THE DAILY BEE --- OMAHA, SATURDAY, AUGUST 4, 1883.

THE OMAHA BEE.

Published every marning, except Sunday, only Monday morning daily. ERMS BT MAIL.

810.00 | Three Months 5.00 | One Month... THE WREELY SER, PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY.

TRIMS POSTFAID.

. $2.00 | Three Months. American News Company, Sole Agents Newsdeal-

BURINESS"LETTERS. All Business Letters and Remittances should be addressed to THE BER PUBLISHING CONTAXY, OMAILA. Drafts, Checks and Postolice orders to be made pay-able to the order of the company. THE BEE BUBLISHING CO., PROPS. E. ROSEWATER, Editor.

IF Sixteenth street were Thirteenth street, there would be no trouble about that paving contract.

THE government at Washington is now running itself. The president and the Stretching along the Union Pacific track entire cabinet are out of the city.

DORSEY is no doubt an unconscionable liar but he was a good enough republican campaign.

THE latest news from Ischia, the scene of the late earthquake, is to the effect that 5,000 persons perished in the great the near future of beef packing, canning disaster of last Saturday.

A FEW telegraph poles adorned with jobbing councilmen would do more to put 10,000 population within three a stop to public thievery in Omaha than years to this city. It means the estaba hundred injunction suits.

AT a late hour last night a telegram from Secretary Lincoln announced that ties as a wholesale center. the president would not be able to stop over in Omaha on his trip to the west.

EX-SENATOR PLATT, who figured as Conkling's "me to" during a memorable contest, feels insulted because Dorsey refersto him as "Tom" Platt. S'noutrage.

MR. CHANDLER will now be able to return to Washington and hisofficial duties. The legislature of New Hampshire has chosen Austin F. Pike as successor to Rollins in the senate.

BRICK is cheap and abundant in Omaha and every body can now afford to build solid and substantial buildings and store houses with brick as good as any in the United States.

1F Mr. Dana will come to Omaha with his "turn-the-rascals-out" club he can begin work right away on the city council amidst the enthusiastic support of our tax payers and citizens.

THE cholera scare is having the proper effect in eastern cities, where a thorough inspection of sanitary arrangements, and lack of confidence in the ministry and church, university and state, and the OMAHA'S NEW ENTERPRISE. The assurance of new stock yards on was so taken by Mr. Gladstone, who, present election turned upon a proposi-the largest scale of any outside of Chi-prior to the putting of the vote rose and claused the suffrage, which the cago and of mammoth beef packing and explained that if the motion carried the refrigerating houses, backed by capital government would immediately resign. which is practically unlimited, is good The motion was rejected by a vote of news for Omaha which THE BEE was en-abled by superior enterprise to spread question of the Suer canal came to an and opposed manhood suffrage or its apabled by superior enterprise to spread question of the Suez canal came to an before its readers in advance of all con- jasue. The problem which had been temporaries. Several weeks ago this troubling England since the first of July paper gave the skeleton of the scheme was simply whether England was pre-A Communications relating to News and Editorial then undeveloped but the details pared to admit the right of BES.

but those who were in the monopoly of the waterway secret from the beginning. across the Isthmus of Suez. Mr. Glad-These details briefly stated are: stone on the 12th of July stated as fol-Stock yards in which 40,000 head lows the view of the government:

of Nebraska and Wyoming cattle In the Government's view Mr. De Lesseps is in possession of that exclusive are to be fed this winter, supplied with water from our own water right, so they are advised by their legal advisers, and the Egyptian Government works, and furnished with admirable was similarly advised some time ago. On shelter and shade from the beautiful that supposition, too. all the money, was farms in which they are laid out. The subscribed for making the present canal, location, directly adjoining our city and on that supposition public opinion has proceeded down to the present time, limits, is all that could be desired and unquestionably, on that supposition the whole of the arrangements made prefor a distance of over four miles and viously with M. De Lesseps were abs lutely founded. extending southward to the Missouri

Acting upon this basis, with the cerriver, the Omaha stock yards will tainty that any other would surely prehave the advantage of two through lines three years ago to direct the national of railroad to bring in their cattle from cipitate a war between England and France, the premier concluded his prothe far west and transport the manufactured product to eastern consumers. visional arrangement with De Lesseps, to loan the Government credit to the ex-But what will be perhaps of more interest to our citizens is the erection in tent of $40,000,000 for the construction of a parallel canal Public indignation ran high and and refrigerator works, which with the

Mr. Gladstone was forced two weeks ago stock yards, will furnish employment to to bend before the storm by asking a re-3,000 men. This means an addition of lease from his agreement. The tories, however, under the stupid leadership of Northcote were not content to let the October. lishment of a great industry and a new matter rest at that point. A resolution market. It means a cheapening of meat was prepared for introduction in parlia-in Omaha, and the extension of its faciliment, declaring M. de Lesseps claim to a monopoly of the right of waterway be-For all these reasons the BEE congratutween the Red and Mediterranean seas lates our citizens on this new enterprise, untenable and incompatible with British

