

ARTHUR'S ARRIVAL.

The President of the United States in Omaha.

He Passes Through Without Any Stop-over at All.

The Start from Chicago and the Trip Across Iowa and Illinois.

The trip to the Yellowstone park by President Arthur and party has been talked of for some weeks past, and yesterday's telegrams announced the fact that he left Chicago on time and would arrive in Omaha at 4 a. m. to-day.

At this unseasonable hour it was of course impossible for the patriotic citizens of Omaha to give the chief executive of the nation any public reception, and the whole scheme was consequently abandoned.

The following dispatch was received by Hon. Charles F. Manderson last evening:

DEWITT, IOWA, Aug. 3, 1883.

Hon. Charles F. Manderson—The President wishes to express his thanks for the welcome tendered him at Omaha, and regrets that he will have to pass through at four o'clock in the morning and that to name a more convenient hour would be impossible in the arrangements made for his journey which cannot be made without great embarrassment.

ROBERT LINCOLN.

WEST WE GO.

DEPARTURE OF THE PRESIDENT FROM CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, August 3.—A special train on the Chicago & Northwestern railway, conveying President Arthur, Gen. Sheridan and party enroute for the Yellowstone, left this city promptly at 12 o'clock to-day. The train is made up of two private coaches, dining car and baggage car. No stops will be made except to take on coal and water. The train is scheduled to arrive at Council Bluffs at 4 o'clock Saturday morning.

A delegation of citizens of Peoria called on President Arthur last evening, and invited him to be present at the opening of the Peoria fair, September 5th. While he could not say positively he would be present, he told them he would if possible, and would shape his movements to that end.

Last night the president accompanied by a reception committee, including Mayor Harrison, Hon. C. B. Palmer, Collector Spangler, Postmaster Palmer and John E. Drake, arrived at the hotel and an informal reception was held in the parlors, where the president met acquaintances and friends. The party dined in a private room and a public reception followed, lasting till a late hour.

CLINTON, Ia., August 3.—The presidential special train passed this point at 4 p. m. A few minutes after leaving at the depot of the C. & N. W. railway in Chicago, the party were assigned to quarters in special cars. The President, Secretary Lincoln, Senator West and Judge Rollins occupied President Dillon's car, of the Union Pacific railway; Gen. Sheridan, Gen. Stager, Surgeon General, Mr. Vest and Col. Sherman occupying Mr. Huggitt's car of the North-western railway. Mr. Loring, general superintendent of the C. & N. W. road, and Mr. Murray, division superintendent of the C. & N. W., are in charge of the train. It is expected the party will reach Omaha at 4 a. m., August 4th.

The only representative of the press with the president's party is the agent of the associated press. He will continue with the party by authority of Gen. Sheridan until they return to Chicago.

RAILROAD MATTERS.

LIVELY RATE WAR.

CHICAGO, August 3.—The three lines between Chicago and St. Louis, viz. the Wabash, Illinois Central and Chicago & Alton, made a rate between these points to-day of $6.50, the rate heretofore having been $8. In reply to the charge of cutting rates for some time at this rate through scalpers made by the Wabash against the Illinois Central, the officers of the latter reply that the sales by the Wabash through scalpers forced it to that course in self-defense. Whether the cut will proceed further is not known.

'THE REPUBLICANS MUST GO.'

KANSAS CIVIL, August 3.—The belief is current among Irishmen here that O'Donnell, who killed James Caray at Port Elizabeth last Monday, is identical with Capt. Thomas Phelan of this city. Phelan left here for Dublin about two months ago, ostensibly to look after a legacy left him by some distant relative. But little is known of his subsequent movements except that he arrived in Dublin during the progress of the Fenian war. The description given of O'Donnell by Cape Town correspondent, tallies exactly with that of Phelan, being six feet tall, about 45 years of age, dark hair, blue eyes, and with slight paralysis in one hand. He has resided in this city about 25 years; has taken an active part in local politics and has been known as an avowed nationalist and man of remarkable courage and with an expert with a rifle or pistol. He has given some public exhibitions in that direction and received a wound in the hand spoken of upon one of these occasions. He served as a Union soldier during the war, being captain of Co. L. from this county.

