

THE DAILY BEE.

OMAHA Friday Morning, September 7.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A man named Mad Mason was arrested yesterday and sent up for twenty-eight days on the charge of embezzlement. He had been making collections for Councilman Thrane without authority. In case anything should happen to the editor of The Herald on his return trip, should be followed by the bony deep, for instance, would not the following be a fitting epitaph: By wind he lived, By water he died, By the bishop's baptism he rose to the skies, was about six months late. The clouds began gathering early last evening and quite a shower of rain fell shortly after midnight. A job was run over by a team in North Omaha yesterday, two wheels passing over his limbs, but without breaking any bones. The driver of the team was arrested. Candidates are beginning to loom up for the various offices to be filled at the coming election, and the contest promises to be a lively one. A fight will be made on at least two candidates who will ask for a second term. The dust blew in clouds all day, and died the street sprinklers to keep it down. One solitary drunk at the police court. These new hats of the police force have scared away all bad characters. The committee of arrangements for the reception of the Grand Lodge, K. of P. will meet at the store of Metz and Rosenkranz on Friday evening at 7:30 for the transaction of important business. At a meeting of the fire department last evening it was decided not to parade during fair week; a committee of seven was appointed to arrange for a ball in October; South Omaha hose company was admitted to membership, and Thurston hose team presented Jerome C. Pontrel, their manager, with a gold-headed cane engraved, "Katsus got there."

PERSONALS.

The following are among the arrivals at the Paxton yesterday: C. A. Lipman, H. S. Beadell, B. Bernham, Leonard Benson, Mrs. and Mr. J. P. Diamond, Sol. Gottlieb, M. Dulka, New York; Otto U. von Schröder, St. Louis; Mrs. Tilman, Kentucky; H. S. Terrill, U. S. A.; Lt. Parkhurst, U. S. A.; R. W. Forest, C. H. Taber, H. Higgins, A. G. Hans, J. J. Brady, A. B. G. Warren, Burlington; B. R. Crowdy, Columbus; Edwin Panhofer, Schuyler; H. S. Fuller, Crete; W. Shadwick, Kansas City; A. H. Bishop, Kansas City; C. J. Beach, Saginaw; H. Sparks, Valentine; M. E. Sheehey, Rock Island; D. M. Coleman, New York; J. W. Fulton, Paul City; E. E. White, Plattsmouth; E. P. Drake, St. Helena; F. H. Loewitz, New York; J. C. Jackson, Fremont; Frank Pearson, Philadelphia; J. S. Porter, New York; C. L. Hochstetler, Nebraska City; E. M. Starckworth, Milwaukee; Wm. M. Wright, Wayne; M. D. Welch, Lincoln; S. D. Bratow and wife, San Francisco; Thos. Williams, Omaha; T. C. Kern, Lincoln; John Moran, Charlton, Iowa; August Dipple, Fremont.

Mr. P. Leahy, of Nemaha county, is in the city, spending a few days with his old acquaintances. Harry L. Cleveland, advance agent of the Fay Tompkins Opera company, is in the city. He is well known to the profession as the fiance of Marie Litta, who died before the nuptials were celebrated. Colonel Fred J. Evans, superintendent of the American Refrigerator Transportation company, is in the city. Mrs. J. U. Rose and daughter returned yesterday from a three weeks visit to Salt Lake, accompanied by Mr. Jas. Johnson, chief head clerk, R. M. S. Ogden, Utah, and daughter, who are on their way to Vermont on a visit. Edwin J. Abbott, post chancellor of St. Albans Lodge No. 17, K. of P., of Council Bluffs, Ia., and Sir Knights Patton and Metcalf, of the same city attended the recent session of the Grand Lodge of Nebraska, in this city. Mr. Geo. W. Thrall, of Detroit, is in the city. Dan. Y. Wheeler, the affable representative of Richardson & Co., of St. Louis, is displaying a beautiful line of druggists' holiday goods for the Christmas trade at the Millard. W. A. Roberts, correspondent of The New York World, and Henry C. Novitt, who are friends of Mr. Lucien Stephens, of this city, went west yesterday. Lawrence Bruner and wife passed through Omaha yesterday on their way to Washington. Mr. Bruner is a brilliant young scientist, a Nebraska whose home was once West Point, and is now in a responsible position in the geological division of the department of agriculture.

