THE LATEST MODES.

The New Store of Ed. B. Williams and His Attraction.

A Place Where Gentlemen Can Find Everything in Style.

The new and elegantly finished store room, 1406 Farnam street, has been taken and occupied by Ed. B. Williams, the dealer in gentlemen's furnishing goods.

He leaves his former quarters in the Millard hotel, where the first year's business has been so successfully carried on, to come over onto Farnam street.

It is seldom so rapid a growth is made in any line of business as this has been. This good fortune of Mr. Williams in drawing so extensive a custom has arisen from the fact that he and those he employs have the happy knack of catering TO THE EXACT TASTE.

Of their patrons, who are numbered among the most particular of Omaha and the state.

For this house has not rested content with only supplying home demands, but has built up an extensive trade in the west and south, based on excellence and satisfaction of work.

The best of goods are kept in the tailoring department and importations are made direct to the store.

Mr. C. W. Williams is the cutter, an experienced man who has made quite a reputation for always fitting what is considered the correct thing in his work.

THE STORE ITSELF is beautifully arranged, and is lit brilliantly with the electric lamp.

The show windows are filled with the latest imported goods for the coming fall and winter wear.

The tables inside the store are also loaded with a full line of cassimeres, cloths, Scotch goods and broadcloth in the greatest confusion.

That a gentleman can need. Underwear and other articles of that kind, with a very complete line of handsome hostery burden the shelves.

The basement is used as a storage room, and the third floor as a tailor shop, where a large force of men constantly busy answering the demands on that department.

THE STORE ITSELF is beautifully arranged, and is lit brilliantly with the electric lamp. The show windows are filled with the latest imported goods for the coming fall and winter wear.

A Happy Family. Puffed from the breast, squeezed from the bottle stomachs will soon and will circle. Baby hallelujah all that night.