The matter, although talked of among Phelan's friends, has been kept quiet and nothing of the suspicious has yet appeared in the newspapers.

An intimate friend said to-night that while he had no actual information, he felt confident Phelan was the man who killed Caray. He said it was understood before Phelan left that he should travel under the name of O'Donnell.

TWEEDISM IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, August 3.—Some two months past it was discovered that the comptroller's office of the city of New York had been robbed of about $115,000. The examination of the books showed the thefts had been committed by the confidential clerk in the receiving department named Carroll, who died previous to the discovery. Carroll's father, one of the largest land owners in the state of New York, strenuously denied his son's guilt and refused to make any settlement. The difficulties growing out of Carroll's defalcation finally led to the resignation of Allan Campbell as comptroller. The grand jury of the General Sessions court to-day made a presentment in court to-day regarding the coupons frauds of ten years ago. The presentment recites the history of the issue of the bonds, of which fifteen million were printed by the National Bank Note company, by order of Comptroller Richard Connelly, of the Tweed ring fame. Andrew H. Green, succeeding Connelly to the office of Comptroller, refused to use these bonds because they bore in his name the printed signature of Connelly. Green consequently ordered the issue destroyed, appointing three of his most responsible employees, Messrs. Earle, Storrs and Cady to count and burn the bonds. In his affidavit to the grand jury Green testified he witnessed the burning of the bonds himself. It would seem that all coupons attached to the destroyed bonds were not burned with the bonds; that Carroll, as receiving clerk, fraudulently cashed large numbers of these coupons for outside swindlers, knowing their bogus character; that coupons being cashed by an employee of the city rendered the city liable for the loss. The grand jury recommend thorough examination of the comptroller's office by skillful men outside of the office; also recommend that hereafter payments of city coupons be made by some responsible city agent as a protection to the city against further frauds of this kind.

THE TELEGRAPH STRIKE.

A COMING BLOW AND ITS CONSEQUENCES. CHICAGO, August 3.—The reported grand movement on the part of the striking operators, talked about a good deal yesterday, has so far failed to materialize. The men continue to shake their heads ominously. When spoken to about it they may be made at any moment. Each man professes profound ignorance as to the nature of the blow about to be dealt, but it is emphatically asserted that when the blow is given it will preclude all possibility of further continuance of the strike. The feeling among the strikers is very bitter against those who have renounced the Brotherhood and returned to work the past two days. Members of the board of trade are beginning to get exasperated over the existing state of affairs. In an interview one member of the board of trade said, "We don't want a settlement of this difficulty to come around soon; we want it immediately. Your business is protracted for want of prompt communication. Unless some sort of a settlement is made presently there is going to be a mighty big kick here." General Superintendent Dillie received a card from Superintendent Tinker, which states that 26 strikers have returned to work in New York up to date. Two more strikers returned to work in Chicago to-day.

THE CIGAR STRIKE ENDED.

NEW YORK, August 3.—A number of the striking cigar-makers returned to work to-day, the difficulties between them and employes having been settled. The remainder go to work Monday.

THE KU-KLUX IN GEORGIA.

ATLANTA, Ga., August 3.—A large and enthusiastic meeting of the best citizens of Banks and Jackson counties was held at Maysville, to take some action in regard to a raid of a lot of lawless persons upon negro houses, whipping and shooting negroes. Strong resolutions condemning such violence were passed. It seems that for some time past there has been a gang of Ku-Klux molesting negroes in the vicinity of Maysville. Numerous outrages have been committed in the last two weeks, such as giving 175 lashes to Gad Bush, unmercifully whipping Maney Prickett. Recently about 20 kluklux visited plantations and committed numerous outrages.

