

THE STEEL CIRCUET.

The Gate City to be Girded With a Belt Road.

A Project That Speaks For Itself.

Omaha is about to receive another impetus which will send her spinning forward to a front rank among the enterprising, metropolitan cities of the country.

Articles of incorporation of the Omaha Belt railway company were yesterday filed in the office of the county clerk, and it is stated that the work of making a preliminary survey has already begun and that the work will be completed by June 1, 1884. It will follow the Union Pacific road bed from Summit Station on the south to the U. P. depot, shops, the driving park, Fort Omaha, the waterworks, reservoir, Hanscom park and New Edinburgh. Its great advantages are apparent to all and the full importance of the movement will be seen from the articles themselves, which read as follows:

ARTICLE I. The name of said company shall be the Omaha Belt railway company, and the principal office of said company shall be in the city of Omaha, Douglas county, and state of Nebraska.

ARTICLE II. The nature of the business to be transacted by said corporation shall be the construction, maintenance and operation of railroad or railroads in Douglas county.

ARTICLE III. The capital stock of said corporation, authorized, shall be $200,000, in shares of $100 each, to be subscribed and paid as required by the board of directors of said corporation in obedience to the laws of the state of Nebraska. Said capital stock may be increased to such an amount as may be deemed necessary to accomplish the purpose of this corporation in the manner provided by law, not exceeding the sum of $2,000,000.

ARTICLE IV. This corporation shall begin on the 10th day of September, 1883, and terminate September 10th, 1885, unless sooner dissolved or continued in accordance with law.

ARTICLE V. The business of said corporation shall be conducted by a board of directors, consisting of not less than nine members, as may be provided by the by-laws of the corporation. Said directors shall be elected by the stockholders annually at an annual stockholders' meeting to take place on the first Tuesday of January of each year.

ARTICLE VI. The officers of said corporation shall be a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer, who shall be elected by the board of directors and shall hold their several offices for the term of one year, and their successors are duly elected and qualified. In case of a vacancy in any of said offices, or in the board of directors, it shall be filled by the remaining directors or directors.

ARTICLE VII. The highest amount of indebtedness to which the corporation at any time subject itself shall not exceed the sum of $1,300,000, and shall not exceed two-thirds of the capital stock authorized.

ARTICLE VIII. The board of directors shall have full power and authority to adopt such by-laws as may be necessary, providing for the subscription of stock, the recording of the same, the stockholders, and providing the manner of conducting the business of the corporation.

ARTICLE IX. These articles of incorporation may be altered or amended by the stockholders in such manner as may be provided by the by-laws and in accordance with law.

The incorporators are S. H. H. Clark, Leavitt Burnham, John M. Thurston, Frank Murphy and Edward W. Nash.

ENVOYS EXTRAORDINARY.

The Korean Embassy Passes Through Omaha This Afternoon.

An Aide-De-Camp of General Sheridan Escorts Them East.

Col. James F. Gregory, on the personal staff of Gen. Sheridan, arrived from Chicago yesterday and stopped at the Paxton. A reporter of THE BEE learned from him that he had come thus far to meet the two ambassadors who were expected to pass through this city afternoon on their way to Washington, accompanied by a numerous retinue. This is the ever made by Korea in this country, and the American government desires to show its particular courtesy. Korea is a kingdom of eastern Asia, between the Yellow sea and the Sea of Japan, containing about eighty thousand square miles.

Col. Gregory, being asked if he could give any information in regard to the expected arrivals said that he could not particularly, but he was to tell what he knew about Korea.

"THE KING OF KOREA," he said, "is a vassal of the Chinese empire, but within his own country he is an absolute monarch, with power of life and death over the nobles in the land. He is the object of almost divine honors; it is sacrilege to utter the name which he receives from his suzerain, and that by which he is known in history is only bestowed upon him after his death by his successor. Now, that is strange, isn't it? And to touch his person with a weapon of iron is HIGH TREASON, and so rigidly is this rule enforced that one king, about 1800, suffered an amputation to the contact of the lance. Every horseman dismounts as he passes the palace, and whoever enters the presence chamber must fall prostrate before the throne. If the ignoble body of a subject chanced to be touched by royal hands, the honor thus conferred must be forever after commemorated with a badge. The country is being rapidly civilized however."