S. H. H. Clark, manager of the Union Pacific railroad and family, and Mr. F. Knowland, wife and two daughters, arrived from New York yesterday in a special car of the Union Pacific. Mr. Knowland is the general agent for the road at New York, and is stopping at the Millard. Sir Henry Tyler, of London, the president of the Grand Trunk railway, Mr. W. Lindley, of London, and Mr. J. Stephenson, general passenger agent of the Grand Trunk at Montreal, are a party of very agreeable English gentlemen at the Millard. They have been on a tour of inspection over the Grand Trunk railway, and out to Salt Lake, and are just returning from the latter trip. They go this evening in their special car to Sioux City and Saint Paul. Sir Henry is the gentleman who, in a late interview in the East, made such sensible remarks concerning the bad odors on certain Omaha streets. Charles A. Gillie, late superintendent of the American exchange, London, now proprietor of the United States exchange in the city, is at the Millard. He arrived yesterday from the east and left again last night for California.

PITIFULLY POOR.

A Blind Man's Travels Across the Continent.

Hangry and Poorer Than "The Foxes of the Earth."

When THE BEE reporter called at the city jail last evening he found a man sitting on the bench, in conversation with Deputy Marshal Gorman, who had quite a history. His story was related in a modest way and without any intention of having it made public, but it will certainly prove of interest to our readers, as it did to the reporter.

was born in South Carolina and went to California some years ago with letters of recommendation from several United States Senators and other prominent men which gave him the highest endorsement for ability, honesty and integrity. He was given a job on the Southern Pacific, being made foreman of construction on a certain tunnel then being built. While at this work he one day met with an accident which has rendered him

ALMOST HELPLESS.

They were doing some blasting, when one of the charges which should have gone off in two and a half minutes, did not explode for over eighteen minutes. Gaston went into the tunnel to see what was the matter, and just as he stopped over and took hold of the charred end of the fuse, the explosion took place. One of his eyes was blown out and the sight of the other nearly destroyed. He went to a hospital in San Francisco and remained there twenty-three months. Meantime he brought against the railway company. The corporation brought up his lawyer and he was awarded five cents damages. He instructed his counsel to appeal but there was only twenty days in which to do so and the attorney let them go by without taking any action. Finally Gaston started out armed with a letter from the superintendent of the Central Pacific, which carried him as far as Ogden. Then

HIS HARSHIPS BEGAN.

He had to beat his way from one station to another, sometimes being assisted by the county authorities and again by the generosity and liberality of the people. On one occasion the train was stopped out on the prairie and he was about to be bounced off when the passengers raised a purse and paid his way to a station some distance further on. His greatest suffering was for food, and he

for two or three days and had to sleep on depot platforms and in the open air. He arrived in Omaha on Tuesday night and got a square meal some place, and had not another mouthful from that time until midnight last night, when Capt. O'Donohoe went out and procured a lunch for him. He applied at the city jail for a place to sit or lie down during the night and said he could stand it without gain as he "had got used to that." Gibson is and was for a time one of the editors of The San Francisco Chronicle, but as he only got $7 per column, had to hire an amanuensis, and could not get it over three columns per week, he found the work would not pay him even a decent living. He therefore started east to try to get into an infirmary. He is not quite thirty-five years of age, and would look young but for the powder marks and his blindness. He wants in Omaha, a place to live, and from whom he EXPECTS TO GET AID.

He could telegraph to any one of the parties who signed his letters, but has personal reasons for not doing so. He is beyond question an honest and deserving man, and it is to be hoped will find in Omaha the necessary aid to carry him along on his journey.

Never Give Up.

If you are suffering with low and depressed spirits, loss of appetite, general debility, diarrhoeal blood, weak constitution, headache, or any ailment, other than that which means procure a bottle of Electric Bitters. You will be surprised to see the rapid improvement that will follow; you will be inspired with new life; you will actively will return; pain and misery will cease, and henceforth you will rejoice in the praise of Electric Bitters. Sold at fifty cents a bottle by C. F. Goodman.