It also congratulates Mr. C. B. Schaller, interests and therefore not to be to whose untiring energy the result is so respected. On Monday night the resolution was rejected and an amendment declaring it undesirable to

THE PRESIDENT.

largely due.

prejude the action of the government, The metropolis of Nebraska takes was passed by a majority of 99 votes. pleasure in welcoming President Arthur Mr. Gladstone's victory was complete to this city and state. General Arthur is and satisfactory, and will strengthen mathe third president who has ever visited terially the hands of the government. It Omaha while in office. His predecessors is difficult to see how the sober sense of were General Grant and Mr. Hayes. But parliament could have acted otherwise General Arthur is the first president who than it did. Sir Stafford Northcote's has ever been a resident of Omaha, and resolution meant war with France. Its his visit on that account attended with adoption would have necessitated the all the more interest. Twenty-five years resignation of the Gladstone ministry ago the president came here as a young and the succession of the tories. The lawyer in search of a location. Forlatter, to be consistent with themselves tunately for him, he returned to a field more fitted for a man of his in order to carry out the policy on which they won, would be obliged to take dimensions. While Mr. Arthur has measures to promote the cutting of a secgrown up with the country Omaha has also advanced in size and population since the time when he used to take his daily De Lesseps' assistance. The Frenchman the time when he used to take his daily would resist, and would be backed by to the then flourishing city of Florence. his government. The other European Nebraska is a republican state and powers that have guaranteed the neutrality of the canal would not be disinterested would therefore be peculiarily embarrassing for the tories themselves, and the sensible ones preferred submitting to a crushing and overwhelming defeat.

But the Norwood amendment was at least by implication a vote of confidence

SPECULATIONS. "Good morning, Mr. B., fine day!" "Yee, fine day." Think it'll rain to-day?" "Well, hardly think it will clericals favored, because of the strong in to-day: still it may, hope not." "Howdy do, Mr. C., cold, san't it?" "Well, yes, influence of the Dutch pastors with the ould say it was cold." Have some show I reckon masses, while in Holland, as elsewhere, Wouldn't wonder at all; still it doesn't look like the liberals drew the line at the extension now." "Hello E., going to get a freeze, sh?" "No think

The recent election will proba preach u're wrong, I tell you its going to freeze." bly be followed by a law extending the The above are some of the empty whims and spec suffrage, and this by chambers in which the clericals will enjoy a strong majority one of vital importance and which they are inti

China, it is said, made the first proposal to negotiate for a formal treaty with France, and Franceassented readily. like this: This at least defeared hostilities which were then threatening an outbreak at any moment.

ture's requirements" The Prince of Monaco has offered his principality to France for 10,000,000f. t should be remembered that by the convention of 1860, the principality passes directly to France in the event of is honest."

the present line dying out. The prince received last year 8,500,000f, for his right in the gambling establishment of Monaco. Yet he is in financial straits again. The Monaco concession to the Let us add that the reputation of furnock I Bitters is founded upon the solid floor of Fact, n down and clinched by sincere Conviction. Fo disorders arising from or associated with the and stomach, this modelcheis peculiarly adapted gives unvarying satisfaction.

Blancs does not expire until 1910.

The last of the 100-guns ordered to be mounted for the defense of the Mediterranean fortresses, is being conveyed by the steamer Woolwich to Malta. Two The four guns were purchased from Sir William Armstrong. The amount paid, including the charge for seven 10-inch guns, was £90,000. nirably

The Calcutta exhibition, it is likely, will be very successful. There are already 400 exhibitors from Great Britain. The Australian colonies have taken up the exhibition with much spirit. The exhibition buildings will be ready probably in

The Wanderer,

Upon a mountain's hight, far from the sea, I found a shell, And to my curious car this leady thing Ever a son of ocean seemed to sing-Ever a tale of ocean seemed to tell. How came this shell upon the mountain hight?

Ah, who can say Whether there dropped by some too careless hand — Whether there cast when oceans swept the land Ere the Eternal had ordained the Day!

Strange, was it not: far from its native sea, One song it sang-Sang of the mighty mysteries of the tide-

Sang of the awful, vast profound and wide Softly with echoes of the ocean rang.

And, as the shell upon the mountain's hight And, as the shell upon Sings of the sea So do I ever, leagues and leagues away— So do I ever, wandering; where I may, Sing, O my home—sing, O my home of thee. —HELENA MODIESKA.