At this point the conversation was interrupted and the reporter learned no more of the interesting land.

A MONTANA MAN.

Who Comes to Omaha to Be Cured of Blindness.

Last evening a reporter of THE BEE was standing in front of the opera house talking to a friend from Montana and watching the crowd passing to and fro, when suddenly the gentleman with whom he was standing pressed his arm and directed his attention to an elderly man who was making his way cautiously along.

"The last two months of that man's life form the most interesting bit of personal history I have heard for some time," said the western man to the reporter. "He submitted himself to the doctors here--I know him well."

"What is the story?" asked the reporter, "he looks feeble."

"He is not feeble," said the gentleman, "but he has just recovered his sight after having been

BLIND FOR SIXTEEN YEARS.

His name is Symonds, and two months ago he came here to see some oculist of yours, whom he had heard of out in Montana. He submitted himself to the doctors' skill--I have forgotten his name--and is now completely cured, and made considerably younger by the change. It is a wonderful case."

The reporter agreed that it was a wonderful case, and jotted it down as one of the many sights and incidents to be seen daily on the streets of Omaha.

SOUTH OMAHA.

A Protest Against the Grade on South Eleventh Street.

To the Editor of the Omaha Bee: OMAHA, Sept. 11. In behalf of the citizens of South Eleventh street and the streets in the vicinity of the Center Street school, I desire to call your attention to the proposed canal surveyed through said street, as near as I can ascertain. The present state of the street is as good as it can be, with the exception of a deep ravine in the vicinity of Hickory street, north and south of Pierce. In order to fill up this hole it is proposed cut a canal through the balance of Eleventh street on the south from eight to twenty and thirty feet deep, as I understand, per present proposed survey; or, in other words, wreck the hard-earned homes of 150 families to fill a hole and make it valuable to present owners. There is not the ghost of an excuse for this wholesale wrecking without it is to get from two to three thousand dollars for moving the dirt. Now, we say if this dirt can be left, and a cut if any made, we are willing to pay double price per yard for what is taken and in that way the contractor can get just the same out of it and leave half the dirt where it is, a reasonable cost we do not object to. A canal deep enough to float a ship if filled with water we do not protest against. We also protest against the ruin of our homes when uncalculated for on the ground that it can not be a benefit to loaded teams as few come there, and while on earth we do not desire to be any nearer heaven than we are. Nor either nearer the other place by being buried before we die. But if we must be graded let it be one-half way between the two points named. A fair and just grade to all parties concerned, to those who pay the taxes and those who make their homes and live out there. This rationing policy will drive people from Omaha and let us remind the fathers of this city, there is a town close at hand newly organized, that will guarantee safety from thieves at night and wreckers by day and the present policy of those who should protect the people will drive many of us to seek homes where there is some guarantee of safety from these

A BEAUTIFUL DRIVE.

A Glimpse at the Fun on the Avenue.

Sixteenth Street and Sherman Avenue Opened at Last.

By the time that this article is in print the completion of the paving and grading of Sixteenth street and its connection, Sherman avenue, will be accomplished and the entire length of the two thoroughfares open for travel.

It is an opportune moment for this improvement, as it is the only air line route to the fair grounds and one of the most elegant drives in this or any western city. It is kept in the best possible condition by a fund subscribed by those who use it for speeding purposes, which amusement has been all the rage during the summer months. Driving is extensively indulged in and many a noble steed from the great number possessed by Omaha has skinned over the course like like the wind. Exciting races have been the rule, furnishing rare sport for the participants and decidedly interesting to the spectators, who often assemble to the number of several hundred.

Some fast time has been made, of which the standard three minute gait has been decidedly common, and a forty gait not rare. Among those who attained the latter have been J. M. Thurston's bay gelding, which is credited with a record of 2:32; usually driven by Henry Homan.

Dr. A. S. Fishblatt's Charlie Taylor, a sorrel gelding, valued at $1,000, is a fine traveller and can trot low down in the thirties.

W. H. McCord's bay gelding, Dave Mount, is a fine looking horse, a splendid mover, very ambitious and trots low down in the thirties.

Among the others in this class are A. H. Ellsworth's "Little Tom," with a record of 2:30, and D. C. Canningham's "Wild Irishman," Dr. Her's bay gelding, with a record of 2:40.