The Cozens.

OMAHA, September 4, 1895. We have this day leased the hotel known as the Grand Pacific, formerly kept by us, and known then throughout the west as the Cozens, by which name it will hereafter be known. To our patrons of the Palace hotel, Santa Fe, New Mexico; Sidney House, Sidney, Neb. and the Laramie hotel, Laramie City, Wyoming Territory, it is needless for us to make any promises, other than that the Cozens will be entirely new, handsomely furnished, and the table will be the very best the market affords. The bar will be stocked with the choicest liquors.

Rates—$2.00, $2.50 and $3.00 per day, according to floor. No inside or dark rooms in the house.

P. REMSEY & CO.

Ask the clothing houses who LIPPITT LEAK & Co. are. Mr. J. M. McCarty. Death of James F. McCartney. James F. McCartney, for so many years a resident of Omaha, and at one time our city clerk, died in Denver on the 4th of September, at the age of 30 years. Mr. McCartney was for many years the editor and proprietor of the High School Journal, which he conducted with signal ability, and after abandoning that work he served the city one term as its clerk, and then went to work as a contractor, constructing the water works reservoirs. Two years ago he managed the freight business of Stephenson & Co. at O'Neill city, until forced by failing health to resign, when he made a long southern tour from which he returned a mere shadow of his former self. After a short stay at his old home he removed with his family to Denver, at which city he resided at the time of his death.

"Jim" was a noble hearted fellow, proud, ambitious and honorable. He did not make friends of everybody, but to those whom he was devoted to his family and who almost idolized him. Poor boy, his death spared him longer there is no saying what he might not have accomplished.

MARRIED.

MARZ-SPEITMAN.—At the residence of the bride's brother, Anton Gassner, last Tuesday, September 4th, Miss Kathinka Marz to Mr. J. H. Speitman, both of this city. No cards.

DIED.

CARLSON.—In this city September 6th, Alfred Wilhelm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carlson, aged 1 year, 6 months and 5 days. Funeral to-day at 2 p. m. from the residence, No. 1215 Cass street.

MAUD.—Infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Parish. Died September 6th, and was buried yesterday at Prospect Hill cemetery.

THE SEPTEMBER SHOW

Some Preparations for the Coming Fair.

A Large Number of Entries at the Secretary's Office.

A BEE reporter called last evening at the office of the secretary of the state board of agriculture, in the Paxton hotel, and learned some interesting facts concerning the coming state fair. There has been some difficulty in regard to transportation from the city to the fair grounds, and this has finally been settled by an agreement on the part of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha road to run its trains from its depot on Fourteenth and Webster streets to a point only a few feet north of the Union Pacific landing of last year. A car of the shuttle will be put in for unloading stock, and a cattle yard will be built on the same grounds. Stock in car loads will be received from the Union Pacific and B. & M., and run to this point.

Secretary Wheeler has his hands full booking the various entries which are required and as has been stated the various departments promise to be better represented than ever before. Graham P. Brown has made one hundred entries of Jersey cattle and chickens and H. V. Frisley, of Plattburg, Mo., has entered a large number of pigs, one buck alone being valued at $5,000. The agricultural exhibits promise to be extraordinarily good. N. S. Murray, of Lake Grove, Mo., has entered 125 plates of fruit, and the Hall county association of Missouri 225 plates. The secretary and his clerks are very busy making entries and all the officers of the board feel confident that the coming fair will be a success in every way.

OMAHA EXHIBITION.

While entries for the state fair week are piling up from all other portions of this state and other states, and while the delegation that went to the Des Moines fair will bring here a little fair of itself, the people of Omaha are, as usual, behind in presenting their exhibits. There is a disposition to look at the state fair as something in which the city has little concern, while in truth, it brings thousands here who visit Omaha once a year on this account. It is money to the city directly and indirectly. The secretary of the DOUGLASS COUNTY SOCIETY has an office with the secretary of the state agricultural society, and it behooves our citizens to make liberal entries with both Secretaries. Baumer and Wheeler. If our people fail to take an interest in the fair, other than visiting them, the result may be the removal of the fair next year, by which we would lose a great means of advertising, which we now possess, and an attraction which draws business men as well as other visitors to the commercial center of the state. Lincoln, Hastings, Plattsmouth, Seward are waiting on the outskirts. They are willing to take care of the fair.

