

OMAHA MEDICAL DISPENSARY OFFICE AND PARLORS OVER THE NEW OMAHA NATIONAL BANK, Thirteenth, Bet. Farnam and Douglas Sts.

A. S. Fishblatt, M. D., PROPRIETOR.

The Reason Why Dr. Fishblatt is Enjoying Such Unparalleled Success. The astonishing cures effected by Dr. Fishblatt, of diseases formerly thought incurable, have given him a high rank in the medical profession of this country.

Our Testimonials: The testimonials and extracts from letters published in these columns are only a few of the many thousands Dr. Fishblatt is constantly receiving, and throughout the northwest and in every county of Nebraska can be found persons who can testify to the efficacy of his treatment.

FROM A PROMINENT DRUGGIST OF BENNETT, NEB. F. A. Miles, a Prominent Druggist and Land Agent of the B. and M. R. R.

A Terrible Case of Catarrh Cured. Bones of the Nose Decayed. Cured in Three Months. DR. FISHBLATT, Omaha: In view of the almost miraculous cure you have effected in my case, I feel it my duty to you and those afflicted as I have been to testify to the efficacy of your treatment.

From a Prominent Citizen of Boone County. DR. FISHBLATT—Dear Sir: I do not know exactly how to separate my connection with you without trying something to express my gratefulness for relief brought by your treatment of me.

Happiness Follows Despair. DR. FISHBLATT—Dear Sir: I feel considerably better now than when first I wrote to you, and life is again to me a source of pleasure. After having been bed-ridden so long, part of the time giving up all hope, and after trying numerous doctors without receiving any relief, I submitted to your treatment.

A Difficult Case of Lung Trouble Cured. DEAR DR. FISHBLATT: I owe you a debt of gratitude which I never will be able to pay, for the medicine you have given me has cured me of a lung trouble which I have had for several years.

is Encouraging to Read the Following from a Long Sufferer Who has been Under Dr. Fishblatt's Treatment for About Two Months. DR. FISHBLATT—Dear Sir: My recovery I attribute to your kind and timely treatment.

Cured of Catarrh. DR. FISHBLATT, M. D., Omaha, Neb.—Dear Sir: I have been suffering with catarrh of the head ever since I was twenty years of age. I had long thought a cure was impossible, but your medicine cured me.

A Very Aggravated Case of Female Trouble. The lady who gives the following testimonial does not wish her name to appear in print, but does not object to her address being an application.

Rejoiced Over His Permanent Recovery. Our German friend from Uadilla, Nebraska, writes June 9, 1883. DR. FISHBLATT: Es macht mich Verguegen Ihnen mitzutheilen das ich jetzt gut zu werden bin.

Appreciating What Dr. Fishblatt Has Done for Her. A. S. FISHBLATT—Dear Sir: I am feeling quite strong and looking much better. I have gained five pounds in weight since I came to you.

Kidney Trouble and Nervous Prostration—A Remarkable Cure. A soldier stationed at Fort Niobrara, whose friend was bed-ridden, through a complication of diseases, under date July 4, 1883. I am pleased to inform you that my friend is well again, and is again in through the help of your valuable medicine.

HADES ON THE HALF-SHELL. The Presidential Party Treated to a Foretaste of the Future in Hell's Half Acre.

A Mute Meander Amid the Seething Cauldrons in Fire Hole Basin. The Geysers Greet the Great and Good with Geographical Success.

CAMP UPPER GEYSER BASIN, W. T., via Livingston, M. T., August 26.—Our camp remains to-day amongst the pine tops of the second mesa, above Firehole river.

LAGER ON TAP. A Decision Favorable to Beer Men in St. Louis. ST. LOUIS, August 27.—Judge Noonan, of the court of criminal correction, gave a decision this afternoon in the case of Wm. J. Kemp, charged with violating the Sunday law.

THE BATTLEFIELDS. Monuments and Tablets Erected Around Gettysburg, Pa. GETTYSBURG, Pa., August 27.—There was increased attendance at Camp Geary to-day. The Eighty-first regiment of Pennsylvania volunteers dedicated three tablets.

Collision of Trains. CINCINNATI, August 27.—The Times-Star Steubenville (Ohio) special says there was an accident on the Panhandle road this morning near Mingo Junction.

THE EIGHT-HOUR LAW. Its Enforcement Believed to be a Remedy for Many Ills—The Child Workers. NEW YORK, August 27.—The senate sub-committee on labor and education continues its session to-day.