There are many other noted animals familiar to those who frequent Sherman avenue, who have still not been trained for the track, including John S. Caulfield's bay horse; Elmer Frank's dark brown "Emperor"; John L. Redick's sorrel mare and Louis Littlefield's noted horse "Becher"; "Chic" is one of the best trotters on the avenue and with a record down to the forties and at adly growing lower; Fred Nash's Canada Girl, one of the best on the road; Wilkins and Evans' brown gelding, Scotland Tom, an elegant driver, and L. V. Morse's bay horse.

Among the pacers who are often seen on the avenue are John I. Redick's McClelland, with a record of 2:27; Pat Manning's Buckskin; Frank Redmond's sorrel gelding and Ike's bay gelding.

Among the handsome double teams are those of W. A. Paxton, the fastest in the city; J. N. H. Patrick's beautiful blacks, J. H. and J. H. Canningham's, Dr. Coffey's, J. H. Millard's, Guy C. Barton's blacks, the Kitchens' magnificent grays, James Creighton's and a host of others. These horses cannot but attract great attention during fair week and show what Nebraska folks can do in the way of obtaining fine horse flesh.

A. S. Fishblatt, M. D., PROPRIETOR.

The Reason Why Dr. Fishblatt is Enjoying Such Unparalleled Success.

The astonishing cures effected by Dr. Fishblatt, of diseases formerly thought incurable, have given him a high rank in the medical profession of this country. He has won such deserved celebrity, the people of the far west no longer deem it necessary to visit eastern cities to find physicians competent to treat complicated diseases.

Our Testimonials

The testimonials and extracts from letters published in these columns are only a few of the many thousands Dr. Fishblatt is constantly receiving, and throughout the northwest and in every county of Nebraska can be found persons who can testify to the efficacy of his treatment.

FROM A PROMINENT DRUGGIST OF BENNETT, NEB.

F. A. Siddes, a Prominent Druggist and Land Agent of the B. and M. R. R. Writes:

DEAR DR. FISHBLATT:--Dear Sir: Appreciating the value of the services you have rendered me, I deem it but a set of simple justice to you to express the sense of gratification I feel toward you. After each suffering as I have had from catarrh and throat troubles, from which all doctors I had heretofore done had failed to relieve me, however many ointments I had used, the disease has nearly disappeared after your treatment of scarcely two months, and in that time I have gained eight pounds in weight. Consider me, dear doctor, under everlasting obligations to you, and by referring any one to me, afflicted as I was, I shall consider an act of kindness to them to advise them to submit to your treatment. Ever your friend, F. A. SIDDLES.

A Terrible Case of Catarrh Cured. Bones of the Nose Decayed. Cured in Three Months.

DEAR DR. FISHBLATT, Omaha: In view of the almost innumerable cures you have effected in my case, I feel it my duty to you and those afflicted as I have been to bestow just praise where it is due. For years I have suffered from Catarrh in the worst form. The discharge was constant and very offensive, and the bones of my nose were in a bad state of decay. After doctoring a great deal without success, I was induced to apply to you for treatment. Three months have now scarcely elapsed since you took charge of my case, and I am happy to report myself completely cured of that dreadful malady, and I am anxious to have all those troubled with Catarrh, whom I can influence, avail themselves of your treatment. Thanking you most heartily for the great boon you have conferred on me, I am ever gratefully yours. MISS JACKSON WILLIAMS.

FROM A PROMINENT CITIZEN OF BOONE COUNTY.

DEAR DR. FISHBLATT:--Dear Sir: I do not know exactly how to separate my connection with you without saying something to express my gratitude for relief brought by your treatment of me. My rheumatism, which you desire to express my gratitude for relief brought by your treatment of me. My rheumatism, which you desire to express my gratitude for relief brought by your treatment of me. My rheumatism, which you desire to express my gratitude for relief brought by your treatment of me.

Testimonial from Humboldt, Neb.

MR. GEORGE M. SQUIRES, of Humboldt, Nebraska, says: I have suffered for a long time with rheumatism, which has prostrated me to such an extent that I was obliged to give up my farm. My left side was especially affected, and after trying numerous remedies without receiving any relief, I submitted to your treatment about two months ago. I am happy to say that I am now nearly well, and consider that you have performed on me a wonderful cure. I have gained eight pounds and am now able to attend to my work without any inconvenience.

