MINOR MENTION.

New pattern hats at Bliss'. See Joseph Reiter's fall goods. Additional local on seventh page. Cheap Railroad Tickets at Bushnell's.

At Braun's European Restaurant dinner is served from ten o'clock a. m. to three o'clock p. m. A "boss" dinner, too.

At the Ogden house no colored people need apply for position in the dining room, girls having been substituted as waiters.

There was a wild charivari Monday night in the First ward, all the old time in the neighborhood being used to break up the sweet slumbers of the newly married ones.

Judge James has redeemed himself by laying alongside his fine property in the Fourth ward one of the best sidewalks in the city, an asphaltum, which will endure for years. Good enough.

At Braun's European restaurant there is being set one of the best dinners ever served to visitors to a fair. Dinner is served from 10 o'clock a. m. till 3 o'clock p. m. so as to accommodate all.

Word was received here yesterday of a burglary at Glenwood, by which Mr. Hansen of that place lost $100 in jewelry. It was thought that a watch taken from a jewelry store at the police station might be a part of the stolen stock. But it does not answer the description of any of the stolen goods.

There was a happy gathering of young folks at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Epeneter Monday night, entertained by his son and daughter Gustave and Miss Maggie. Refreshments were abundant, and a merry dance was held in the new building just erected by Mr. Epeneter as a cornice factory.

Col. E. R. George resigned the position of steward of the Ogden house a while ago, but the resignation did not take effect until yesterday, when Mr. P. M. Copeland, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, assumed the duties of that position. Mr. Copeland is well known to the hotel public and will doubtless make a popular steward.

In the presence of a few relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties, assembled at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Moore, 257 South Seventh street, Rev. Father McMenomy joined in marriage Mr. Oscar Kiplinger and Miss Lizzie Colbert. Mr. Kiplinger is a sister of Moore, and the groom is well known as a popular salesman in the employ of J. L. Forman.

HENDRICKS FOR HIMSELF. Hurrah for "Tilden and Reform." Hon. Thos. A. Hendricks of Indiana, who was never vice president of the U. S., addressed a fair audience yesterday morning in Boyliss park. Mr. Hendricks is a fine appearing gentleman, and is a good talker. But he appeared to be reaching after the unattainable. The long desired object he subsequently explained was political offices for the democratic party, and the consequent handling of the funds of the nation.

FAIR SIGHTS. Crowds Begin Pouring in From All Directions.

A Fine Exhibition and Rare Sport on the Turf. Children's Day Not a Bad One for Old Folks--The Programme for To-Day.

The weather was fine for the fair yesterday, which was really the opening day of what has every indication of proving the best exhibition ever given in this part of the country. Every train coming into the city brought scores upon scores of visitors, while at an early hour teams began rolling in the folks from the adjacent country. The city itself presented a lively appearance. Most of the merchants have especially decorated their show windows very attractively for fair week. The sidewalks were thronged, street corners were crowded, while still dense crowds gathered about the street corners, where striking machines and various vendors planted their stands and set their bait for suckers at an early hour.

A large tent show pitched its canvas on vacant lots and added its highly colored and sensational banners and croakings to the general confusion. There were visible a good many cracks and sneaks about the streets, and the public will do well to look well to their pocketbooks and purses. All was bustle, stir and activity, and at an early hour there was a stream of people and teams pouring toward the fair grounds.

On the grounds there was the appearance of a little city itself, dressed for a gala day. Many of the exhibitors were putting finishing touches upon their displays, while crowds of visitors wandered from place to place, dwelling upon such interesting displays as particularly interested them, and waiting for the more exciting sport of the afternoon.

THE EXPOSITION BUILDING is very attractive, outside and inside. It is one of the finest buildings in the state, and when in holiday trim is certainly a beauty. Among the merchants are J. Mueller, Metcalf Bros., Hebe & Co., Cooper & Metcalf, De Vol & Wright, H. E. Scaman, W. W. Chapman, M. J. Michaels, Casady & Orcutt, Harkness Bros., Maurer & Craig, J. M. Phillips, Oliver & Graham, E. Stocker, J. J. Good, H. Fiedman, Burnham & Son, Walters Bros., E. Knabe, and others, thus presenting a great variety of goods, and the booths were never so tastefully trimmed, and goods displayed so attractively.

M. Columbus has a fine showing of oil paintings, mostly portraits, from his studio. They are excellent. The floral display is a bower of beauty, while there is a bewildering of fancy needlework, pictures, and other articles, the products of home.