Striking Deserters.

CHICAGO, August 3.—General Superintendent Clowry received a telegram this morning from Charles A. Tinker, superintendent of the eastern division of the Western Union telegraph, dated New York, which reads as follows: "Six more operators came in from New York strikers to-day, making twenty in all here, and over one hundred have returned since the strike in this division. The reports of further withdrawals from our forces in any direction are false, as are sensational reports daily circulated through the channels of the strikers."

Suicide of a King's Son.

CHICAGO, August 3.—Gav Norden, a finely educated young Swede, was found lying dead in the Swedish Lutheran church at Englewood, near this city, yesterday, having committed suicide. The morning papers claim the young man had been identified as the illegitimate son of King Oscar of Sweden, and that he was raised in a family of the sister of the king. During his stay in this country he has been engaged as instructor in a private school. On a portable blackboard, back of the pulpit, he had written "the dead cry never." No cause is assigned for the deed.

A Commission on Duties.

NEW YORK, August 3.—The commission appointed to look into the matter of duties on coverings to imported merchandise has finished its labors, and decided to report in favor of exempting outside packages from duty. Two reports will be made of duties on inside coverings, one in favor of placing an ad valorem duty on them, the other in favor of placing a duty upon the merchandise only.

Another Park Excursion.

NEW YORK, August 3.—The steamship Adriatic arrived to-day from Liverpool. Among her passengers are ladies and gentlemen from England and the continent, guests of Rufus Hatch during an excursion to Yellowstone Park.

Unusual precautions, however, would be necessary to guard against cholera until the expiration of six weeks, when it is believed the danger will be passed.

THE PILGRIMS' PLANS.

Preparations for the Coming Triennial Conclave of the Knights Templar.

The St. Bernards of Chicago to Cross the Mountains in Grand Style—The Festivities at 'Frisco

CHICAGO, August 3.—Eminent Commander Geo. M. Moulton, of the St. Bernard Commandery, Knights Templar, returned to-day from San Francisco where he went to complete arrangements for the pilgrimage of St. Bernard to the twenty-second triennial conclave. Moulton reports that the most satisfactory arrangements for the entertainment of the commandery were made. St. Bernard Commandery with friends and ladies, the whole numbering over 300, left California August 1st on a special train over the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, composed entirely of palace coaches and hotel cars. The first stop will be at Kansas City, thence at Denver, where they remain a day, thence to Ogden and Salt Lake two days, at Reno a delegation of fifty California Knights will meet the Bernards and escort them 350 miles to San Francisco, arriving on the 18th inst; Moulton says any other knights or friends who go with us may be sure of a right royal welcome. The St. Bernards will take along the champion banner won from the Koper commandery, which belongs to the St. Bernards of Chicago, having passed without a challenge. The St. Bernards will enter the list at the triennial prize drill, in which five trophies are offered. The trophies are among the finest specimens of workmanship. Only three commanderies as yet are entered. It is expected others will enter. These are St. Bernards of Chicago, Roper of Indianapolis, and DeMolay No. 12 of Louisville. Moulton says the visit of the Knights to California will be one continual round of hospitality and that representatives will be present from nearly every commandery in the United States. New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, St. Louis and Chicago send special trains through to San Francisco. St. Bernards leave for San Francisco August 26, returning by the same train they went on. St. Bernards will form the escort from the grand commandery of Illinois.

Prof. Aughey's Mistake.

Lincoln Journal. Prof. Aughey ought to have a guardian appointed to protect him from the attacks upon his reputation for good sense and bringing himself as well as the high position he holds into ridicule. All friends of the university must blush with shame when they see this professor's name bandied around in the newspapers attached to a certificate of the properties of a quack nostrum. The professor in his kindness of heart doubtless intends thus only to do the proprietors of the compound a good turn, but how he could overlook the humiliation and disgrace he brings upon the university, himself and the position he holds by this singular action is inexplicable.