Happiness Follows Despair.

DEAR DR. FISHBLATT:--Dear Sir: I feel considerably better now than when first I wrote to you, and life is beginning to have some charms for me again. After having been bed-ridden for long, part of the time giving up all hope of ever being able to get up again, it seems so nice, I can hardly realize it, to take my meals with a good appetite, to move about like other people do without pains and aches, and to have everybody congratulate me on my improved appearance. And all this, doctor, thanks to your medicine, which I shall always believe, has snatched me from the shadows of death.

A Difficult Case of Lung Trouble Cured.

MR. DEAN DR. FISHBLATT: I own you a debt of gratitude which I will be able to repay for the scientific skill you have displayed in treating me. I have for a long time been considered a hopeless consumptive, and everybody, including myself, considered my days numbered. My good fortune led me to apply to you for treatment last November, and I have since had the most wonderfully short time you have effected my cure. I have gained fifteen pounds, and consider myself thoroughly cured. You are at liberty to use this as a reference for others similarly afflicted. Yours respectfully, ALEX MCINTOSH.

It is Encouraging to Read the Following from a Long Sufferer Who has been Cured Dr. Fishblatt's Treatment for About Two Months.

DEAR DR. FISHBLATT:--Dear Sir: My folks say I appear to have gained twenty pounds since I commenced taking your medicine. And we all think there was never anything like your treatment. I know that medicine you sent me was just what I needed. Yours truly, MISS N. B. BORG.

Cured of Catarrh.

MR. FISHBLATT, M. D., Omaha, Neb.--Dear Sir: I have been suffering with catarrh in the head ever since I can remember, and now I am twenty nine years of age. I had long thought a cure was impossible, but happy to say that I am now cured of it with your medicine. I have gained fifteen pounds, and consider myself thoroughly cured. You are at liberty to use this as a reference for others similarly afflicted. Yours respectfully, W. M. MOYER.

A Very Aggravated Case of Female Trouble.

The lady who gives the following testimonial does not wish her name to appear in print, but do not object to her name being given on application. GRAND ISLAND, NEBRASKA, February 19, 1883.

REJECTED OVER HIS PERMANENT RECOVERY.

Our German friend from Unadilla, Nebraska, writes June 9, 1883. DEAR DR. FISHBLATT: Es macht mich Vergnügen Ihnen mittheilen zu konnen das ich jetzt gut zu wege kommen bin, nachdem ich einige Monate lang in der Kaserne lag. Ich bin wieder gesund und kann mich nun wieder meiner Arbeit widmen. Achtungsvoll, MARTIN WEIGER.

Appreciating What Dr. Fishblatt Has Done for Her.

MR. A. S. FISHBLATT: I am feeling quite strong and looking much better. Have gained five pounds. Wish I could tell everybody how well I feel and how well I feel now. MISS M. HEMSTREET.

Mr. R. A. Johnson, of Lynden, Nebraska, writes under date of April 28, 1883: The remedy which I received of you afforded great relief; I feel as though I had been regenerated.

A young gentleman from Exeter, Nebraska, writes June 1st: I am satisfied that your medicines are helping me; I am not as nervous, nor have the dizzy spells. In fact, Doctor, I feel as though I was another boy altogether.

Kidney Trouble and Nervous Prostration--A Remarkable Cure.

DEAR DR. FISHBLATT:--Dear Sir: Permit me to express to you my acknowledgments of the great service you have done me in restoring me once more to health and strength. Have gained five pounds, suffered beyond description from kidney disease and my nervous system was in a state of complete prostration. The fluttering of my heart after the slightest exertion, was beyond endurance. Through your treatment I am now completely restored and I consider mine a remarkable cure. I feel better than I have for years and there are no traces of my old complaints left. Very truly yours, JOHN B. SMITH.

DEAR DR. FISHBLATT:--I intended to come and see you for a long time, but it seems impossible to do so, wanted to see you face to face and return you thanks for what you have done for my wife's health. She has been better these last six months than she has been for three years. She has not taken any medicine since the last you sent her and has some of it left. She has put on fully 25 pounds under your treatment. She is now doing her work every day. The family all join in sending you their thanks. I advise all in contact with, who are troubled with lung disease, to put themselves under your treatment. Wishing you success, I am your friend, J. S. MCCOBBLEY.