THE SHOW OF FRUIT is remarkable, and the long tables, with the plates of apples, pears, plums, etc., the bunches of luscious grapes, the decorations of flowers and plants, made the exhibition one of the most pleasing and attractive of all. The display is under the wise management of A. S. Bonham, Mr. Prouty and Miss Rich. The display of apples from Mr. L. Prouty's orchard is excellent, there being 26 varieties. The nursery display made by H. C. Raymond, embraces 50 varieties of apples. Weis & Mair, of the Hillside nursery, exhibit 100 varieties of apples and plums, and all this fruit was grown in the city of Council Bluffs, except one plate of apples grown near the asylum. This is pretty good evidence that Council Bluffs can, and Iowa can raise fruit, and the best kind of fruit, too. All who have seen the exhibit and who have seen the fruit exhibit at Des Moines, pronounce this by far the best. A. C. Graham shows very fine grapes, and others are also worthy of attention.

well bunched, and there was a lively struggle on the last quarter. Glenwood won the heat, Rocky Mountain Tom, second; Toronto Maid, third; Lucy B, fourth; Lorene, fifth. Time announced 2:37. A number claimed the time to be 2:27, and insisted that the timer had made a mistake of ten seconds, and after investigation the announcement was corrected, the time being 2:27. The half was made in 1 1/2; in this heat Glenwood dropped a hind shoe.

The second heat was not so fast but was trotted with hardly a break or a skip. Rocky Mountain Tom took the lead, with Toronto Maid and Lucy B. Struggling for second place, followed by Lorene, and Glenwood bringing up the rear. In coming in Lucy B came to the front and won the heat in 2:30, Rocky Mountain Tom second, Lorene third, Glenwood fourth, and Toronto Maid fifth.

In the third heat Lucy B led off and kept to the front to the finish, winning the heat in 2:30. Rocky Mountain Tom came in second, and Lorene, who kept to a good part of the distance, dropped into fourth, giving third to Toronto Maid, while Glenwood came in last.

In the fourth heat Glenwood was drawn, Lucy B took the lead and kept it steadily to the finish, Rocky Mountain Tom and Toronto Maid struggling for second, but Tom winning it, the Maid third and Lorene fourth. Time, 2:31 1/2.

THE SUMMARY. 2:40 class, trotting, purse $400, divided $200, $100, $50, $40. A large tent show pitched its canvas on vacant lots and added its highly colored and sensational banners and croakings to the general confusion.

THE CHARIOT RACE. one of which is to be given every day, was sandwiched in between other races, and proved quite an attraction, four horses attached to each of the chariots, one of which was driven by Nellie Barry. She was beaten by her male counterpart, but not badly, and the time was given as two minutes. As a novelty race it pleased the crowd greatly.

THE RUNNING RACE. In this there were four starters: Ira Platter's Dawn of Day, Fayette Smith's Atwood, P. E. Lefler's Black Prince, and S. C. Williams' Ella Rowett. It was a mile dash, $200, and was very neatly run. Dawn of Day took the lead, Atwood following Ella Rowett and Black Prince. The horses kept closely bunched the entire distance, and Atwood won in 1:45, Ella Rowett coming in second, Dawn of Day third, and Black Prince fourth.

THE FREE-FOR-ALL PACING. The entries in this were Belle Mahone, Sailor Boy, Limber Jack, Silver Tail, Billy Scott, Frank, and Garey Owens. There were four starters, placed as follows: Limber Jack, Billy Scott, Sailor Boy, and Belle Mahone. In the first heat there was very little time wasted in scoring, the horses getting into a fair pace. Limber Jack led off for the start, they being pretty well strung along, Belle Mahone trailing behind. The heat was won by Limber Jack in 2:24, Billy Scott second, Sailor Boy third, Belle Mahone fourth.

The second heat was even a better one. On the start of Limber Jack and fall back, Billy Scott taking the lead, Sailor Boy close on to him, and soon sailing ahead, close on to him, and soon sailing ahead, Billy Scott did some good work, but was not able to come to the front, Sailor Boy winning the heat, Limber Jack second, Billy Scott third, Belle Mahone fourth; time 2:23.

The third heat was somewhat of a sensational one. A fine start was had, and Limber Jack was leading, with Billy Scott close on him, Mahone and Sailor Boy following. Sailor Boy pushed ahead, but there not being enough room between Limber Jack and Billy Scott, Sailor Boy climbed onto Limber Jack, smashing one of the latter's wheel and bringing him to a standstill. Billy Scott came in third and Limber Jack second, Sailor Boy fourth. The judges decided that it was an accident for which no one was to blame and they were all allowed to start again and distance was named.