EDUCATIONAL.

reason why the mowing-machine chews up the harvest field. Iowa spends five millions a year for educa

The boys who go in swimming after Sunday school probably do so under the impression that "cleanliness is next to Godliness. General Armstrong says every girl in his colored school at Hampton wants to study Greek.

There is a camp meeting of Spiritualists near Philadelphia, and at nicht the woods are full of spooks who blow horns and jump among the branches of the trees like squirrels. Dr. McCosh, the president of Princeton college, is seventy-five years of aga. Although somewhat bowed, he is well preserved.

Although not more than one-tenth of the students at Cornell university are women, out of nine recent elections to the Phi Beta Knappa, three were of women. in summer they might as well.

IMPIETIES.

Miss Ethel Ellis, of Franklin, for a number of years connected with Oxford college, Ohio, recently received notice of her appointment as At Greensboro, Ala., a negro divine is pedincreased facilities for street cleaning are now being put in operation.

AFTER our colored citizens have convened in Louisville they will pass a set of resounding resolutions. Then they will adjourn. This is likely to prove the net result of the Louisville convention.

to spare or even if they have none to spare we need a conspetent inspector of sewers, not only to inspect every connection made by plumbers and contractors, but also to visit every house that is connected with a sewer.

THE death of James Carey, the informer, was not unexpected. The only lament over his timely taking off comes from the London Times, which thinks it sets a bad precedent to Irishmen. The Kavanaughs and Peter Kelleys are likely the spavined nag Poverty, and armed to meet the same fate.

WHAT we will not know about Yellowstone Park by the end of the summer season will not be worth knowing. Quite apart from the presidential explorers, the park has just been invaded by the Western Associated press with its forty-five managing editors.

THE New York Sun nominates William 8. Holman, of Indiana for the presidency on the ground that he is a rigid econo mist of ten terms experience in congress and comes from a doubtful state, which does not hold an October election. It looks as Mr. Dana is convinced that Mr. job which the majority of the state board Tilden "must go."

speculators and corner makers a sharp $41,000 above the bid made by Robert takes on the high-sounding name of respect. "trade,' when great produce houses like Armour, Plankinton & Co. and David Dows & Co. admit that the telegraph strike has cut off half their business. Of course all these firms do a great legitimate business in buying and selling great many men live by it. Their existence divides the titles to the visible stock

Within a week Mr. Gladstone has won of goods among a much larger number of people than formerly, and it is open two successive victories in parliament. to doubt whether the economic evil is However apparent the weakness and innot counteracted by the natural opera- decision of the ministerial policy may be, not counteracted by the natural opera-tion of the laws of value and exchange, but that these people are engaged in "trade," or that "trade" seriously suffers when these fellows are turned out to grass is all nonsense. Wheat and pro-visions have not lost value, nobody who visions have not lost value, nobody who nothing has ceased to grow." decision of the ministerial policy may be, to India. This was a direct at-nothing has ceased to grow." decision of the ministerial policy may be, to India. This was a direct at-nothing has ceased to grow." decision of the ministerial policy may be, to still more manifest. The still more manifest. The first occasion referred to was on Friday of last week when Onslow, a conserva-visions have not lost value, nobody who wanted to buy has been refused, no ships have sailed empty for lack of cargo, nothing has ceased to grow." decision of the ministerial policy may be, to India. This was a direct at-nothing has ceased to grow." decision of the ministerial policy may be, the greater weakness of the conservative and "clerical" party. The latter repre-sent in Holland, not the Roman Catholic, but the orthodox protest-ant party, which has been for some paign, political and religious, against tempt to call out a vote of a city, but our people will bid spectators. A majority for the resolution the president welcome without regard to partisan ties. They recognize in him an able, honest, clear-headed and clean-handed executive who has won his way into popular favor against the force of adverse circumstance and who to-day m the ministry. It indicates that parliais the most prominently mentioned canment, however much it may have disadidate for renomination at the hands of greed in detail, with the premiers policy, his party.

is not yet ready to hand over the gov-Although he stops with us but a few hours our citizens bid him a warm welcome and give himtheir hearty bestwishes for a pleasant trip to the most beautiful pleasure garden in the Western world.

One of the most striking cartoons that military and naval armaments with has ever appeared in print is produced in the latest issue of Puck. The subject of consequence is less disposed to brook this cartoon is the tournament between labor and monopoly. The former is the tions between the republic and England what she considers interference with her haggard workman Labor, mounted on have, as has been recently pointed out, been getting into a more and more unsatisfactory condition. The two coun-tries have been on most amicable terms with the wooden mallet Strike. Monopoly is a mailed knight, armed cap-a-pie, since 1854, when they went to war toand mounted on a mailed animal with gether against Russia and cemented th the head of a horse and the wheels and alliance in the battles of Inkerman and Alma, and in the long dismal siege a Sebastopol. Nothing has occurred to cow-catcher of a locomotive. His shield be corruption of the Legislature, his seriously shake this long friendship till subsidized press. The contest is witis corruption of the Legislature, his loyal ally across the channel. In the nessed by Vanderbilt, Gould, Field, Sidnew Dillon, Russell Sage, and others, seated in reserved seats for capitalists, and, what is more, all the profits and by the populace behind the fence. of a successful invasion of the land of the pyramids. Then came the opposition of the British government to