Since writing the above we notice that the OMAHA BEE yesterday devoted a long editorial to a vigorous denunciation of Prof. Aughey's action in this nostrum sponsorship. The BEE being an Omaha institution is, as a matter of course, spiteful and spiteful toward the state university, but the institution's friends have no chance to defend it against the slanders of its numerous enemies so long as its attacks furnish them so many opportunities for justifiable attacks. The BEE has simply to copy Prof. Aughey's nostrum certificate which it does, to make out its case beyond question.

Doing the Bridge.

A new thing excites the interest of enterprising boys—the Brooklyn Bridge. Their exploits from westward for, and cantanotums and fight the Indians after the manner of dime novel heroes, have been discontinued in favor of doing the Brooklyn bridge. Two Wheeling boys—one ten, the other eleven years old, lately did it successfully and were happy. One stole $60 from his father's pocket and the other procured two suits of clothes, one for each, on his father's credit, and they started. They saw the bridge, walked across it several times and viewed it from all sides and ends. It took a day to do it, and then they returned to Jersey City to take the next train home, but they were detained by the police until some of the old folks came from Wheeling to take the trunks home.

To Omaha Bicyclists.

Blair Pilot. A couple of young "bloods" came up from Omaha (thirty miles) on bicycles one of the hottest days last week, leaving here about 9 o'clock a. m. and arriving here about 2 o'clock p. m. They took dinner here and started on their return trip. If either of those young fellows had been asked by his mother to saw and split a few sticks of wood to bake a batch of bread, or cook his dinner with the Pilot, ventures the assertion that he would have declined in a most emphatic manner. And the chances are, that while they were making this trip their mothers were splitting wood to cook for them or heat water to wash their dirty clothes with.

Sheridan's Ride.

Brooklyn Eagle. The preparations for the presidential exploring party in charge of Gen. Sheridan are almost completed. One evening as an officer of the commissary department, who had been exhibiting a list of provisions for the journey to the general, was about quitting the apartment when Little Phil called him back and said: "I thing that suggestion you threw out yesterday in reference to allowing for unforeseen causes of detention was a good one, and that perhaps it would be better to take along an extra supply, sufficient to last for three days at least. You won't forget about it, will you?" "No," returned the officer with great alacrity: "I'll just make a memorandum of it at once for safety," and pulling out a lead pencil he inscribed the following insignificant legend upon his shirt cuff: "Add thirty gallons of whiskey to quantity already ordered."

CLEVER CAPTURE.

A Sudden Close of the Indian Pow-Wow.

Two Pale Faces Run Off with the Cash Box—Arrest of One of the Suspects.

For the last two days a band of Indians have been encamped on a vacant lot near the fair grounds. They desired to give original entertainments, consisting of war hoops, war dances and horrible music. They promanaded the principal streets every day advertising the affair. Consequently large numbers of people, out of curiosity, if nothing more, visited the grounds.

Shortly after 6 o'clock last evening two "half-breeds" rode up to two officers on Farnam street and notified them that two men had run away with about $40 of their money. They had followed the fellows and saw them in the street car. Seeing they were pursued, they jumped off and ran away through a garden out of sight. The Indians gave a description of the thieves (or robbers) to the police.

The night police force were notified before starting out on their beats. About ten o'clock officer Metz captured a young man answering the description of one of the parties near the "Dime Museum" on Douglas street, and with Captain O'Donoghue conducted him to the station house.

The fellow was about twenty-two or twenty-three years of age, medium height and respectably dressed. He was flustered and much excited. His first remark was, "I've done nothing, and these men have arrested me." A razor was given prominent in his vest pocket. Jaeger Gorman searched the prisoner and found $26 in bills and eighty cents in nickels. In his upper coat pocket was found a small English walnut shell, which he smoothed. Marshal Guthrie, who was present, said, "What are you doing with these?" The prisoner evinced some surprise at first, but afterwards said his partner gave them to him. The marshal said, "You're a thimble rigger."