Postal Changes. WASHINGTON, August 27.—The post-office department has selected the color for the new 4-cent or double rate stamp.

THE FEVER SUBSIDING. PENSACOLA, Florida, August 27.—Today is the fifth since onset of supposed yellow fever were sent to quarantine.

The Broken Tanagers. BOSTON, August 27.—Mr. Wyman, assignee of F. Shaw & Bros., says Shaw will stay in Canada until his presence is desired by his creditors here.

THE FIZZLED DUDE. The Ingenious Death of Oscar Wilde's "Vera." NEW YORK, August 27.—Oscar Wilde's new play, "Vera," has indignously fizzled out of existence at the end of one week's run.

Poisoned Cattle. BOSTON, August 27.—The poisoning of valuable imported cattle at the government quarantine, proves in consequence of the carelessness of officers in selecting ground.

Villard's German Cousins. NEW YORK, August 27.—The German station and others, embracing the party brought over by Villard to witness the opening ceremonies of the Northern Pacific railroad, left this morning for Dobbs' Ferry, Villard's country seat.

Stranded Stars. CHICAGO, August 27.—An attachment against the property of William Davidson, manager of the stranded George Edgar theatrical company, was taken out by Richard Hooley to-day for $2,300 to cover rent of theatre.

A Gas Pipe in St. L. City. ST. LOUIS, August 27.—Judge Lubke, of the circuit court, granted a temporary injunction against the St. Louis Gas Fuel and Power company, at the instigation of the St. Louis Gas Light company.

Des Moines' New Opera House. DES MOINES, August 27.—The new Grand opera house was formally dedicated to-night by the Emma Abbott grand opera company.

Temperance Women. TROY, August 27.—The convention of the National Woman's and Christian Temperance union, at Round Lake, closed yesterday.

THE MISSOURI HERO. Informer Liddell Reaffirms His Story of the March, the Robbery and the Murder.

The Highwayman's Burdens Lightened by Hosts of Sympathizing Friends. Several Young Thieves Disappear and Two Darkies Gracefully Stretch Down South.

CRIMINAL RECORD. THE JAMES TRIAL. ST. LOUIS, Mo., August 27.—The Post-Dispatch Gallatin special says: The Frank James trial was resumed this morning.

Artesian Wells at Denver. DENVER, August 27.—During the last 60 days 25 artesian wells have been struck in this city, every one of which is flowing powerful streams of nearly chemically pure water.

A Broken Bank. NEW YORK, August 27.—The schedule of the solvent firm of E. C. Steedman & Co., bankers, was filed to-day in the court of common pleas.

A Mining Syndicate. MEXICO, August 27.—It is reported an American syndicate has purchased the Real Del Monte company's mines for $4,000,000.

A THIRILING SITUATION. A Miner Suspended in a Shaft Over a Lighted Fuse. Virginia Chronicle. One day last week a miner working in the Keyes & Wheeler in Seven-mile canon had a thrilling experience.

EDITORS OF FOR LIEBE. CINCINNATI, August 27.—Dr. J. C. Beck, a member of the board of health, has caused warrants to be issued for the arrest of R. B. Ross and J. B. Gessner.

ANOTHER SWINDLER. NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., August 27.—John J. Hall is missing with $12,000 borrowed money. The Trenton Times states forged notes aggregating between $20,000 and $30,000 were discovered.

THE CHAMPION AT HOME. TORONTO, August 27.—Hanlan returned to Toronto this evening. He says he is tired out and will rest for a few days.

SPORTING NOTES. THE LOUISVILLE MEETING. NEW YORK, August 27.—Col. Lewis Clark, president of the Louisville Jockey club, and Mr. J. C. Chinn, owner of Leonatus and Red Rose, the latter a pacing wonder, left for Louisville this morning.

THE DENVER RAILROAD. DENVER, August 27.—The Denver & Rio Grande is a narrow gauge, but the road-bed, bridges and tunnels are all constructed with a view to widening the gauge should it ever become necessary.

THE DENVER RAILROAD. DENVER, August 27.—The Denver & Rio Grande is a narrow gauge, but the road-bed, bridges and tunnels are all constructed with a view to widening the gauge should it ever become necessary.

THE DENVER RAILROAD. DENVER, August 27.—The Denver & Rio Grande is a narrow gauge, but the road-bed, bridges and tunnels are all constructed with a view to widening the gauge should it ever become necessary.

