocer, has had hardly time to realize the joy at being the father of a bouncing boy, when he is suddenly plunged into the deepest grief by the death of the babe. The little one seemed to promise long life, but on Monday night was taken very ill, and breathed its last yesterday morning.

Mrs. T. Schull has opened a dress-making establishment at 105 Pearl street, where she is prepared to do fashionable dressmaking of all kinds.

They Give an Excellent Finish to the School Year and Now Bound Into a Vacation. The pupils of St. Joseph's Academy, under the direction of their efficient teacher, Prof. J. J. Slattery, gave their fourth annual exhibition last evening, in St. Joseph's Academy hall, which was largely attended by the parents and their many friends.

The exercises consisted of many essays, declamations and songs, which were listened to and warmly applauded by all present. Among those who took part in the exercises the following deserve especial credit: Masters Philip Paschel, John Keating, Wm. Nason and Frank Wickham, who surprised all present by their elocutionary efforts.

The following is the programme of the evening: Opening song... Pupil John Keating... Declaration... Wm. Nason... Declaration... Louis Paschel... Declaration... Michael Hasky... Declaration... Thos. Coyne... Essay... Phil. Paschel... Declaration... George Heenan... Declaration... Wm. Morris... Declaration... Frank Wickham... Declaration... John Keating... Charles Langmade... Declaration... George Miller... Declaration... Jos. Daniger... Declaration... James Mulqueen... Declaration... Jos. Young... Declaration... Dennis Sullivan... Declaration... John Franny... Song... Pupil

As a finale came the distribution of premiums, which consisted of a large number of books, which made the boyish eyes of the recipients sparkle with delight. Rev. Father McMenomy gave one of his happy addresses, and the school year of the St. Joseph academy closed.

There has been a boys' school here for ten years, but it has not been dignified by an academic course and building but four years. During this time it has grown in numbers and in grade of scholarship.

During the year just closed its enrollment has reached a total of about a hundred pupils, pretty evenly divided between Prof. Slattery and Mrs. Kelly. The management as well as the instruction of Prof. Slattery has proved excellent, and he has shown the happy gift of inspiring those under him with some of the enthusiasm in study and courteousness of manner which so characterizes his own life. He intends spending most of his vacation in St. Louis and will be heartily welcomed back with the opening of the fall term.

Searsuekers, chambers and skirting just received at Harkness Bros. The CAUGHY HOUSE on Broadway is one of the best hotels of its size in the west.

Merrily Mated. Yesterday afternoon there was a happy gathering of friends at the residence of H. A. Smith, on Frank street, to witness the giving in marriage of his daughter, Miss Zella V. Smith, to Charles H. Orvis, one of Council Bluffs' well known young men. The ceremony was happily performed by Rev. Cyrus Hamlin, the pastor of the Congregational church, and the well wishes and congratulations of those present will be heartily re-echoed and renewed by many others throughout the city, where both of the contracting parties are so well and favorably known.

Elegant new lawns and Foulard cambrics just received at Harkness Bros. Open for work, Pryor's Box Job Printing Office, 7 Pearl street.

The New Church. The contract for building the basement of the new Catholic church here was let yesterday to James Wickham and J. Murphy, the price being $10,000. The basement only will be completed this year, thus allowing it to settle well before the rearing upon it of the structure proper. The new church is to be 64 feet by 139 feet, and is to face on Sixth street, the site being between St. Francis academy for girls and St. Joseph's academy for boys. It will cost $45,000. Mr. McNamara, of St. Louis, is the architect.

Rev. Father McMenomy has, during his long pastorate, proved himself such a successful manager of the church's temporal as well as spiritual matters, that there is no doubt that the enterprise, in his hands, will be successfully carried to a completion, and the building of such a church as proposed will prove a crowning feature to his years of faithful labor as shepherd of the large flock he has gathered about him.

Mandel is offering some special bargains in household goods and furniture.

FUN ON THE FOURTH.

The Arrangements Completed for Celebrating the Day. Many Attractions Offered and Instruments for Visitors From Elsewhere.

Arrangements are about completed for the celebration of the Fourth here, and every indication points to a most successful and enjoyable time. If the weather is favorable there will be a crowd here from all points of the compass, all the railroads having agreed to carry passengers at half rates.

A grand parade will be formed at 10 o'clock, on Sixth street, under the marshaling of C. B. Daily, the head of the column resting on the junction of that street with Willow avenue. In this procession the civic and military societies and citizens generally are invited to join.

The line of march fixed upon is as follows: West on Willow avenue to Seventh street, south on Seventh to Fifth avenue, east on Fifth avenue to Main street, north on Main to Broadway, east on Broadway to the Methodist church, at which point the column will counter-march to Pearl street, south on Pearl to First avenue, from which point the column will enter Bayless park forming around the grand stand, at which point the exercises will be held. The Union Pacific band is to furnish the music. The Declaration of Independence will be read by A. T. Flickinger, Esq., and the oration will be delivered by Col. John H. Keating.

These exercises are expected to close in time to allow the people to reach the driving park by noon, where the grand barbecue will be given. George Drake is to have charge of this, and has selected as the victim a three-year-old from William Plummer's herd, weighing 2,000 pounds. The admission to the grounds is to be fifty cents, and all will be allowed a free feast at the barbecue, and given an afternoon's sport, such as has never yet been had at the driving park.

At 1 o'clock the sport will begin, the first event on the programme being a trotting race, 2:50 class, for a purse of $400.

There will be an exhibition of ladies' equestrianism, for lady contestants in this congressional district. The first prize is an elegant saddle and bridle and a handsome whip. The second prize is a silver cup.

A handicap foot race of 300 yards, for a purse of $50, will also come off during the afternoon, together with a greased pole and greased pig contest.

A $400 purse is hung up for a trotting race in the 2:30 class. There are also to be riding exercises by young ladies and gentlemen, and awards made for grace of manner, good riding and superior horsemanship. To boys under 15 the following premiums will be given: First, a saddle and bridle; second, a horse blanketing; third, a pair of spurs and whip; fourth, a bridle; fifth, a whip; sixth, a pair of spurs; seventh, a saddle blanket.

One of the leading events of the day will be the free-for-all for a purse of $400. Some very fast horses promise to show their speed in this race. Among them will be Maggie F., Loafar, Little Sioux, Big Soap, Little Miss, Dutch Girl, Lillian and Lucrece. This race cannot but be a big event.

A chance will be given for gentlemen's roadsters to show up, there being on the programme a double team trot, mile heats, best two in three, to wagon. The first prize is blankets and hoods for team, the second prize the entrance money.

With such a programme the afternoon will be crowded with sport. In the evening there will be an open air concert in the park by the Union Pacific band, and a grand display of fireworks. There will also be a ball at Do-hany's opera house.

Nor is the fun to end here. The driving park association has arranged for some line races on the next day, the 5th. The programme consists of a race for gentlemen's roadsters, single, to wagon, the first prize being a set of single harness, the second the entrance money.

Then will follow the other races, one for the 2:34 class. Purse $800, first $180, second $75, third $45. 2:40 class. Purse $300, first $180, second $75, third $45. 2:22 class. Purse $400, first $240, second $100, third $60.

There is no doubt from present indications that all the races will fill. The entries are to close on the evening of the 28th. Secretary Bowman left last evening for Oakdale to receive entries there, and to make arrangements at several of the fast horses to be shipped from there. In fact there is on every hand the promise that the programme will be carried out successfully.

Those who desire are cordially invited this week to drive around the track, and they can not only enjoy this, but can at the same time help in working the track, so it may be in the best of conditions.