AND now the supreme court has been the channel tunnel on the ground that it would facilitate a French invasion of the called on to interpose its veto upon the bright little island, and now there is a bitter feeling in France towards the Engof public lands and buildings have per- lish over the new canal which M. DeLespetrated in awarding the contract for the seps proposes to construct at Suez. The

THE Springfield Regublican hits the new capitol building to Boss Stout for French have been in an ill humor ever since 1870, when they lost their ancient commanding position in Europe, and rap and injects some sound sense in its Silver. We shall presently see whether their temper is additionally sourced by remarks when it says: "One cannot but the tax payers of Nebraska have any the marked political and moral conquests entertain a feeling of contempt for what rights which state officers are bound to which the British have made in the east.

The friendly alliance between the two nations is seriously shaken, and a few more disagrements would destroy it altogether. roads of the United States owed six and a half billions of dollars—a sum beyond human comprehension? — Cincinnati Commercial Gazette. Could any one have supposed that the total Could any one have supposed that the simmered down to diplomatic enquiries people of the United States are taxed in Annam, where 500 natives were dice, is not business at all, although a taillions charged up as operating expenses. a formal treaty are now in progress. In OTHER LANDS THAN OURS.

teacher in an institute of learning in the Argentine Republic, South America. One of the teachers in a Philadelphia seminary reprated a young lady for using the word "sweat" in the following manner: "My dear, bear in mind that horses sweat, men perspire. Worshipers in St. Bernard's Church, Co-hoes, N. C., were amazed when John Rafferty, during the services, walked up to the priest, announced he was Pope Pins IX., and and young ladies get in a glow.

A young graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and son of a promi-nent manufacturer in Massachusetts, has been learning the woollen manufacturing business, and has been promoted from the wool-room to the cording-room in ene of Lewiston's woollen wills These are the echoes of a family circle in These are the echoes of a family circle in Springfield, Mass., according to the Republi-can of that city: "Mary, you little brat," came harshly from the window of a clean-look-ing house yesterday, "come here and stop that racket or I'll pound you black and blue all over"-then the same voice in shrill soprano," "I will sing of my Redeemer."

The colored teachers' association, which has is not yet ready to hand over the gov-ernment to the Jingo majority. On this account it is the first satisfactory result of an unsatisfactory session. The colored teachers' association. which has been holding its meetings at Frankfort, Ky. compares favorably in its discussions with the same voice in shrill soprano," "I will sing of my Redeemer." When the late Col. Isaace O. Barnes boarded at the Bromfield house, his jokes and quaint remarks afforded great anusement to his subjects treated. Upon the "Elements of success" a colored clergyman spoke of success in teaching as consisting of first, self-mas-those of other countries and in toose of other countries and in fourth, a knowledge of what he expects to teach; what she considers interference with her magnetism; seventh, a progressive spirit.

No Cause for Grief. They stood together at the door Of an ice cream saloon; A look of grief his visage wore, Her face shone like the moon.

Her red lips parted with a smile And thus to him she said: "Dear Charley, you are just the style Of man I'd like to wed;

For four delicious plates of cream To-night you've paid for me; The treat I've had seems like a dream A dream of ecstacy."

"Oh! that's the thing that worries me;" These worls with grief he spoke; The cream von ate so heartily Has left me—well, dead broke."

"Oh, if that's all," said she, "you shan't Grieve over cause so slight; If your dead broke, then I shall want

SINGULARITIES

A negro boy at Tuskegee, Ga., who is as black as Erebus, has beautiful blue eyes. At Fort Mojave, Arizona, one night recent-ly, the thermometer registered 112 degrees at midnight.

A German, of Bay City, was recently pre-sented by his wife with eighteen pounds of boys, done up in three parcels.

A youth of nineteen years, at Big Croek gap, east Tennessee, Daniel Burkitt by uame, weighs only thirty pounds, and is but eighteen inches high.

In 1772 a bright cloud was observed at mid provisions, but the business of watching the quotations every 15 minutes and swapping back and forth things known as lard, pork and bacon, which, for all the dealers know about them, might be dice, is not business at all, although a a formal treaty are now in progress. In the north of Africa French ambition has inally secured the formal annexation of Tunis, which was accomplished on Tues-day in the chamber of deputies. Holland has just passed through a gen-eral election whose result continues in power, by a narrow majority of one or

No more ice cream to-night." —Somerville Journal.

ceeded.