THE ART DEPARTMENT needs particular encouragement from the ladies of Omaha. It may be some trouble to take out exhibits, but the exhibition as a whole has a wonderful influence on the aesthetic tastes of the people in general and is productive of ideas to those who know something of painting. The display in the fine arts and textile fabric department last year was a great success, and it is hoped that it may be even more complete next week. The premium list in the art class has been enlarged and gives scope for many articles that were not provided for last time, with premiums that will make it worth the while of ladies to take out their China and pictures.

DES MOINES COMING. Dan. H. Wheeler, Jr., the assistant secretary of the state fair, returned from Des Moines yesterday, where he had gone to secure exhibits for the Nebraska fair. He had the best of success, and says that a large number of exhibitors are coming over next week, including some of the finest stock that has ever been seen in the west. The horses, trotting, pacing and running, which Mr. Wheeler has secured, will be a great addition to our fair. The implement men are also coming over with their various wares.

Mr. Wheeler reports the Des Moines fair as an immense success, with great crowds of people. T. W. Harvey, of Burlington, Neb., took the cake on cattle, beating a man named Potts who has taken the first premium on cattle right along with the utmost complacency for the last twelve years. All of these prize cattle of Harvey's will be here at week. The chariot races of Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, of Chicago, which are to be here took place daily in Des Moines with the greatest satisfaction to everybody. The president and secretary of the Des Moines fair are also to be here.

The sheep exhibited at this state fair will be unusually large, there being already over 200 entries. Among those who exhibit are George Richardson, Steinbock, Mo.; G. W. McFadden, Atlantic, Ia.; Morgan & Pouting, Moweaqua, Shelly Co., Ill.; Stone & Lease, Storington, Ill.; Jas. Camp, LaPorte City, Ia.; C. H. Ballinger, Plum Creek, and H. F. Rigley, Plattburg, Mo., who has a buck valued at FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS, that clips thirty-three pounds of wool. Mr. Horace Allen will receive a carload of American and Silesian Merino sheep from New York this afternoon to be exhibited next week.

There are 107 entries of horses from different parts of the state. There are 181 entries in the cattle department, R. Daniels, Claudius Jones, A. Gramlich and the Agricultural college being the largest exhibitors. We notice that William A. Paxton, Jr., has exhibited into the stock business, and will exhibit a bull, a cow and a heifer calf. Like former years.

By consulting the premium list the special rates on all the railroads running into Omaha, for the benefit of these coming to the fair, can be found. The rates are very low. The B. & M. will run a special train Thursday from York and Friday from Wymore, to connect at Lincoln with the train that reaches here at 9:40 a. m., and on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday the train from Hastings will run faster than usual.

Notes from Bancroft. The Omaha Baptist association convened here Tuesday. Yesterday was occupied in discussion of Sabbath school work and electing officers. The officers of the year are: Moderator, Rev. J. C. Lewis, Fremont; clerk, M. G. Macleod, Omaha; treasurer, Dr. M. H. Tokama, Tekama. This morning has been occupied in ap-

A WRETCHED WOMAN.

Sad Case of One Who Has Worn Diamonds.

And Now Goes to a Cell for Drunkenness.

Last evening a woman was arrested and lodged in the city jail on the charge of drunkenness. It is not necessary that her name should be paraded before the world, but it is sufficient to say that she was once the wife of a prominent and respected Omaha lawyer, and Deputy Marshal Gorman, who is the oldest man now on the force has seen her when she was fairly abashed with disconsolation. She separated from her husband and went to Denver and now returns a wreck of her former self. She has a sad story, which if written would prove the old adage that "truth is stranger than fiction."

The are many who would recollect her if the name was put in print, but it would only add to the disgrace and degradation into which she has fallen. In her more prosperous times she was handsome and a picture of health. Now, she is a little shriveled up and miserable specimen of humanity.

WOLFE not be without Redding's Russia Salve, is the verdict of all who use it. Price 25 cents.