"No, sir, I never was arrested before, and I swear (raising his hand) that I never was behind a prison bar."

The prisoner said that his satchel was at the Dime Museum, with a fellow named Duncan, and gave his name as John Hawkins. He was locked up and the officers went after his satchel returning in a few minutes. On opening it, nothing but a coat and underclothing were found.

A reporter of THE BEE had an interview with the prisoner. He was apparently very much dejected and anxious to be released, leaving his money as security for his appearance in court this morning. He said the name he gave was his own, and that his home was in St. Paul, Minn. He came to this city about four weeks ago and went to board at the Green Tree house. He had no money, but about two weeks ago got a job as brakeman in the Union Pacific yard. He worked eight days when he was discharged as there was no work. With his wages he had settled with the proprietor of the hotel, and since that had boarded around at different restaurants. While here he formed the acquaintance of Duncan and a fellow named Carson. Yesterday the latter talked with one of the half-breed Indians who are accustomed to give exhibitions and then take up a collection, that they could make more money by renting the fair grounds and charging admission with a collection. They made arrangements to do so and Carson was to have 45 per cent, and the Indians 55. They went to see Ex-Mayor Boyd about the fair grounds, but he refused to rent it fearing that it would injure the track for the state fair.

They then got the grounds near by St. Francis and Portland, concluded their investigation and returned to this city. They will meet in New York next week to confer with sugar importers before making a report.

CONFEDERATE SCRIP.

There has recently been transferred from the war department to the abandoned property division of the treasury department a large quantity of Confederate scrip, bonds, etc., representing several millions of dollars, which it is said is now to be macerated and converted into pulp on order of Secretary Folger.

THE INVESTIGATORS.

The Hill investigating committee had a last session this morning, prior to preparation of a report. Coleman said he had concluded not to cross examine Thompson. Steinmetz made a short statement to the committee in regard to the cost of the slate roof on the New York postoffice, which work was done under his superintendence. This closed the case as far as taking testimony is concerned.

The special committee, appointed to investigate the charges made by Representative Belmont of fraud in connection with the importation of sugar at San Francisco and Portland, concluded their investigation and returned to this city. They will meet in New York next week to confer with sugar importers before making a report.

A Cyclone in York State.

ROCHESTER, August 3.—The northern part of Monroe county, including the towns of Greece, Penfield and Iron Duquesne, were swept last night with a terrible storm of wind, hail and rain. Grain and especially fruit were badly damaged. Many farmers report losses of from $500 to $1,000. Many grape vines were entirely ruined. The hail killed birds and a few animals brought down from horses and stock. The belt traversed by the storm was two miles wide by ten or twelve miles long.

The German Teachers' Meeting.

CHICAGO, August 3.—At the fourth and last day's session of the German-American Teachers' association a resolution was passed pledging support to the German-American Normal school at Milwaukee. Several important papers on schools were read and debated. The report of the statistical committee showed that the total number of the United States to 500,000 pupils by 4,250 teachers. The officers elected are D. Schuricht, of Chicago, president; H. H. Schrick, of Detroit, secretary; H. Finch, of Cincinnati, treasurer. An executive committee was appointed and the association adjourned.

The Stealing of a Treasurer.

KANSAS CITY, August 3.—The city of Wyandotte, Kansas, has brought suit in the district court for the recovery of the sum of $23,000 against Christopher Bernhard, ex-city treasurer. The complaint avers that during the defendant's term in 1871 bonds were issued in the sum of $25,000 to liquidate old bonds of like amount. These were given the treasurer, who has since failed to account for the cancelled bonds in return. Further, the complainant alleges that defendant received $5,000 on account of scrip issued for street improvements, and which also is unaccounted for.
