THE KEARNEY MURDER.
The Indictment of Mrs. Brown Set Aside.

Special Dispatch to THE HEE.
KEARNEY, Neb., June 27.—Yesterday Mrs. M. R. Brown was indicted by the grand jury for the murder of I. J. Sommers, in the first degree. To-day the indictment was set aside by Judge Savidge on account of irregularities in the drawing of the grand jury and a new jury ordered summoned. Messrs. Hamer and Conner, the defendant's attorneys, raised the question of the legality of the arrest.

the question of the legality of the court, claiming that the legislature had no power to create vacancies nor the governor to fill them except caused by resignation or death.

A Talk With Secretary Folger—The Recent Arrivals.
Special Dispatch to THE BEE.
WASHINGTON, June 27.—Secretary Folger said, on speaking on the subject of foreign emigration, that the act of August, 1882, provides that the secretary of the treasury may enter into a contract with the state commission, or a body to be designated by the governor of the state, and empowers the body so chosen to examine into the condition of passengers arriving by sea. The governor of New York has designated commissioners of immigration at the port of New York in that capacity for the state of New York, and arrangements have been made with them to execute the law. They have been instructed, in case they find any immigrant unable to take care of himself without becoming a public charge, to report the same in writing to

NEW YORK, June 24.—When the five hundred and seventy emigrant passengers were landed from the Anchor line steamship Furzeana at Castle Garden to-day, Emigration Commissioners Tainter, Starr, and Stephenson were on hand to see if the newcomers were "assisted" emigrants, who had no money or visible means of support, and were truly of the class that

They found that about three hundred had been given passage tickets by Michael O'Driscoll, of the Oahiviri-been (county Kerry) peer-guardians. The immigrants were clad in poor and common garments, and they had no money except such as had been provided for them by O'Driscoll. In their investigation the committee found that five of the immigrants had come directly from the work house at of age, said that he had been an inmate of the work house at Cahirciveen, for about twelve years, and that he was urged to go to O'Driscoll for assistance to the United States. He received a passport and $1 10 in money. East

Brenn, married, and the mother of six children, had been six years in the workhouse when she was induced by Jeremiah Caleran, master of the workhouse, to come to this country. O'Driscoll gave her ticket to New York and £3 1s in money. She has no friends here. "Nana" O'Sullivan, unmarried, had been in the workhouse about three years, and she was given £1 in money and tickets for herself and a illegitimate child to go to New York.

Mary Clifford, with two illegitimate children, was also persuaded by the master of the workhouse to go to New York and was given passage tickets and thirty shillings in money. Mary Sullivan, who had been five years in the workhouse with her three children, was given her passage ticket and thirty pence. Commissioner Taint said to-day that a passenger of the Fu Gessia had stated that it was reported Captain Kerm that seven hundred pa-