THE DENVER RAILROAD. DENVER, August 27.—The Denver & Rio Grande is a narrow gauge, but the road-bed, bridges and tunnels are all constructed with a view to widening the gauge should it ever become necessary.

THE DENVER RAILROAD. DENVER, August 27.—The Denver & Rio Grande is a narrow gauge, but the road-bed, bridges and tunnels are all constructed with a view to widening the gauge should it ever become necessary.

THE DENVER RAILROAD. DENVER, August 27.—The Denver & Rio Grande is a narrow gauge, but the road-bed, bridges and tunnels are all constructed with a view to widening the gauge should it ever become necessary.

THE OLD WORLD. The French Compel the Annamites to Submit and Pay the Bills.

Mr. O'Donnell Heard From in South Africa, and Mrs. Carey Likely to be. Spasmodic Mourning in the Courts for Chamber-House Riots in Hungary.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS. LONDON, August 27.—There is increasing opposition in Madrid to King Alfonso's visit to Germany.

A French nobleman was killed yesterday in ascending Fitzberg, the highest mountain of the Engadine group in Switzerland.

The statue of the inventor of the daguerre-type in France was unveiled at his birth place, Carnelles, near Argenteuil, yesterday.

Seventeen deaths from cholera in Alexandria yesterday. Orleans Prince General Froehdorst has left Paris to attend the funeral of the late Count de Chambord.

There was a grand fete given yesterday in the Tuilleries Gardens, Paris, under the auspices of the press of Paris. The proceeds will be devoted to the sufferers in the recent earthquake at Ischia.

Among the troops which King Alfonso reviewed at Lagrono Saturday, was a regiment of the Muzaleia Valley which participated in the late revolt.

The admiral court has taken possession of the French steamer St. Germain, which cut into and sank the British steamer Woodburn near the Edgworth light house at an early hour Sunday morning.

The steamer Americus, due here tomorrow, will convey the St. Germain's 450 passengers and cargo to New York. The great strength of the water tight bulkheads alone prevented the St. Germain from sinking.

A dispatch from Capetown says: Patrick O'Donnell, who killed Carey arrived there. He wishes to be tried in Capetown. An application for a writ of habeas corpus will be made in the supreme court. It is believed Mrs. Carey will give important evidence, which she has hitherto withheld.

Before O'Donnell was committed for trial he said to the magistrate: "I am not guilty of wilful murder. The killing was done in self defense. Carey drew a revolver from his right hand pocket, and I snatched it and shot him."

A dispatch to The Paris Figaro from Saigon says: Harmon, French civil commissioner, has gone to Hue at the special request of the emperor of Annam, who is desirous of placing himself and capital under French protection, as his position is most imminent.

The Paris Temps has a telegram from Cochin, China, stating that Emperor of Annam reached Harbin on the 25th inst. The emperor showed complete submission. Annam is compelled by treaty to pay the costs of the war, the French to retain the forts on the Hue river pending payment, the Annamite troops in Tonquin to be placed at the disposal of Gen. Bonet; French command a prompt settlement of the question at issue is expected.

Violent riots against the Jews occurred at Egerszeg, Hungary, last Friday and Saturday night. Two thousand peasants took part in the outbreak. Dr. Ginsberg, the celebrated archeologist, in a report to the British museum, declares the Shapira manuscript of the book of Deuteronomy a forgery.

Northern Pacific Bosses. ST. PAUL, August 27.—John Muir, superintendent of traffic of the Northern Pacific railroad, to-day issued a circular making the following appointments and divisions of freight business: East of Helena, J. M. Hamannford, assistant superintendent of freight traffic; St. Paul; freight business west of Helena, A. S. Stokes, assistant superintendent of freight, Portland, Oregon; passenger business east of Helena, Chas. S. Free, assistant superintendent of passenger traffic; Helena, E. H. Rogers, general agent of the passenger department; Portland. All ticket business, G. K. Barnes, general ticket agent, St. Paul.

By Rail to the Yellowstone. ST. PAUL, August 28.—The Yellowstone park branch of the Northern Pacific road is completed to Cinnabar, 61 miles south of Livingston. It will be opened for business September 1st, after which time parties can go directly to the park without staging.

SCROFULA Hood's Sarsaparilla. Probably no form of disease is so generally distributed among our whole population as Scrofula. Almost every individual has this latent poison lurking in his veins.